Modern Islamic Literature James Kritzeck, 1970 Modern Islamic Literature: from 1800 to the Present. With an Introd. and Commentaries by James Kritzeck James Kritzeck (comp), The Literature of Islam Paula Youngman Skreslet, Rebecca Skreslet, 2006-09-20 This book introduces the literature of Islam as it is presented in English translation For scholars in other fields who need to understand the vast and complex literary heritage of this erudite and vigorous faith community but are unable to devote years of their lives to achieving a reading proficiency in classical Arabic for faculty members called upon to teach introductory or survey courses outside their own disciplines and for graduate students in theology medieval studies world religions or related fields who need access to these primary sources in English translation The Literature of Islam is a welcome resource Even lay readers who are interested in understanding the modern Arab or Islamic world may grasp something of the currents of thought and belief through the centuries that produced these important works which continue to exert a powerful influence upon Muslims today The primary literatures of Islam are normally classified into several areas of study the canonical literature the interpretation of scripture and tradition law theology philosophy history and mysticism Entries here are organized into these areas of study and represent the most significant texts from important trends in the discipline The volume also includes an extensive bibliography that lists the editions of primary sources analyzed in each chapter There are also some suggestions for secondary reading which might be helpful to a student seeking additional information about each genre of literature Contemporary Turkish Writers Louis Mitler, 1988 Books on Asia from the Near East to the Far East Eleazar Birnbaum, 1971-12-15 This is a selected annotated list of some 2 000 books on Asia in English and French currently in print chosen with the aim of providing a long term historical perspective for the general reader The list is presented in four main parts Asia as a whole the Islamic world India South and Southeast Asia the Far East Subdivisions cover such topics as general and reference works history social science and law history of literature literature in translation religion and ideas arts crafts architecture and science and the lands in modern times Voices of Islam Virginia G. Blakemore-Henry, Vincent J. Cornell, Omid Safi, 2006-12-30 Despite frequent and extensive publications on Islam very few Americans indeed very few non Muslims truly understand the faith or the more than one billion adherents who live it This set presents the diversity and richness of Islam filling in the blanks and expanding our knowledge and understanding Portraying Muslims in all their humanity and diversity balances the images that have bombarded society and presents the reader with a fuller and more accurate picture of the Islamic faith and what it means to live as a Muslim in Muslim communities and as part of a broader tapestry of pluralism in the nations of the world What does it mean to share Muslim concerns To experience Muslim spirituality What is the difference between Sunni and Shiite sects Why do Muslims pray so frequently What is the reality of Muslim marriage and gender relations What is the meaning of jihad and martyrdom to a practicing Muslim What role do the arts and humanities play in modern Muslim life How are Islamic children raised These questions and others are answered in these volumes which bring together Muslim voices from around the world including men and women scholars and laypersons fundamentalists and progressives and others from various cultural political and Islamic backgrounds Personal experiences and poetry are included to illustrate the many different expressions of Islam

Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilisation and Religion Ian Richard Netton, 2013-12-19 The Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion provides scholarly coverage of the religion culture and history of the Islamic world at a time when that world is undergoing considerable change and is a focus of international study and debate The non Muslim world's perceptions of Islam have often tended to be dominated by unrepresentative radical extremist movements and media interpretations of events involving such movements to the extent that many people are unaware of the depth and variety of Islamic thought At the same time many who have had a formal training in Islamic studies have tended to concentrate on the traditional to the exclusion of the contemporary The Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion covers the full range of Islamic thought in historical depth but it also provides substantial coverage of contemporary trends across the Muslim world With well over a thousand entries on Islamic theology history arts science law and institutions and coverage of Islam in individual countries and cities around the world the Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion provides an extremely rich resource for students and researchers in religious studies and Middle Eastern studies Entries are cross referenced and bibliographies are provided There is a full index Routledge published

The Qura n An Encyclopedia in 2005 an excellent companion to the Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion
