Animating Film Theory Karen Redrobe, 2014-03-21 Animating Film Theory provides an enriched understanding of the relationship between two of the most unwieldy and unstable organizing concepts in cinema and media studies animation and film theory For the most part animation has been excluded from the purview of film theory The contributors to this collection consider the reasons for this marginalization while also bringing attention to key historical contributions across a wide range of animation practices geographic and linguistic terrains and historical periods They delve deep into questions of how animation might best be understood as well as how it relates to concepts such as the still the moving image the frame animism and utopia The contributors take on the kinds of theoretical questions that have remained underexplored because as Karen Beckman argues scholars of cinema and media studies have allowed themselves to be constrained by too narrow a sense of what cinema is This collection reanimates and expands film studies by taking the concept of animation seriously Contributors Karen Beckman Suzanne Buchan Scott Bukatman Alan Cholodenko Yuriko Furuhashi Alexander R. Galloway Oliver Gaycken Bishnupriya Ghosh Tom Gunning Andrew R. Johnston Herv Joubert Laurencin Gertrud Koch Thomas LaMarre Christopher P. Lehman Esther Leslie John MacKay Mihaela Mihailova Marc Steinberg Tess Takahashi      Global Photography Erina Duganne, Heather Diack, Terri Weissman, 2020-06-08 This innovative text recounts the history of photography through a series of thematically structured chapters Designed and written for students studying photography and its history each chapter approaches its subject by introducing a range of international contemporary photographers and then contextualizing their work in historical terms The book offers students an accessible route to gain an understanding of the key genres theories and debates that are fundamental to the study of this rich and complex medium Individual chapters cover major topics including Description and Abstraction Truth and Fiction The Body Landscape War Politics of Representation Form Appropriation Museums The Archive The Cinematic Fashion Photography Boxed focus studies throughout the text offer short interviews curatorial statements and reflections by photographers critics and leading scholars that link photography's history with its practice Short chapter summaries research questions and further reading lists help to reinforce learning and promote discussion Whether coming to the subject from an applied photography or art history background students will
