Modern Art At Harvard:

Modern Art at Harvard Caroline A. Jones, 1985 Modern Art at Harvard Caroline A. Jones, 1985 MODERN ART AT HARVARD. , 1985 Alfred H. Barr, Jr. and the Intellectual Origins of the Museum of Modern Art Sybil Kantor, 2003-08-29 An intellectual biography of Alfred H Barr Jr founding director of the Museum of Modern Art Growing up with the twentieth century Alfred Barr 1902 1981 founding director of the Museum of Modern Art harnessed the cataclysm that was modernism In this book part intellectual biography part institutional history Sybil Gordon Kantor tells the story of the rise of modern art in America and of the man responsible for its triumph Following the trajectory of Barr s career from the 1920s through the 1940s Kantor penetrates the myths both positive and negative that surround Barr and his achievements Barr fervently believed in an aesthetic based on the intrinsic traits of a work of art and the materials and techniques involved in its creation Kantor shows how this formalist approach was expressed in the organizational structure of the multidepartmental museum itself whose collections exhibitions and publications all expressed Barr s vision At the same time she shows how Barr s ability to reconcile classical objectivity and mythic irrationality allowed him to perceive modernism as an open ended phenomenon that expanded beyond purist abstract modernism to include surrealist nationalist realist and expressionist art Drawing on interviews with Barr s contemporaries as well as on Barr s extensive correspondence Kantor also paints vivid portraits of among others Jere Abbott Katherine Dreier Henry Russell Hitchcock Philip Johnson Lincoln Kirstein Agnes Mongan J B Neumann and Paul Sachs The Museums of Contemporary Art Mr J Pedro Lorente, 2013-07-28 Where how by whom and for what were the first museums of contemporary art created These are the key questions addressed by J Pedro Lorente in this new book In it he explores the concept and history of museums of contemporary art and the shifting ways in which they have been imagined and presented Following an introduction that sets out the historiography and considering questions of terminology the first part of the book then examines the paradigm of the Mus e des Artistes Vivants in Paris and its equivalents in the rest of Europe during the nineteenth century The second part takes the story forward from 1930 to the present presenting New York s Museum of Modern Art as a new universal role model that found emulators or contramodels in the rest of the Western world during the twentieth century An epilogue reviews recent museum developments in the last decades Through its adoption of a long term worldwide perspective the book not only provides a narrative of the development of museums of contemporary art but also sets this into its international perspective By assessing the extent to which the great museum capitals Paris London and New York in particular created their own models of museum provision as well as acknowledging the influence of such models elsewhere the book uncovers fascinating perspectives on the practice of museum provision and reveals how present cultural planning initiatives have often been shaped by historical uses The Harvard Society for Contemporary Art Harvard Society for Contemporary Art, 1930 Latin American Art at The Museum of Modern Art Miriam M. Basilio Gaztambide, 2025-06-13 This book sheds light on an as yet unstudied aspect of The Museum of Modern Art's MoMA preeminent role in establishing the definition of the problematic term Latin American art in the United States from the 1930s to the present through its collection displays In examining the shifting categorization of Latin American works according to stylistic and geographic taxonomies we gain a greater understanding of the organization of the Museum's collections as a whole during the 1940s and 1950s This book is the first to document these institutional precedents crucial for the understanding of the articulation of a Modernist canon and its contested legacy today The MoMA is widely recognized as the preeminent institution that defined 20th century art through its collection shaping our understandings of the history of art with its hierarchies and exclusions as they sediment over time MoMA's holdings of art from Latin America shed light on a key period when the stylistic categories that have since come to be accepted by many today as the Modernist canon developed MoMA's collection displays suggest ways in which artists from areas of the world formerly excluded can be incorporated within today's increasingly global museums MoMA's approach may be compared to initiatives adopted by several museums since the 2000s creating geographically defined curatorial positions as a way to redress gaps in collecting art from Latin America and other areas of the world In this book author Miriam M Basilio Gaztambide offers a closer study of the history of collection displays as a means to understand canon formation in modern art museums This work will be of interest to those researching Latin American American modern and contemporary art and curatorial and museum studies

France and the Visual Arts Since 1945 Catherine Dossin,2019-01-01 Taking on the myth of France's creative exhaustion following World War II this collection of essays brings together an international team of scholars whose research offers English readers a rich and complex overview of the place of France and French artists in the visual arts since 1945 Addressing a wide range of artistic practices spanning over seven decades and using different methodologies their contributions cover ground charted and unknown They introduce greater depth and specificity to familiar artists and movements such as Lettrism Situationist International or Nouveau Réalisme while bringing to the fore lesser known artists and groups including GRAPUS the Sociological Art Collective and Nicolas Schaffner Collectively they stress the political dimensions and social ambitions of the art produced in France at the time deconstruct the traditional geography of the French art world and highlight the multiculturalism of the French art scene that resulted from its colonial past and the constant flux of artistic travels and migrations Ultimately the book contributes to a story of postwar art in which France can be inscribed not as a main or sub chapter but rather as a vector in the wider constellation of modern and contemporary art
