Modern Art Vol 2 19th And 20th Centuries:

Modern Art 19th and 20th Centuries.Vol.2 Meyer Schapiro,1978 The Routledge Companion to Marxisms in Art History Tijen Tunalı,Brian Winkenweder,2025-03-31 This companion is an essential contribution to the study of historical materialism in general and the social history of art in particular Each chapter in the collection focuses on a key figure concept or historical epoch Increasingly scholars adopt an array of Marxist methods intertwined with a host of other theoretical practices particularly the historiography of key issues regarding hegemony ideology and identity Ideological issues of connoisseurship patronage and analyses of the artwork as a form of labor and leisure are essential to the practice of Marxisms in art history This collection spotlights a plurality of Marxian theories in which the ideas of such figures as Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and T J Clark are debated and developed through analyses of the socio historical conditions that impact how art is produced circulated and received This ultimately underscores that the historical contextualization of artworks and their markets within a class based society is crucial for writing socially engaged art history This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies visual sociology communication studies and the sociology of art

Theatrical Costume, Masks, Make-Up and Wigs Sidney Jackson Jowers,2013-10-15 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Meyer Schapiro's Critical Debates C. Oliver O'Donnell,2019-10-14 Described in the New York Times as the greatest art historian America ever produced Meyer Schapiro was both a close friend to many of the famous artists of his generation and a scholar who engaged in public debate with some of the major intellectuals of his time This volume synthesizes his prolific career for the first time demonstrating how Schapiro worked from the nexus of artistic and intellectual practice to confront some of the twentieth century s most abiding questions Schapiro was renowned for pioneering interdisciplinary approaches to interpreting visual art His lengthy formal analyses in the 1920s Marxist interpretations in the 1930s psychoanalytic critiques in the 1950s and 1960s and semiotic explorations in the 1970s all helped open new avenues for inquiry Based on archival research C Oliver O Donnell s study is structured chronologically around eight defining debates in which Schapiro participated including his dispute with Isaiah Berlin over the life and writing of Bernard Berenson Schapiro s critique of Martin Heidegger s ekphrastic commentary on Van Gogh and his confrontation with Claude L vi Strauss over the applicability of mathematics to the interpretation of visual art O Donnell s thoughtful analysis of these intellectual exchanges not only traces Schapiro s philosophical evolution but also relates them to the development of art history as a discipline to central tensions of artistic modernism and to modern intellectual history as a whole Comprehensive and thought provoking this study of Schapiro s career pieces together the separate strands of his work into one cohesive picture In doing so it reveals Schapiro s substantial impact on the field of art history and on twentieth century modernism All About Process Kim Grant,2017-02-28 In recent years many prominent and successful artists have claimed that their primary concern is not the artwork they produce but the artistic process itself In this volume Kim Grant analyzes this idea and traces its historical roots showing how changing concepts of artistic process have played a dominant role in the development of modern and contemporary art This astute account of the ways in which process has been understood and addressed examines canonical artists such as Monet C zanne Matisse and De Kooning as well as philosophers and art theorists such as Henri Focillon R G Collingwood and John Dewey Placing process art within a larger historical context Grant looks at the changing relations of the artist s labor to traditional craftsmanship and industrial production the status of art as a commodity the increasing importance of the body and materiality in art making and the nature and significance of the artist s role in modern society In doing so she shows how process is an intrinsic part of aesthetic theory that connects to important contemporary debates about work craft and labor Comprehensive and insightful this synthetic study of process in modern and contemporary art reveals how artists explicit engagement with the concept fits into a broader narrative of the significance of art in the industrial and postindustrial world

Bauhaus Construct Jeffrey Saletnik, Robin Schuldenfrei, 2013-03-01 Reconsidering the status and meaning of Bauhaus objects in relation to the multiple re tellings of the school s history this volume positions art objects of the Bauhaus within the theoretical artistic historical and cultural concerns in which they were produced and received Contributions from leading scholars writing in the field today including Frederic J Schwartz Magdalena Droste and Alina Payne offer an entirely new treatment of the Bauhaus Issues such as art and design pedagogy the practice of photography copyright law and critical theory are discussed Through a strong thematic structure new archival research and innovative methodologies the questions and subsequent conclusions presented here re examine the history of the Bauhaus and its continuing legacy Essential reading for anyone studying the Bauhaus modern art and design

Van Gogh among the Philosophers David P. Nichols, 2017-12-06 This volume brings Continental philosophical interpretations of Van Gogh into dialogue with one another to explore how for Van Gogh art places human beings in their world and yet in other ways displaces them not allowing them to belong to that world

The Annual of Psychoanalysis, V. 26/27 Jerome A. Winer, 2013-06-17 Volume 26 27 begins with publication of The Annual s first prize essay Samuel Abrams s How Child and Adult Analysis Inform and Misinform One Another This is followed by a series of papers originally prepared for a symposium honoring John E Gedo These papers span the clinical topics of obsessiveness sublimation dreams and self analysis and analyzability and also delve into applied psychoanalysis and art history with two studies of Vincent van Gogh and another of Alberto Giacometti These papers not only convey the impressive range of Gedo s own interests but embody the high scholarly and clinical standards that Gedo has long held both for himself and for the field in general Section III offers original contributions to clinical analysis in the form of the consideration of the role of affective engagement in the analyst s usability thoughtful assessment of the perils of parental projection in child analytic work and comparison of a failed and successful supervision in the same psychoanalytic case Section IV examines psychoanalysis and the arts with two further studies of van Gogh an analytic reading of Nabokov s Lolita and more general examinations of psychoanalysis in relation to dramatic art and film analysis The volume closes with two provocative scholarly essays bearing on the roots of psychoanalysis the correspondence between Mabel Dodge and her analysts Smith Ely Jelliffe and A A Brill as a vehicle for reviewing the issue of extra and postanalytic contact between analyst and patient and an examination of Freud Lacan and the uneasy relationships among literature psychoanalysis and the female subject Volume 26 27 offers readers a rich harvest of contemporary insights about psychoanalysis including its history and evolution its continuing clinical refinement and its scholarly applications outside the consulting room

Picturing Children Marilyn R. Brown, 2017-07-05 The representation of children in modern European visual culture has often been marginalized by Art History as sentimental and trivial For this reason the subject of childhood in relation to art and its production has largely been ignored Confronting this dismissal this unique collection of essays raises new and unexpected issues about the formation of childhood identity in the nineteenth century and makes a significant contribution to the development of inter disciplinary studies within this area Through a range of stimulating and insightful case studies the book charts the development of the Romantic ideal of childhood starting with Rousseau s Emile and attends to its visual social and psychological transformations during the historical period from which Freud s psychoanalytic theories eventually emerged Foremost scholars such as Anne Higonnet Carol Mavor Susan Casteras and Linda A Pollock uncover the means by which children became an important conduit for prevailing social anxieties and demonstrate that the apparently timeless images of them that proliferated at the time should be understood as complex cultural documents Over 50 illustrations enhance this rich and fascinating volume
