Education and Society in Bhutan Chelsea M. Robles, 2016-05-26 Bhutan's education sector has attracted international attention for recent reforms driven by the national development philosophy of Gross National Happiness which aspires to balance change with the continuity of tradition This book traces the history of education in Bhutan and reveals that as the country has modernised and become globally connected and further influenced by international and Western mores tensions have emerged across the education sector The author examines how these tensions between the curriculum and local knowledges can impact teaching and learning and offers approaches to addressing them Based on extensive empirical data including in depth interviews and classroom observations Robles analyzes the discourses of high level officials who were involved in the early development of the modern system of education a range of education leaders and teachers Filling a gap in the literature this book is an invaluable resource for students and researchers interested in the formation of education policy social and political reform in Bhutan and South Asia Studies Proceedings of the Tenth Seminar of the IATS, 2003. Volume 5: Bhutan , 2007-04-30 This illustrated volume presents a wide variety of themes from the historical and modern periods of Bhutan illustrating change and adaptation to new realities Topics covered include the exploration of early history Buddhism and the lives of Bhutanese Buddhist saints the changing role of local non Buddhist religious practitioners in today's society traditional law and the emergence of a modern legal system and the seasonal celebrations of an aristocratic family from central Bhutan The book will be of special interest to students of early Tibetan history legal history comparative sociology and cultural anthropology of the Himalayan regions Fabric of Life - Textile Arts in Bhutan Karin Altmann, 2015-11-27 This extensive work dedicated to the unique textile art of Bhutan is an impressive illustration of how closely art spirituality and life are interwoven in the last of the Buddhist kingdoms in the Himalayas It gives new insight into Bhutanese cosmology worldview culture and society which is associated with a variety of historical philosophical religious social and artistic perspectives The remote mountain location low key foreign policy and basic principles of Buddhism has made it possible for Bhutan the last of the Buddhist kingdoms in the Himalayas to preserve a remarkable form of textile art that is interwoven with all aspects of life Karin Altmann shows us Bhutan textiles in their diversity they are clothes and everyday objects currency and commodity mark important events as gifts during life and are testament to the social status of a person But they are also an integral aspect of religious festivals dances and rituals that provide insight into the mystical and religious beliefs of the Bhutanese people and reflect the concept of gender in Bhutanese society The book also tells the story of a country that is searching for a sensitive balance between tradition and progress in a globalized world Bhutan

Ramakant,Ramesh Chandra Misra,1996 Contributed articles presented at an international seminar April 1993 predominantly on social and economic conditions The Royal Semi-Authoritarian Democracy of Bhutan Dhurba Rizal,2015-07-22

The book puts into plain words a changing dimension of politics in a traditional regime and offers an insight into the emerging transition to royal semi authoritarian democracy in Bhutan Bhutan represents a political system which coalesces the rhetorical acquiescence of democracy with illiberal authoritarian attributes under the former royalist shadow Royal democracy is a myth and only paints the frontage of democracy The smokescreen of this kind of authoritarian regime is not yet democracy but is instead a new form of semi authoritarian rule The political reforms in Bhutan were orchestrated by the traditional regime and elites in a traditional society as a tightly controlled top down process without devolution of power outside the regime Royal Democracy can best be understood as an attempt to construct a political regime that impersonates democratic institutions but works outside the logic of political representation and seeks to repress any vestige of genuine political pluralism Exploring the authoritarian logic behind the democratic rhetoric is especially important for Bhutan which is today glorified by the UN as The Mecca of Gross National Happiness and depicted by many as a model of top down democracy on popular media and in academia Holding State controlled elections alone does not create a cure for deeper political economic and social predicaments besetting Bhutan and does not create a solid foundation for democratic transition The glitter of royal semi authoritarian democracy is a Jigmeocracy an old Jigme s system with new labels a classic case of transition from a traditional regime in a traditional society Designing Sustainable Cities in the Developing World
