Modern British Writing:

The Modern British Novel Malcolm Bradbury, 2001 Bradbury argues that almost a century since the emergence of Modernism it is now possible to see the entire period in perspective It is clear that the first 50 years from Henry James Wilde and Stevenson through James Joyce Lawrence Forster to Huxley Isherwood and Orwell have been extensively discussed in print The years since World War II though have not been examined in depth yet have produced talents such as Graham Greene Angus Wilson Beckett Doris Lessing Margaret Drabble Angela Carter Ian McEwan Kingsley and Martin Amis Julian Barnes Fay Weldon Salman Rushdie and Timothy Mo Modern British Literature ,1967 Modern British Nature Writing, 1789-2020 Will Abberley, Christina Alt, David Higgins, Graham Huggan, Pippa Marland, 2022-03-17 Why do we speak so much of nature today when there is so little of it left Prompted by this question this study offers the first full length exploration of modern British nature writing from the late eighteenth century to the present Focusing on non fictional prose writing the book supplies new readings of classic texts by Romantic Victorian and Contemporary authors situating these within the context of an enduringly popular genre Nature writing is still widely considered fundamentally celebratory or escapist yet it is also very much in tune with the conflicts of a natural world under threat The book s five authors connect these conflicts to the triple historical crisis of the environment of representation and of modern dissociated sensibility This book offers an informed critical approach to modern British nature writing for specialist readers as well as a valuable guide for general readers concerned by an increasingly diminished natural world

Modern British Women Writers Vicki K. Janik, Del Ivan Janik, 2002-11-30 The 20th century witnessed several major cultural movements including modernism anti modernism and postmodernism These and other means of understanding and perceiving the world shaped the literature of that era and with the rise of feminism resulted in a particularly rich body of literature by women writers This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 British women writers of the 20th century Some of these writers were born in England while others such as Katherine Mansfield and Doris Lessing came from countries of the former Empire or Commonwealth The volume also includes entries for women of color such as Kamala Markandaya and Buchi Emecheta Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes an overview of the writer s background an analysis of her works an assessment of her achievements and lists of primary and secondary sources The volume closes with a selected general bibliography

Modern British Writing. Edited by D.V. Baker. [An Anthology.]. Denys Val Baker, 1947 Housing, Class and Gender in Modern British Writing, 1880-2012 Emily Cuming, 2016-08-24 The author demonstrates how depictions of domestic space tell stories of class gender social belonging and exclusion The New Pastoral in Contemporary British Writing Deborah Lilley, 2019-10-10 This book identifies a major turn in contemporary British literature in response to environmental crisis It argues that the pastoral is emerging as a new critical framework in which to explore the understanding of people and place in this context The New Pastoral in Contemporary British Writing explores how the pastoral tradition has transformed as authors respond to our changing relationships with place in this period Analysing the features common to new pastoral writing it brings together a corpus of works from major authors including Ali Smith Jim Crace John Burnside Kathleen Jamie and Robert Macfarlane This book argues that crises such as pollution and climate change have shifted our understandings of the key relationships of pastoral and the terms upon which they are based giving new senses to its older oppositions between the human and the natural the urban and the rural and the past and the present Furthermore it shows that the versions of pastoral that ensue align with current ecocritical arguments produced by thinking through the individual cultural and ecological implications of environmental crisis As a result pastoral emerges as the crucial strategy in the re imagining of the environment underway in contemporary British writing the resurgence of interest in nature writing the increasing attention towards place in literary fiction and the development of ecological or climate fiction This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of English as well as those concerned with the interdisciplinary topics of the environmental humanities including literary geographies new nature writing cultures of climate change and the Anthropocene and ecologically oriented theory The 'Second World' in Contemporary British Writing Katrin Berndt, Andrew Wells, 2024-08-12 The thirteen contributions to this collection all explore or exemplify the ongoing British interest in the socialist world before 1990 In autobiography fiction film history and lexicography these chapters show how contemporary Britain is engaging with the past project to build socialism in Europe and what this means for the present and the future of our continent Contributions come from a wide range of disciplinary and geographical backgrounds and the volume is further enriched by a short story especially written for this book and by an in depth interview with the author of a recent popular history of the GDR Together these chapters offer a unique perspective into contemporary British writing on the second world and the enduring fascination with the failures of futures past The Cambridge Companion to Modern British Culture Michael Higgins, Clarissa Smith, John Storey, 2010-08-19 British culture today is the product of a shifting combination of tradition and experimentation national identity and regional and ethnic diversity These distinctive tensions are expressed in a range of cultural arenas such as art sport journalism fashion education and race This Companion addresses these and other major aspects of British culture and offers a sophisticated understanding of what it means to study and think about the diverse cultural landscapes of contemporary Britain Each contributor looks at the language through which culture is formed and expressed the political and institutional trends that shape culture and at the role of culture in daily life This interesting and informative account of modern British culture embraces controversy and debate and never loses sight of the fact that Britain and Britishness must always be understood in relation to the increasingly international context of globalisation Modern British Writing Denys Val Baker, 1947 Contemporary British Women Writers Emma Parker, 2004 Essays illustrating the range and diversity of post 1970 British women writers Despite the enduring popularity of contemporary women s writing British women writers have received scant critical attention They tend to be overshadowed by their American counterparts in the media and have come to be represented within the academy almost exclusively by Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson This collection celebrates the range and diversity of contemporary post 1970 British women writers It challenges misconceptions about the nature and scope of fiction by women writers working in Britain commonly dismissed as parochial insular dreary and domestic and seeks to expand conventional definitions of British by exploring how issues of nationality intersect with gender class race and sexuality Writers covered include Pat Barker A L Kennedy Maggie Gee Rukhsana Ahmad Joan Riley Jennifer Johnston Ellen Galford Susan Hill Fay Weldon Emma Tennant and Helen Fielding Contributors DAVID ELLIS CLARE HANSON MAROULA JOANNOU PAULINA PALMER EMMA PARKER FELICITY ROSSLYN CHRISTIANE SCHLOTE JOHN SEARS ELUNED SUMMERS BREMNER IMELDA WHELEHAN GINA WISKER     The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature Richard Bradford, Madelena Gonzalez, Stephen Butler, James Ward, Kevin De Ornellas, 2020-09-03 of hate and frustration for the exploration and expression of post Imperial experiences      Modern British Literature

Laurie Di Mauro,2000 Arranged alphabetically from H Rider Haggard to Wilfred Owen this volume provides critical excerpts and analyses from a variety of sources on the work of significant modern British authors      Refracting the Canon in Contemporary British Literature and Film ,2016-08-09 Contemporary works of art that remodel the canon not only create complex hybrid and plural products but also alter our perceptions and understanding of their source texts This is the dual process referred to in this volume as refraction that the essays collected here set out to discuss and analyse by focusing on the dialectic rapport between postmodernism and the canon What is sought in many of the essays is a redefinition of postmodernist art and a re examination of the canon in the light of contemporary epistemology Given this dual process this volume will be of value both to everyone interested in contemporary art particularly fiction drama and film and also to readers whose aim it is to promote a better appreciation of canonical British literature      Gathering Force: Early Modern British Literature in Transition, 1557-1623: Volume 1 Kristen Poole,Lauren Shohet,2019-01-17 During the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries England grew from a marginal to a major European power established overseas settlements and negotiated the Protestant Reformation The population burgeoned and became increasingly urban England also saw the meteoric rise of commercial theatre in London the creation of a vigorous market for printed texts and the emergence of writing as a viable profession Literacy rates exploded and an increasingly diverse audience encountered a profusion of new textual forms Media and literary culture transformed on a scale that would not happen again until television and the Internet The twenty innovative contributions in Gathering Force Early Modern Literature in Transition 1557 1623 trace ways that five different genres both spurred and responded to change Chapters explore different facets of lyric poetry romance commercial drama masques and pageants and non narrative prose Exciting and accessible this volume illuminates the dynamic relationships among the period s social political and literary transformations      The 2000s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley,Nick Hubble,Leigh Wilson,2015-10-22 How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 2000s shape contemporary British fiction The means of publishing buying and reading fiction changed dramatically between 2000 and 2010 This volume explores how the socio political and economic turns of the decade bookended by the beginning of a millennium and an economic crisis transformed the act of writing and reading Through consideration of among other things the treatment of neuroscience violence the historical and youth subcultures in recent fiction the essays in this collection explore the complex and still powerful relation between the novel and the world in which it is written published and read This major literary assessment of the fiction of the 2000s covers the work of newer voices such as Monica Ali Mark Haddon Tom McCarthy David Peace and Zadie Smith as well as those more established such as Salman Rushdie Hilary Mantel and Ian McEwan making it an essential contribution to reading defining and understanding the decade      Elements of the Picaresque in Contemporary British Fiction Ion Piso,Ligia Tomoiagă,2012-03-15 This study looks back at the picaresque with its Spanish roots and especially with its tradition in English literature then it comes to contemporary times and identifies elements of the picaresque in contemporary novels The main thesis of the author is that the picaresque has never left the literary scene in Britain being an aesthetic invariant which expresses a natural inclination of the British authors towards the picaresque story Postcolonial authors also favour this genre as a consequence of their own literary tradition which includes particular variants of the picaresque and as a result of their own situation as immigrant displaced authors which gives them material for stories of displaced characters rogues The study rigorously identifies the sources of the contemporary protocols of the picaresque as well as a few variants of picaresque stories in a selection of novels the author accounts for theoretically

Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

Outlaw Fathers in Victorian and Modern British Literature Helena Gurfinkel, 2014-03-27 Outlaw Fathers in Victorian and Modern British Literature Queering Patriarchy traces the representations of outlaw fathers or queer patriarchs and their relationships with their queer sons in a particular literary tradition mid to late Victorian and twentieth century British fiction and memoir Specifically I look at such representations in Anthony Trollope's Doctor Thorne 1858 and The Prime Minister 1875-76 while also drawing on An Autobiography 1883 and The Duke's Children 1880 Samuel Butler's The Way of All Flesh published in 1901 Henry James's The Lesson of the Master 1888 J R Ackerley's My Father and Myself written in the 1930s and published in 1968 E M Forster's Little Imber 1961 with an occasional detour into The Longest Journey 1907 Howards End 1909 and Maurice published in 1971 and Alan Hollinghurst's The Spell 1998 In the coda I consider the implications of including transgender transnational female to male fathers of color in the ranks of queer patriarchy and discuss two contemporary novels Jackie Kay's Trumpet 1998 Scotland and Patricia Powell's The Pagoda 1998 Jamaica and the United States as well as briefly an episode an episode of the television show The L Word 2008 and the documentary U People 2007 The term queer patriarchy has two components The first one is a non traditional primarily but not exclusively non heterosexual pervasively present and culturally important paternal subjectivity The second one is the bond between such queer paternal figures and their sons biological and non biological This study pays attention primarily to the relationship between psyche language and ideology but it will join a larger conversation about the changing roles of men in general and fathers in particular which is taking place outside of the field of literary studies
