Modern Chinese Art The Khoan And Michael Sullivan Collection:

Modern Chinese Art Michael Sullivan, Ashmolean Museum, 2001 Khoan and Michael Sullivan began collecting modern Chinese painting in Sichuan in western China in the 1940s and their collection has developed over the course of more than half a century to include paintings by the principal artists of late twentieth century China as well as works by a new generation Many of the works presented in this complete catalogue of their collection were given to Khoan and Michael Sullivan by the artists themselves so that this is at once a work of scholarship and a record of many friendships Book jacket morally acceptable to spirit hitherto inaccessible objects westward where they could be studied and preserved by trained museum personnel And how should the US and Canada and their museums respond now that China has the means and will to reclaim its missing patrimony Chinese Printmaking Today Anne Farrer,2003 An exhibition at the British Library 7

Newsletter, East Asian Art and Archaeology ,1998 The Arts of China Michael Sullivan,1984-01-01 this book presents a fascinating and balanced picture of Chinese art from the Stone Age to the present day The author concerns himself not only with art but also with Chinese philosophy religion and the realm of ideas Chinese Ink Painting Now Jason C. Kuo,2010 Text by Jason C Kuo China Perspectives ,2007 The Art of the Chinese Picture-Scroll Shane McCausland,2023-10-25 The first extended history of the Chinese picture scroll The Chinese picture scroll a long horizontal painting or calligraphic work has been China s pre eminent aesthetic form throughout the last two millennia This first history of the picture scroll explores its extraordinary longevity and adaptability to social political and technological change The book describes what the picture scroll demands of a viewer how China s artists grappled with its cultural power and how collectors and connoisseurs left their marks on scrolls for later generations to judge The Eternal Present of the Past Li-ling Hsiao,2007-05-31 This study draws together various elements in late Ming culture illustration theater literature and examines their interrelation in the context of the publication of drama It examines a late Ming conception of the stage as a mystical space in which the past was literally reborn within the present This temporal conflation allowed the past to serve as a vigorous and immediate moral example and was considered a hugely important mechanism by which the continuity of the Confucian tradition could be upheld By using theatrical conventions of stage arrangement acting gesture and frontal address drama illustration recreated the mystical character of the stage within the pages of the book and thus set the conflation of past and present on a broader footing 王德威 Appreciation,Wucius Wong,2011-03-31 Wucius Wong was born in 1936 in Guangdong Province China and moved to Hong Kong at a very young age Originally he wanted to pursue a literary career but gradually shifted his interest in pursuit of an artist s career Started as a self taught artist and attracted to Western modernism he later studied under the tutelage of Lui Shou Kun in 1958 whose works entailed the exploration of traditional concepts via a modernist approach He went to the United States to study Western art forms from 1961 to 1965 Upon his return he worked as an Assistant Curator at the City Museum and Art Gallery from 1966 to 1974 and later joined the School of Design of the Hong Kong Polytechnic as Senior Principal Lecturer Having participated in various important exhibitions worldwide his works are collected by various museums and institutions around the world The abstract art of Wucius Wong has a powerful mysterious quality being at once vigorously captivating and elusively atmospheric Often compared to the classical Chinese landscape painters of the Northern Song dynasty the artist has mastered the ability to evoke the deeply spiritual and poetic within his sweeping ink works The emotions rendered by his brush span a wide range from the luminous evanescence of the interplay of light on water to the brooding gravity of mountain ranges and the dense complexity of patternistic clouds and roots Perhaps the most affecting element within the paintings of Wucius Wong is his startling clarity in capturing fleeting moments within nature which have the ability to transcend the purely physical and translate into raw emotion This unique perception is the defining factor which elevates his work from the realm of the visible landscape to incisive psychological meditations on existential humanity He is now an Adjunct Professor of the Fine Arts Department of the Chinese University of Hong Kong and serving as honorary adviser to the Leisure and Culture Department of the Hong Kong Government he is also Committee Member of the Art School of the Hong Kong Art Centre and a Member of the Museum Advisory Group of the Consultative Committee on the Core Arts and Cultural Facilities of the West Kowloon Cultural District
