Contemporary Chinese Fiction* by Su Tong and Yu Hua

Hua Li, 2011-02-18 The book explores the coming of age fiction of two of the most critically acclaimed and frequently translated contemporary Chinese authors Yu Hua and Su Tong it is the first in depth book length treatise in English about the contemporary Chinese Bildungsroman Although various individual contemporary Chinese novelists and individual works of Chinese fiction have previously been discussed under the rubric of the Bildungsroman none of these efforts has approached the level of comprehensive and comparative analysis that this book brings to the genre and its social contexts in contemporary China This book will pique the interests not only of scholars and students of Chinese and comparative literature but also of historians and social scientists with an interest in the region Ideology and Form in Yan Lianke's Fiction Haiyan Xie,2023-02-10 Xie analyzes three novels by the international award winning Chinese writer Yan Lianke and investigates how his signature mythorealist form produces textual meanings that subvert the totalizing reality prescribed by literary realism The term mythorealism which Yan coined to describe his own writing style refers to a set of literary devices that incorporate both Chinese and Western literary elements while remaining primarily grounded in Chinese folk culture and literary tradition In his use of mythorealism carrying a burden of social critique that cannot allow itself to become political Yan transcends the temporality and provinciality of immediate social events and transforms his potential socio political commentaries into more diversified concerns for humanity existential issues and spiritual crisis Xie identifies three modes of mythorealist narrative exemplified in Yan s three novels the minjian folk mode in Dream of Ding Village the allusive mode in Ballad Hymn Ode and the enigmatic mode in The Four Books By positioning itself against an ambiguous articulation of social determinants of historical events that would perhaps be more straightforward in a purely realist text each mode of mythorealism moves its narrative from the overt politicality of the subject matter to the existential riddle of negotiating an alternative reality A groundbreaking study of one of contemporary China s most important authors that will be of great value to scholars and students of Chinese literature Charles Dickens and China, 1895-1915 Klaudia Hiu Yen Lee,2016-11-10 From 1895 to 1915 Chinese translations of Dickens s fiction first appeared as part of a growing interest in Western literature and culture among Chinese intellectuals Klaudia Hiu Yen investigates the multifarious ways in which Dickens s works were adapted reconfigured and transformed for the Chinese readership against the turbulent political and social conditions in the last stages of the Qing dynasty 1644 1912 and the early Republic 1912 1949 Moving beyond the Response to the West model which often characterises East West interactions Lee explores how Chinese intellectuals viewed Dickens s novels as performing a particular social function on occasion they were used to advance the country s social and political causes Translation and adaptation became a means through which the politics and social values of the original Dickens texts were undermined or even subverted Situating the early introduction of Dickens to China within the broader field of Victorian studies Lee challenges some of the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of the global turn both in Dickens scholarship and in Victorian studies in general Chinese Reportage Charles A. Laughlin,2002 Explores the origins of Chinese reportage journalism in the 1930s 40s and 50s and develops an understanding of the aesthetics that governed the creation of this literature Modern Chinese Religion II: 1850 - 2015 (2 vols.) ,2015-10-20 The last of four two volume sets on the key periods of paradigm shift in Chinese religious and cultural history this book examines the transformation of values in China since 1850 in the secular realms of economics science medicine aesthetics media and gender and in each of the major religions Confucianism Buddhism Daoism Christianity as well as in Marxist discourse The nation and science are the values invoked most frequently with the market and democracy a distant second As in previous periods of fundamental change in Chinese history rationalization and secularization have played central roles but interiorization nearly disappears as a driving force. Also in continuity with the past, the state insists on an exclusive right to define and adjudicate orthodoxy. Contributors include Daniel H. Bays, S. Remembering May Fourth Carlos Yu-Kai Lin, Victor H. Mair, 2020-03-02. Read an interview with Carlos Yu Kai Lin. Remembering May Fourth: The Movement and its Centennial Legacy is a collective work of thirteen scholars who reflect on the question of how to remember the May Fourth Movement, one of the most iconic socio-political events in the history of modern China. The book discusses a wide range of issues concerning the relations between politics and memory, between writing and ritualizing, between fiction and reality, and between theory and practice. Remembering May Fourth thus calls into question the ways in which the movement is remembered while at the same time calling for the need to create new memories of the movement.

Zhou Zuoren and an Alternative Chinese Response to Modernity Susan Daruvala, 2020-03-23. This book explores the issues of nation and modernity in China by focusing on the work of Zhou Zuoren (1885-1967), one of the most controversial of modern Chinese intellectuals and brother of the writer Lu Xun. Zhou was radically at odds with many of his contemporaries and opposed their nation-building and modernization projects. Through his literary and aesthetic practice as an essayist, Zhou espoused a way of constructing the individual and affirming the individual's importance in opposition to the normative national subject of most May Fourth reformers. Zhou's work presents an alternative vision of the nation and questions the monolithic claims of modernity by promoting traditional aesthetic categories, the locality rather than the nation, and a literary history that values openness and individualism.
