A Modern Life Alan C. Elder, Vancouver Art Gallery, 2004 In 1949 the forest magnate H R MacMillan opened an exhibition at the Vancouver Art Gallery entitled Design for Living a show which brought together design and artistic communities to create four imaginary households for postwar Vancouverites It also heralded an unprecedented level of cooperation between the province's industry and its artists and craftspeople a relationship that seemed to hold great promise for the development of art furniture and craft in BC The celebration of the cooperative spirit between architects artists and designers between potters weavers and gardeners is central to A Modern Life which examines the coming together of what were often very separate disciplines in post World War II British Columbia as well as the trend setting design and use of materials that developed in the province and the impact these had on the more traditional art community A Modern Life demonstrates that the ideas of the artistic and design community as a whole during this vibrant period an era of optimism and promise for the future in a province that had reason to believe passionately in what was to come have a continued relevance and importance for our understanding of the history of this community and the relationship of the built environment to the extraordinary landscape of BC With essays by Rachel Chinnery Scott Watson Alan Elder Allan Collier and Sherry McKay Includes 160 illustrations including 60 in full colour A copublication with the Vancouver Art Gallery Designers and artists include Alice Bradley Stanley Clarke Reginald Dixon Zoltan Kiss Sasha Makokin Rex Mason Wayne Ngan Leonard Osborne Mary Osborne Hilda Ross Francoise Andre Peter Aspell B C Binning Bruni Bobak Molly Lamb Bobak Orville Fisher Herbert Gilbert Lawren Harris E J Hughes Don Jarvis Ann Kipling Roy Kiyooka John Koerner Eric Loewe J A S Macdonald Toni Onley Margaret Peterson Joe Plaskett Paul Rand Jack Shadbolt David Shilleto Herbert Siebner Gordon Smith Takoe Tanabe Ronald Thom Lionel Thomas Lillias Farley Robert Hume William Koochhin William Percival Weston Jean Clarke Jack Hardman Thomas Kakinuma Beatrice Lennie Sybil Andrews Alistair Macready Bell Stanley Brunst Frank Perry Patricia Irwin Jock Macdonald James Harold Willer and George Kutham

Canada Michelangelo Sabatino, Rhodri Windsor Liscombe, 2016-11-15

Canada is a country of massive size of diverse geographical features and an equally diverse population all features that are magnificently reflected in its architecture. In this book Rhodri Windsor Liscombe and Michelangelo Sabatino offer a richly informative history of Canadian architecture that celebrates and explores the country's many contributions to the spread of architectural modernity in the Americas. A distinct Canadian design attitude coalesced during the twentieth century, one informed by a liberal hybrid and pragmatic mindset intent less upon the dogma of architectural language and more on thinking about the formation of inclusive spaces and places. Taking a fresh perspective on design production, they map the unfolding of architectural modernity across the country from the completion of the transcontinental railway in the late 1880s through to the present. Along the way they discuss architecture within the broader contexts of political, industrial, and sociocultural evolution, the urban/suburban expansion, and new building technologies. Examining the works of architects and firms such as ARCOP, Eric Arthur, Ernest Cormier, Brigitte Shim, and Howard Sutcliffe, this book brings Canadian architecture chronologically and thematically to life.

Spaces and Places for Art Anne Whitelaw, 2017-04-01

When the Edmonton Museum of Arts opened in 1924, it was only the second art gallery in Canada west of Toronto. Spaces and Places for Art tells the story of the financial and ideological struggles that community groups and artist societies in booming frontier cities and towns faced in establishing spaces for the cultivation of artistic taste. Mapping the development of art institutions in western Canada from the founding of the Winnipeg Art Gallery in 1912 to the 1990s heyday of art museums in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia, Anne Whitelaw provides a glimpse into the production, circulation, and consumption of art in Canada throughout the twentieth century. Initially dependent on paintings loaned from the National Gallery of Canada, art galleries across the western part of the country gradually built their own collections and exhibitions and formed organizations that made them less reliant on institutions and government agencies in Ottawa. Tracing the impact of major national arts initiatives such as the Massey Commission, the funding programs of the Canada Council, and the policies of the National Museums Corporation, Whitelaw sheds light on the complex relationships between western Canada and Ottawa surrounding art. Building on extensive archival research and in-depth analysis of government involvement, Spaces and Places for Art is an invaluable explanation of the roles of cultural institutions and cultural policy in the emergence of
