Modern Meals:

Making Modern Meals Amy B. Trubek, 2017 Home cooking is crucial to our lives but it is not necessary to our survival. Over the past century it has become an everyday choice even though it is no longer an everyday chore. By looking closely at the stories and practices of American home cooks witnessing them in the kitchen and at the table, Amy B. Trubek reveals our episodic but also engaged relationship to making meals. Making Modern Meals explores the state of American cooking across all its varied practices: whether cooking is considered a chore, a craft, or a creative process. Trubek challenges current assumptions about who cooks, who doesn't cook, and what this means for culture, cuisine, and health. Contending that cooking has changed in the past century, she locates, identifies, and discusses the myriad ways Americans cook in the modern age. In doing so, she argues that changes in making our meals—from shopping to cooking to dining—have created new cooks, new cooking categories, and new culinary challenges. Provided by publisher.

Stark County Food: From Early Farming to Modern Meals Barbara A. Abbott & Kimberly A. Kenney, 2019 Whether it's homemade chicken pot pie, a steak from Baker's Caf, or a frozen custard at Meyer's Lake, the food of Stark County has made mouths water for generations. The region's unique soil nurtured an early boom in agriculture, and growers like K. W. Zellers Son Farms still make a living off the land today. Forgotten mom and pop grocery stores such as Flory's and Lemmon's served the needs of their neighborhoods, while long-gone restaurants like Mergus and Topp's Chalet created delicious dishes and cherished memories. Others like Bender's Tavern and Taggart's Ice Cream Parlor serve the same legendary fare they have for decades. Families such as the Millers and Swaldos have created nationally recognized destinations out of small and simple starts. Join authors Kim Kenney and Barb

Abbott as they trace Stark County's food history from the earliest orchards and farms to today's culinary tourism scene
