Modern Movements In Architecture:

Modern Movements in Architecture Charles Jencks, 1985 See Camp and Johnson Philip in index Modern Movements in Architecture, 1985 History of Modern Architecture Leonardo Benevolo, 1977 The New Eco-Architecture: Alternatives from the Modern Movement Colin Porteous, 2013-10-11 The New Eco Architecture builds a historical bridge between architectural science and design It seeks to address neglected aspects of the Modern Movement as a prelude to supporting a diversity of architectural insight and experimentation aimed at twenty first century environmental needs and priorities The attitudes and influences of renowned figures are re examined in relation to current issues of architectural sustainability By setting today's green architectural quest within a twentieth century context and evaluating the main protagonists with regard to a modern eco sensitive lineage the book will be of primary interest to architectural students academics and practitioners However it should also intrigue historians theoreticians and critics who tend to gloss over such issues as well as other disciplines engaged with the built environment Modern Architecture Frank Lloyd Wright, 2021-07-13 Frank Lloyd Wright's classic account of his vision for an organic architecture in a beautifully designed new edition Modern Architecture is a landmark text the first book in which America's greatest architect put forth the principles of a fundamentally new organic architecture that would reject the trappings of historical styles while avoiding the geometric abstraction of the machine aesthetic advocated by contemporary European modernists One of the most important documents in the development of modern architecture and the career of Frank Lloyd Wright Modern Architecture is a provocative and profound polemic against America's architectural eclecticism commercial skyscrapers and misguided urban planning The book is also a work of savvy self promotion in which Wright not only advanced his own concept of an organic architecture but also framed it as having anticipated by decades and bettered what he saw as the reductive modernism of his European counterparts Based on the 1931 original for which Wright supplied the cover illustration this beautiful edition includes a new introduction that puts Modern Architecture in its broader architectural historical and intellectual context for the first time The subjects of these lively lectures from Machinery Materials and Men to The Tyranny of the Skyscraper and The City move from a general statement of the conditions of modern culture to particular applications in the fields of architecture and urbanism at ever broadening scales Wright's vision in Modern Architecture is ultimately to equate the truly modern with romanticism imagination beauty and nature all of which he connects with an underlying sense of American democratic freedom and individualism The Details of Modern Architecture Edward R. Ford, 1990 Covering the period 1890-1932 this book focuses on various recognised masters explaining the detailing and construction techniques used in their buildings Modern movements in architecture C. Jencks, Modern Architecture Alan Colquhoun, 2002 In this study of the international modern movement in architecture Alan Colquhoun explores the complex motivations behind its revolutionary new style and assesses its triumphs and failures Theory of Experience in Architecture and Urban Design

Adolfo Benito Narváez Tijerina, Gabriela Carmona Ochoa, 2024-07-05 This unique volume presents the practical tools for architects and urban designers to improve the work processes of architectural design from conception to construction taking into consideration the personalized world of users architects and urban designers The volume starts from the conception of architectural space as a continuum that goes from the subjective depth of the mind to the objective reality taking into consideration the perspective of building experiences for users It is based on the idea that at the heart of that continuum is the experience of architecture and the city as the element that unites them and gives them meaning The volume first defines what the architectural experience is from the processes of perception cognition and evaluation that users and architects make about workplaces and programs It goes on to consider the knowledge and tools needed for the evaluation of users and places providing the methods that will help to understand the architectural experience desired by the main users of both the architectural object and an urban design providing a series of techniques that have proven effective Key features Describes the theoretical approaches methods and tools necessary for architectural and urban design for creating experiences for users Provides a deep understanding of the nature of built environments and what they express Discusses specific methods for in depth research on users subjective space through making meaningful contact with them and through appropriate technological means such as research on their expressions and communications on virtual social networks This book will help to make urban architects and designers aware of their importance for the implementation of public policies that will work in the very long term with the expectation that by becoming aware of this role they can act in accordance with an ethic based on values of protection of life human solidarity compassion vitality freedom equality between people and social justice

Polish Architecture in Contemporary Innovation Nina Juzwa, Jakub Świerzawski, 2023-09-28 Authored by two architects Polish Architecture in Contemporary Innovation Thoughts Dreams and Places tells a story of buildings that were built in Poland between 1980 and 2020 as architecture developed in the Western world and Japan Its main focus is public utility buildings which the authors have touched in situ and which have moved them or sparked their interest The book is divided into three parts Part I focuses on the problem of creating and shaping architectural form and uses examples of both international and Polish architecture In this section the authors pose the question why is the Pritzker Prize so important Part II attempts to answer the question of how architecture can change the image of a place The answer consists of mainly Polish examples of user friendly architecture value and beauty in architecture and place Part III analyses buildings that were created in contemporary Poland Examples are listed in groups according to their function pointing out forms that were inspired by the culture of the region the historical culture of the place or those which are a new quality and are the foundation of the creation of a place This book aims to demonstrate Polish architectural solutions in the context of contemporary trends in the West traditionally seen as more technically and technologically developed countries The floor plans and sections of the buildings presented in the book show the beauty of geometric and formal solutions and give a new and rare perspective on the latest changes in modern Polish architecture This book will be of interest to architects as well as researchers and students of contemporary Polish architecture and culture and its place in the European and international context The Polish edition of this book published in 2021 by the National Institute of Architecture and Urban Planning in Warsaw received the Vitruvius Prize 2022 by the Architecture and Urban Planning Committee of the Polish Academy of Sciences

An Architecture of Immanence Mark A. Torgerson, 2007-01-22 Torgerson begins by discussing God s transcendence and immanence and showing how church architecture has traditionally interpreted these key concepts He then traces the theological roots of immanence s priority from liberal theology and liturgical innovation to modern architecture Next Torgerson illustrates this new architecture of immanence through particular practitioners focusing especially on the work of theologically savvy architect Edward Anders S vik Finally he addresses the future of church architecture as congregations are buffeted by the twin forces of liturgical change and postmodernism

Architecture Martin van der Linden, 2021-03-12 The question of what architecture is answered in this book with one sentence Architecture is space created for human activities The basic need to find food and water places these activities within a larger spatial field Humans have learned and found ways to adjust to the various contextual difficulties that they faced as they roamed the earth Thus rather than adapting humans have always tried to change the context to their activities Humanity has looked at the context not merely as a limitation but rather as a spatial situation filled with opportunities that allows through intellectual interaction to change these limitations Thus humanity has created within the world their own contextual bubble that firmly stands against the larger context it is set in The key notion of the book is that architecture is space carved out of and against the context and that this process is deterministic

Architecture, Crisis and Resuscitation Tahl Kaminer, 2011-01-20

Studying the relation of architecture to society this book explains the manner in which the discipline of architecture adjusted itself in order to satisfy new pressures by society Consequently it offers an understanding of contemporary conditions and phenomena ranging from the ubiquity of landmark buildings to the celebrity status of architects It concerns the period spanning from 1966 to the first years of the current century a period which saw radical change in economy politics and culture and a period in which architecture radically transformed substituting the alleged dreariness of modernism with spectacle

The Mathematics of the Modernist Villa Michael J. Ostwald, Michael J. Dawes, 2018-04-12 This book presents the first detailed mathematical analysis of the social cognitive and experiential properties of Modernist domestic architecture The Modern Movement in architecture which came to prominence during the first half of the twentieth century may have been famous for its functional forms and machine made aesthetic but it also sought to challenge the way people inhabit understand and experience space Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's buildings were not only minimalist and transparent they were designed to subvert traditional social hierarchies Frank Lloyd Wright's organic Modernism not only attempted to negotiate a more responsive relationship between nature and architecture but also shape the way people experience space Richard Neutra's Californian Modernism is traditionally celebrated for its sleek geometric forms but his intention was to use design to support a heightened understanding of context Glenn Murcutt's pristine pavilions seemingly the epitome of regional

Modernism actually raise important questions about the socio spatial structure of architecture Rather than focussing on form or style in Modernism this book examines the spatial social and experiential properties of thirty seven designs by Wright Mies Neutra and Murcutt The computational and mathematical methods used for this purpose are drawn from space syntax isovist geometry and graph theory The specific issues that are examined include the sensory and emotional appeal of space and form shifting social and spatial structures in architectural planning wayfinding and visual understanding and the relationship between form and program An Introduction to the History of Architecture, Art & Design George T Gray,2021-10-04 An Introduction to the History of Architecture Art Design chronicles the times in which major works of architecture art and design were created and is compact with features and images of major artworks from each art and design period The best examples from each period are illustrated together with their famous creators alongside timelines that track the evolution of the artistic disciplines throughout history Modern & Contemporary Art Michele Dantini,2008 This engrossing volume takes us on a fascinating visual journey through the most groundbreaking and avant garde art of the early 20th century to the present Stunning high quality photographs of major artworks accompany illuminating discussions of the masters of modern and contemporary painting sculpture architecture and conceptual art Here are giants of invention such as Picasso and Matisse the German expressionists Dadaists constructivists surrealists abstract expressionists minimalists pop artists and today s cutting edge creators They re all carefully placed in cultural context with ideas movements events artists and works beautifully examined Scholars art aficionados students gallery owners and art historians will all find this mainstream accessible guide appealing Engineering Architecture Yasmin Sabina Khan,2004 The structural engineer responsible for Chicago s John Hancock Center and Sears Tower Fazlur R Khan 1929 1982 pioneered structural systems for high rise design that broadened the palette of building forms and expressions available to design professionals today A Critical History of Contemporary Architecture Asst Prof David Rifkind,Dr Elie G Haddad,2014-03-28 This book provides a comprehensive critical overview of the developments in architecture from 1960 to 2010 The first section provides a presentation of major movements in architecture after 1960 and the second a geographic survey that covers a wide range of territories around the world This book not only reflects the different perspectives of its various authors but also charts a middle course between the aesthetic histories that examine architecture solely in terms of its formal aspects and the more ideological histories that subject it to a critique that often skirts the discussion of its formal aspects
