Mercenary Warfare Harry McCallion, 2024-04-18 Explores the development of modern mercenary forces from the British operation in Yemen in late 1960s to today's War in Ukraine Since before the time of Alexander the Great trained soldiers have sold their expertise on battlefield around the World fighting and dying in other people's wars for money glory or the lust for violence and combat In this book Harry McCallion explores the development of modern mercenary forces from the British SAS led deniable operation in Yemen in late 1960s during which the Israelis were persuaded to arm the SAS led Yemeni tribesmen through the bush wars in Africa Britain's ill fated intervention in the war in Afghanistan right up to today's War in Ukraine Many of the modern day British mercenaries were known to the author personally including such notable figures as the legendary SAS Fijian warriors Tak Takevesia who although in his early sixties shot his way out of an ambush in Baghdad and Fred Big Fred Mrafano who devoted himself to the cause of the people of Sierra Leone SAS veteran Bill Scully who received the Queen's Gallantry Medal single handedly protected 1 300 civilians from rebel troops during the uprising in May 1997 after the Sierra Leone coup and American Vietnam veteran Major Mac Mackenzie who although badly wounded in Vietnam rose from trooper to command a Rhodesian SAS squadron and was one of the units most highly decorated soldiers Also included are more notorious figures like Costas Georgiou also known by his alias Colonel Callan who served in the 1st Battalion of the Parachute Regiment but was dishonorably discharged and sentenced to five years in prison for a post office robbery later he proclaimed himself a Colonel and led a group of psychopathic mercenaries in the Angolan War of Independence before being captured and executed by Angolan forces The book explores the roles of modern day mercenaries who's use has expanded precisely because they are mercenaries fighting for money and not love of country their deaths are not seen as a patriotic sacrifice often they go unreported and in turn helps to conceal the true tragic human cost of waging a war As one former private military contractor recently stated to Australian TV If you want to conquer in the 21st century you use mercenaries special forces things to keep war secret and nobody's better at secret wars than mercenaries Spectrum of Modern Geography Mohammad Shafi, Mehdi Raza, 1986 Festschrift honoring Mohammad Anas 1925-1983 professor of geography Aligarh Muslim University comprises articles mostly in Indian context The World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Don Rubin, 2001 This new in paperback edition of World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre covers the Americas from Canada to Argentina including the United States Volume 5 covers Asia Pacific Entries are preceded by specialist introductions on Theatre in Post Colonial Latin America Theatres of North America Puppet Theatre Theatre for Young Audiences Music Theatre and Dance Theatre The essays follow the series format allowing for cross referring across subjects both within the volume and between volumes Each country entry is written by specialists in the particular country and the volume has its own teams of regional editors overseen by the main editorial team based at the University of York in Canada headed by Don Rubin Reading Modern Law Ruth Buchanan, Stewart Motha, Sundhya Pahuja, 2012-05-31 Reading Modern Law identifies and elaborates upon key critical methodologies for reading and writing about law in modernity The force of law rests on determinate and localizable authorizations as well as an expansive capacity to encompass what has not been pre figured by an order of rules The key question this dynamic of law raises is how legal forms might be deployed to confront and disrupt injustice The urgency of this question must not eclipse the care its complexity demands This book offers a critical methodology for addressing the many challenges thrown up by that question whilst testifying to its complexity The essays in this volume engagements direct or oblique with the work of Peter Fitzpatrick chart a mode of resisting the proliferation of social scientific methods as much as geo political empire The authors elaborate a critical and interdisciplinary treatment of law and modernity and outline the pivotal role of sovereignty in contemporary formations of power both national and international From various overlapping vantage points therefore Reading Modern Law interrogates law s relationship to power as well as its relationship to the critical work of reading and writing about law in modernity

Evolution and Dynamics of the Australian Plate R. R. Hillis,R. D. Müller,2003-01-01 Transformations of Gender in Melanesia Martha Macintyre,Ceridwen Spark,2017-02-06 Despite the plethora of research on gender and the many projects designed to improve their status in the Pacific region women continue to be disadvantaged and marginalised in social economic and political spheres How are we to understand this and what does it mean for researchers policy makers and development practitioners This book examines these questions partly by looking back but also by continuing the effort to explain and understand gender inequities in the Pacific through reference to the concept of societies in transition The contributors discuss emerging masculinities and femininities in the Pacific in order to chart the development of these in their contexts Exploring how contemporary Pacific identities are shaped by local contexts and traditions they focus on how these are remade through interaction with global ideas images and practices including new forms of Christianity and economic transformations Grounded in recent original research in both the villages and towns of Melanesia the collection engages with the study of gender in Melanesia as well as scholarship on global modernities This collection is a welcome addition to the study of gender in Melanesia Collectively the essays present complex locally contextualised and regionally situated case studies of gender transformation occurring alongside in many instances the re codification of hegemonic gendered norms and practices Gender is not understood as simply code for women in this volume rather the majority of chapters incorporate men and masculinities in their analysis of gender relations and dynamics A highlight of the collection is the attention paid to how the politics of tradition and of modernity are expressed through morally loaded concepts of the good or bad woman or man and vice versa Kalissa Alexeyeff University of Melbourne Making the Modern Primitive Michelle MacCarthy,2016-06-30 Making the Modern Primitive provides an anthropological analysis of the encounter between local residents and tourists in the Trobriand Islands a place renowned in anthropology and represented in various media as culturally authentic In such a place how are ideas about authenticity implicated in creating and representing the self and cultural Others in the context of cultural tourism Michelle MacCarthy addresses this question by examining four arenas of interaction between Trobriand Islanders and tourists formal performances informal village visits souvenir shopping and tourist photography Drawing on both symbolic interpretive approaches and concepts drawn from economic anthropology she examines the relationship of tourism to the commoditization of culture the ways in which local residents actively represent and enact Trobriandness and the ways tourists interpret and narrate their experience MacCarthy offers an anthropological critique of concepts of authenticity tradition and cultural commodification based on long term fieldwork among Trobriand Islanders and tourists These notions which have particular meanings as analytical concepts in anthropology are also used and strategically deployed in the discourses of both Trobriand Islanders and tourists Ideas about primitivity and cultural essentialism while critiqued by anthropologists are nonetheless used by both parties in tourism interactions to conceptualize and contextualize difference MacCarthy demonstrate how such tropes are employed in ways that fit with prevailing metanarratives which each side holds about the other and how these tropes are reproduced both in individual narratives of both tourists and Trobrianders experiences and in their interpretations often misconstrued of the lives of cultural Others with whom they interact She examines the social dimensions of cross cultural exchange in these four arenas performance village life souvenirs photography to argue that cultural commodities are conceived of as singularities a special category whose commodity status is downplayed in order to generate an increased sense of authenticity and to perpetuate the myth of a primitive economy and way of life more generally In touristic encounters experience itself is a sort of commodity but relationships real or imagined are central to investing these experiences with meaning and value This analysis contributes new understandings of the role and significance of authenticity in the anthropology of tourism and its relationship to exchange that is how meaning and value are ascribed to the cultural products produced and consumed in the cultural tourism encounter with reference to ideas about what is and isn't authentic

Vigilante Gender Violence Rebecca Álvarez, 2020-09-23 In recent years mob attacks on women by men have drawn public attention to an emerging social phenomenon This book draws upon concepts from critical race theory and sociocultural evolutionary theory to examine this specific form of gender violence which takes place outside the law and is a vigilante form of enforcing traditional gender norms The author positions vigilante gender violence as a global issue produced during specific periods of sociocultural change in conditions marked by intensified social stratification The catalyst for vigilante gender violence is the formal state's breaching of the gender bargain the tacit psychological wage even non elite men earn by at least not being female When the state threatens to end the gender bargain by promoting women's rights the die is cast for low status men to enforce this bargain themselves in mob attacks against women who are perceived to be violating the patriarchal order Seen through independent case studies in different national settings this book provides empirical evidence that demonstrates the existence of vigilante gender violence in times when societies are shifting from one phase to another and the social hierarchies present within are disrupted With greater understanding of when and how to predict the occurrence of this phenomenon the author
