Muhammad Ali 1st Edition:

Government Gazette, 1911 Retranslating the Bible and the Qur'an Pieter Boulogne, Marijke H. de Lang, Joseph Verheyden, Despite the lively scholarly discourse on retranslation and its manifest value for uncovering dynamics of cultural change interpretation and reception the retranslation of religious texts has received only fragmented attention in recent years By spanning both historical and current aspects and by treating the Bible and the Qur'an together this book breaks new ground and paves the way for future research on the myriad discursive and religious aspects of retranslation This carefully curated collection of articles compellingly argues that the retranslation of canonical religious texts is a multifaceted phenomenon With cases ranging in time from the early Reformation to the present and traversing linguistic contexts from Russia to Sweden Slovenia to Saudi Arabia the essays capture diverse dimensions of retranslation work The collection demonstrates that retranslations of such texts manifest in different forms depending on the religious political and societal circumstances the targeted audiences and the status of existing translations Their reception too may vary greatly depending on those same circumstances Authored by specialists in the different fields of retranslation of the Bible and the Qur'an each contribution illustrates this complexity and offers a fresh perspective and insight that help lay the groundwork for future research in this area of study National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1990

Virtues of the Flesh - Passion and Purity in Early Islamic Jurisprudence Ze'ev Maghen, 2004-11-01 Robust sexuality profound spirituality and elaborate legalism are at first glance strange bedfellows The conventional Western wisdom has long conceived of these several modes as comprising an antagonistic trichotomy in which each component is opposed to the others Classical Islam on the other hand envisioned a unique system of cooperation between the sensual the ethereal and the forensic This study employs the vast and hitherto neglected literature of Islamic purity law as a looking glass through which to examine early Muslim attitudes to the romantic and erotic Probing Qur'an and Tafsir and Fiqh it opens a window on a world of unexpectedly explicit and unrestrainedly joyful sexual expression a world located squarely within the confines of God's sacred law and its elucidation Epistemological Bias in the Physical & Social Sciences Abdelwahab M. Elmessiri, 2006-01-01 The question of bias in methodology and terminology is a problem that faces researchers east west north and south however it faces Third World intellectuals with special keenness For although they write in a cultural environment that has its own specific conceptual and cultural paradigms they nevertheless encounter a foreign paradigm which attempts to impose itself upon their society and upon their very imagination and thoughts When the term developmental psychology for instance is used in the West Arab scholars also say developmental psychology when applied psychology is mentioned they hurry to use the same term etc Why not establish a new science with its own mechanisms methodologies and points of reference to deal with epistemological biases and open up the gate of ijtihad with respect to them This collection of papers aims to discover some of the biases latent in our terminology methodologies research tools and conceptual principles and to propose alternative ones marked by a greater degree of independence and neutrality This is not to belittle the human value of the West s creative contributions but to emphasize the danger of making it the ultimate point of reference and then trying to continuously play catch up with it

The Large Landowning Class and the Peasantry in Egypt, 1837-1952 Raouf Abbas,Assem El-Dessouky,2022-09-01 In Egypt the landowning class first arose in the early part of the nineteenth century from land grants given to extended family members and friends of the ruler Muhammad Ali The development of capitalism and with it the evolution of law and social practice allowed these land grants gradually to take on the attributes of private property a process that culminated in 1891 in land becoming a form of property like any other From these developments a class of large landowners emerged and began to defend their interests both economic and political In two seminal Arabic works published in the 1970s the authors Abbas and El Dessouky traced the formation of this class exploring the multiple factors that influenced the rise and power of landowners Combined into one volume and translated into English for the first time this book offers a comprehensive analysis of landownership and its effects on Egyptian society The authors draw from extensive archival sources successfully integrating in their work the competing forces of the state the landlords and the peasants By moving beyond much of the familiar scholarship on landholders this book presents a new interpretation of Egyptian politics and society
