Mukamba Tree:

The Mukamba Tree June Farquhar, 1974-01-01 Alternative Voices Oliver Freiburger, Magnus Echter, Afe Adogame, 2013-07-17 When scholarship presents the histories belief systems and ritual patterns of specific religious groups it often privileges victorious and lite fractions of those communities to the detriment and neglect of alternative dissonant and resurgent voices The contributions in this volume which include case studies on various religious and academic contexts illustrate the importance of listening to those alternative voices for the study of religion Riches of the Forest Citlalli López Binnqüist, Patricia Shanley, 2004-01-01 Under African Skies Charles R. Larson, 2025-06-25 Spanning a wide geographical range this collection features many of the now prominent first generation of African writers and draws attention to a new generation of writers Powerful intriguing and essentially non Western these stories will be welcome by an audience truly ready for multicultural voices Green Colonialism in Zimbabwe, 1890-1980 , Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Zimbabwe's Liberation Struggle Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe s anti colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe s liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial ethnic class and ideological perspectives This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country s interpretation of their recent past Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers of African history politics and postcolonial studies The Incorporated Wife Hilary Callan, Shirley Ardener, 2022-08-24 Originally published in 1984 this book touches the private lives and professional responsibilities of men and women as it illustrates the comic as well as serious effects of the incorporation of wives into some important State and commercial institutions Beyond their domestic functions wives have in particular ways been valuable props to many a husband s career and many an employer s and the nation s interests For example the Army civil administrations at home and overseas and the police have without questioning depended on the services of wives given silently willingly or unwillingly Yet the nature of the relationship of these incorporated wives to the objectives of such institutions has until recently been largely unregistered in practice unrecorded in social and historical accounts and unstudied by analysts This book provides a wealth of ethnographic material Personal anecdotes and scholarly interpretations throw light on the conceptual systems underlying the workings and cultures of institutions as well as the construction of identities Many will find their experiences echoed here The issues raised

are important not only for individual men and women for whom such incorporation may provide advantages as well as constraints but because of the bearing they have on our understanding of marriage especially since we cannot be sure this will continue in its present mode or as the dominant form of conjugal union As more married women assume greater responsibilities at work will their husbands give the same support to their wives and those who employ them as they themselves received Further it seems likely that wives may become less willing than in the past to render their services unacknowledged indeed this trend is already apparent We may ask then who will fill the gaps and how will institutions change The historical and contemporary studies here provide some base data and some theoretical approaches necessary for any who may wish to consider what will become increasingly acute practical questions

The People's Right to the Novel Eleni Coundouriotis, 2014-09-15 This study offers a literary history of the war novel in Africa Coundouriotis argues that this genre aimed more specifically at African readers than the continent's better known bildungsroman tradition nevertheless makes an important intervention in global understandings of human rights The African war novel lies at the convergence of two sensibilities it encounters in European traditions the naturalist aesthetic and the discourse of humanitarianism whether in the form of sentimentalism or of human rights law Both these sensibilities are present in culturally hybrid forms in the African war novel reflecting its syncretism as a narrative practice engaged with the colonial and postcolonial history of the continent The war novel Coundouriotis argues stakes claims to collective rights that contrast with the individualism of the bildungsroman tradition The genre is a form of people's history that participates in a political struggle for the rights of the dispossessed

Necroclimatism in a Spectral World (Dis)order? Artwell Nhemachena, Munyaradzi Mawere, 2019-06-25 Highlighting the problematiques of working with a narrow version of greenhouse effects or global warming this book posits the theory of necroclimatism that encompasses broader versions of greenhouse effects and global warming Conceiving cultures societies moral sensibilities epistemologies polities economies legal systems and religions of the formerly colonised peoples as greenhoused and entrapped in the heat of global apartheid and neo colonialism the book refuses to be confined to the pufferies of physical conceptualisations of greenhousing and global warming Underlining the supposed disposability and dispensability of colonised peoples the notion of necroclimatism explicates ways in which some people suffer various forms of death which have increasingly become a feature of global apartheid and neo colonialism that are cast in spectral sacrificial logics Deemed to constitute disposable bodies disposable cultures disposable polities disposable societies disposable epistemologies disposable religions disposable laws and disposable economies the sacrificed are in the age of climate catastrophism once again reminded that they have duties to die to become extinct in order to save the global spaceship that is sinking due to climate change and global warming This book therefore argues that in a sacrificial world dis order binaries between humans and animals good and evil moral and immoral the dead and the living necessarily vanish in the nefarious logic of what marks the era of climate catastrophism and the attendant necroclimatism The book further argues that a sacrificial world dis order is necessarily a posthumanist and postanthropocentric world dis order which should be never granted space in African worlds and even beyond The book thus raises fundamental questions for African anticipatory regimes and for this reason it is handy for scholars in political science sociology social anthropology development studies environmental studies agricultural studies legal studies food science geography religious studies and decolonial fields of studies Chindau-English and English-Chindau Vocabulary American Board Mission. Rhodesian Branch,1915 Echoing Silences Alexander Kanengoni,1998 In this short poetic novel Alexander Kanengoni relates the traumatic history of those who fought to create the modern Zimbabwe Africa Calls from Rhodesia and Nyasaland ,1975 Tears Of Rain - Ethnicity & Hist Van,2016-05-06 First published in 1992 This is a book about ethnicity among the Nkoya people in central western Zambia and about the historical background out of which that ethnicity is made It studies in detail the fascinating ways in which ethnicity both creates and feeds upon ethno history At the same time it assesses the possibility of reconstructing objective historical processes in that region since the sixteenth century on the basis primarily of one very extensive source Rev Johasaphat Malasha Shimunika s Likota Iya Bankoya whose production as a compilation and processing of local oral traditions is intimately related to contemporary ethnicity But most of all this is a book about that fundamental and humble condition of scholarship reading Chitonga Vocabulary of the Zambesi Valley A. W. Griffin,1915 Climate Change Adaptations in Dryland Agriculture in Semi-Arid Areas Xavier Poshiwa,G. Ravindra Chary,2022-02-10 This book highlights the approaches for achieving trans disciplinary research integration for semi arid dryland agriculture systems under changing climates while also identifying the elements of a collaborative research agenda that are needed to advance global food security The book emphasizes climate change being a reality and how drylands are bearing the brunt in diverse ways The major impact of dryland agriculture is on communities that need to avoid the short and long term impacts of the changing climate adapt strategies that can minimize these impacts and be able to mitigate climate change for which they need climate smart interventions These interventions are only realized through knowledge and experience sharing among stakeholders from different sectors and backgrounds It is in this context that the publication was seen as a necessity in order to bring together ideas that will transform lives and build adaptation capacities thereby providing the much needed products in communities leading to development Chiefship and Cosmology Randall M. Packard,1982 The Role of Ecosystem Services in Sustainable Food Systems Leonard Rusinamhodzi,2019-11-12 The Role of Ecosystem Services in Sustainable Food Systems reveals in simple terms the operational definition concepts and applications of ecosystem services with a focus on sustainable food systems The book presents case studies on both geographical and production system wide considerations Initial chapters discuss concepts methodologies and the tools needed to understand ecosystem services in the broader food system Middle and later chapters present different perspectives from case studies of ecosystem services derived from some of the key sustainable food production systems used by farmers along with discussions on the challenges
