The Mulberry Empire Philip Hensher, 2003-10-14 With Tolstoyan sweep and Dickensian vitality this epically involving historical novel relates England's tragic adventure in Afghanistan which began with the triumphant arrival of the Army of the Indus in 1839 and ended three years later in rout and massacre At the center of The Mulberry Empire is Alexander Burnes a Scots explorer who travels to the unfathomably remote kingdom of Afghanistan and first befriends and then reluctantly betrays its wise and impeccably courteous Amir But he is only one character in a cast that includes ladies and generals princes and deserters all brilliantly and sympathetically realized At once stirring and harrowing exotic and cautionary and as vividly colored as a Persian miniature the result is a tour de force of re creation and invention Mezzaterra Ahdaf Soueif, 2012-09-10 Globalisation is happening It is driven by economics ideology and communications But does this have to entail the annexation of chunks of the world by the Great Power of any given moment Surely that is the path to constant conflict to grief and misery There is another way to inhabit and broaden the common ground This is the ground where everybody is welcome the ground we need to defend and to expand It is in Mezzaterra that every responsible person on this planet now needs to pitch their tent This is the ground from which this book is calling Ahdaf Soueif is one of the finest commentators of our time Her clear eyed reporting is syndicated throughout the world and these essays written between 1981 and the present are collected here for the first time They are the direct result of Soueif's own circumstances of being as she puts it like hundreds of thousands of others people with an Arab or a Muslim background doing daily double takes when faced with their reflection in a western mirror From visiting Palestine and entering the Noble Sanctuary for the first time to interpretations of women who choose to wear the veil and to post September 11th commentary these selected essays are always perceptive fearless intelligent and necessary The Lion's Share Bernard Porter, 2014-06-11 As well as presenting a lively narrative of events Bernard Porter explores a number of broad analytical themes challenging more conventional and popular interpretations. He sees imperialism as a symptom not of Britain's strength in the world but of her decline and he argues that the empire itself both aggravated and obscured deep seated malaise in the British economy More Book Lust Nancy Pearl, 2009-09-29 Whether you re searching for the perfect read for yourself or for a friend More Book Lust offer eclectic recommendations unlike those in any other reading guide available In this followup to the bestselling Book Lust popular librarian Nancy Pearl offers a fresh collection of 1 000 reading recommendations in more than 120 thematic intelligent and wholly entertaining reading lists For the friend wanting to leave her job Living Your Dream offers good armchair dreaming books about people who have left stodgy jobs to do what they love Are you a budding chef Fiction For Foodies includes books that sneak in a recipe or two along with a tantalizing plot For the James Bond wannabe Crime is a Globetrotter features crime novels set in various locations around the world such as Tibet Sweden and Sicily In the book s introduction Pearl jokes If we were at a twelve step meeting together I would have to stand up and say Hi I m Nancy P and I
