Mulberry Empire The:

The Mulberry Empire Philip Hensher, 2003-10-14 With Tolstoyan sweep and Dickensian vitality this epically involving historical novel relates England's tragic adventure in Afghanistan which began with the triumphant arrival of the Army of the Indus in 1839 and ended three years later in rout and massacre At the center of The Mulberry Empire is Alexander Burnes a Scots explorer who travels to the unfathomably remote kingdom of Afghanistan and first befriends and then reluctantly betrays its wise and impeccably courteous Amir But he is only one character in a cast that includes ladies and generals princes and deserters all brilliantly and sympathetically realized At once stirring and harrowing exotic and cautionary and as vividly colored as a Persian miniature the result is a tour de force of re creation and invention Mezzaterra Ahdaf Soueif, 2012-09-10 Globalisation is happening It is driven by economics ideology and communications But does this have to entail the annexation of chunks of the world by the Great Power of any given moment Surely that is the path to constant conflict to grief and misery There is another way to inhabit and broaden the common ground This is the ground where everybody is welcome the ground we need to defend and to expand It is in Mezzaterra that every responsible person on this planet now needs to pitch their tent This is the ground from which this book is calling Ahdaf Soueif is one of the finest commentators of our time Her clear eyed reporting is syndicated throughout the world and these essays written between 1981 and the present are collected here for the first time They are the direct result of Soueif's own circumstances of being as she puts it like hundreds of thousands of others people with an Arab or a Muslim background doing daily double takes when faced with their reflection in a western mirror From visiting Palestine and entering the Noble Sanctuary for the first time to interpretations of women who choose to wear the veil and to post September 11th commentary these selected essays are always perceptive fearless intelligent and necessary The Lion's Share Bernard Porter, 2014-06-11 As well as presenting a lively narrative of events Bernard Porter explores a number of broad analytical themes challenging more conventional and popular interpretations He sees imperialism as a symptom not of Britain's strength in the world but of her decline and he argues that the empire itself both aggravated and obscured deep seated malaise in the British economy Hear Us Out Richard Canning, 2004-01-13 The author of the acclaimed Gay Fiction Speaks brings us new interviews with twelve prominent gay writers who have emerged in the last decade Hear Us Out demonstrates how in recent decades the canon of gay fiction has developed diversified and expanded its audience into the mainstream Readers will recognize names like Michael Cunningham whose Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Hours inspired the hit movie and others like Christopher Bram Bernard Cooper Stephen McCauley and Matthew Stadler These accounts explore the vicissitudes of writing on gay male themes in fiction over the last thirty years prejudices of the literary marketplace social and political questions the impact of AIDS commonalities between gay male and lesbian fiction and even some delectable bits of gossip The Silk Road and Cultural Exchanges between East and West Xinjiang Rong, 2022-10-31 This first and only English translation of Rong Xinjiang's The
