Mulch Pile And Other Poems:

The Mulch Pile Robert W. Nero, 1993-06-30 Ornithologist ecologist naturalist and poet Dr Robert W Nero of Winnipeg is the acknowledged North American authority on the Great Gray Owl Like his earlier book Woman By the Shore it is rather like an album of snapshots to leaf through here is Bob walking the dog here in the garden with Ruth here pensively watching from his window Each poem is carefully crafted to reveal the essence of one event and his appreciation of it From the introduction by Ardythe McMaster

Kite Flying and Other Poems for Curious Minds John A. Morris, 2010-05-26

The Site Robert W. Nero, 2001-10-30 Poetry or potsherds That s the surprising dilemma one of Canada s well known nature writers confronts in The Site A Personal Odyssey a highly personalized account of a lifetime s involvement as an avocational archaeologist With deft descriptive powers Robert Nero leads us gently into this new facet of his amazing spectrum of interests Not unexpectedly there even is poetry in his approach to studying prehistoric remains From childhood through adolescence to wartime service with the U S Army in the Southwest Pacific from exploring the vast sand dunes of Lake Athabasca to excavating a 3 000 year old site he discovered west of Winnipeg Nero allows us to share his enthusiasm and excitement in outdoor adventures There is always a wonderful immediacy in his narrative the mark of a gifted writer whether expressed in prose or poetry

More Than Birds Val Shushkewich, 2012-11-17 Once people encounter the natural world and become aware of its intricacy fragility beauty and significance they will recognize the need for conservation The fascinating development of natural history studies in North America is portrayed through the life stories of 22 naturalists The 19th century saw early North American naturalists such as Alexander Wilson the Father of American Ornithology John James Audubon and Thomas Nuttall describing and illustrating the spectacular flora and fauna they found in the New World Scientists of the Smithsonian Institution and the Canadian Museum of Nature worked feverishly to describe and catalogue the species that exist on the continent Great nature writers such as Florence Merriam Bailey Cordelia Stanwood Margaret Morse Nice Louise de Kiriline Lawrence and Roger Tory Peterson wrote in depth about the lives and behaviours of birds Early conservationists such as Jack Miner the Father of Conservation created nature preserves Today noted naturalists such as Robert Nero Robert Bateman Kenn Kaufman and David Allen Sibley do everything they can to encourage people to experience nature directly in their lives and to care about its protection and preservation

Spring Again Robert W. Nero, 1997-01-15 In this collection of poems noted naturalist writer Robert W Nero offers insightful reflections on a variety of birds from peregrine falcons great grey owls and common ravens to purple martins and orioles We are also offered surprising glimpses of such diverse wildlife as frogs chipmunks shrews ants dragonflies and spiders It is nature in all its seasons that holds Dr Nero s attention as he develops intriguing views of ordinary scenes and events But the poems in this collection also speak of love passion and introspection thus revealing a deeper and increasingly personal side of one of Canada s most respected naturalists A combination of scientific training and experience along with ecological awareness and writer s craft is brought to bear in this fine assortment of poems As in his two previous poetry books we are privileged to share some fairly intimate aspects of the relationship between Bob Nero and his wife Ruth This surprising writer enriches our awareness of the diversity of nature while exposing some of his deepest and most tender thoughts and feelings Growing Old Together Robert W. Nero,2005-11-29 Naturalist ornithologist avocational archaeologist and poet Winnipeg s Dr Robert W Nero has authored nine books dealing with his amazing spectrum of interests Growing Old Together is the newest collection of poetry by this gifted writer revealing his sensitivity and keen observation of the natural world In his frequently passionate poetry Nero pays tribute to his wife Ruth who has over many years encouraged Bob to write and to pursue his outdoor interests all the while sharing him with Lady Grayl the great gray owl he found injured and starving in 1984 From that time on Lady Grayl toured with Bob Nero to raise funds for numerous environmental projects and to educate thousands of children and adults about conservation This remarkable association ended in October of 2005 with the passing of Lady Grayl at age 21 5 It is fitting that Manitoba Day 2005 honoured the Great Gray Owl the official provincial bird and yes Lady Grayl was involved
