Multicultural Education In Western Societies:

Multicultural Education in Western Societies James A. Banks, James Lynch, 1986 Precarious International Multicultural Education: Hegemony, Dissent and Rising Alternatives Handel Kashope Wright, Michael Singh, Richard Race, 2012-09-22 Multiculturalism and multicultural education are at a paradoxical moment There is work that continues as if the multicultural hegemony was still intact and on the other hand work articulated as if multiculturalism was decidedly passe The essays in this collection will be of considerable interest to academics policy makers and students of both multiculturalism and multicultural education principally because they touch on both perspectives but concentrate for the most part on the thorny problematic of the workings of multicultural education in its present precarious moment Given the renewed urgent attacks in various western countries the cottage industry of death of multiculturalism texts and the rise of the interculturalism transnationalism diaspora alternatives is multiculturalism dying Are the ends of multiculturalism the management or celebration of diversity representation and recognition for all in society creation of just and equitable communities at the global national and local school classroom levels better theorized and realized through the ascendant alternatives Representing the precarious moment in Canada Ireland Australia the United States and the United Kingdom the essays in this collection address these questions and both depict and trouble hegemonic multicultural education and contrast it with its supposed successor regimes Creative Arts in Education and Culture Samuel Leong, Bo Wah Leung, 2013-12-01 This book offers insights into the exciting dynamics permeating creative arts education in the Greater China region focusing on the challenges of forging a future that would not reject but be enriched by its Confucian and colonial past Today's Greater China comprising China Hong Kong Macau and Taiwan has grown into a vibrant and rapidly transforming region characterized by rich historical legacies enormous dynamism and exciting cultural metamorphosis Concomitant with the economic rise of China and widespread calls for more creative and liberal education the educational and cultural sectors in the region have witnessed significant reforms in recent years Other factors that will influence the future of arts education are the emergence of a new awareness of Chinese cultural values and the uniqueness of being Chinese Constructing Multicultural Education in a Diverse Society Ilghiz M. Sinagatullin, 2003 Professor Sinagatullin believes that a well built multicultural classroom is key to reducing racial ethnic religious class and gender prejudices Incorporating the notions of multiculturalism and globalism into one entity called multicultural education and focusing on a wide range of educational practices leads Sinagatullin's study to look at the various ethnic groups of Russia This book also explores issues of diversity in a rural setting as well as introduces the reader to issues of folk pedagogy and ethnopedagogy that have previously remained unexplored Global Citizenship Education and the Crises of Multiculturalism Massimiliano Tarozzi, Carlos Alberto Torres, 2016-08-11 The notion of global citizenship education GCE has emerged in the international education discourse in the context of the United Nations Education First Initiative that cites developing global citizens as one of its goals In this book the authors argue that GCE offers a new educational perspective for making sense of the existing dilemmas of multiculturalism and national citizenship deficits in diverse societies taking into account equality human rights and social justice The authors explore how teaching and research may be implemented relating to the notion of global citizenship and discuss the intersections between the framework of GCE and multiculturalism They address the three main topics which affect education in multicultural societies and in a globalized world and which represent unsolved dilemmas the issue of diversity in relation to creating citizens the issue of equality and social justice in democratic societies and the tension between the global and the local in a globalized world Through a comparative study of the two prevailing approaches intercultural education within the European Union and multicultural education in the United States the authors seek what can be learned from each model Global Citizenship Education and the Crises of Multiculturalism offers not only a unifying theoretical framework but also a set of policy recommendations aiming to link the two approaches

Teacher Education in Plural Societies (RLE Edu N) Maurice Craft, 2012-04-27 The educational implications of cultural pluralism attracted a good deal of attention in Western societies in the 1970s and 1980s on the grounds of equality and human rights maximising national talent and maintaining social cohesion Maurice Craft and the international contributors to this book highlight the potential of teacher education and in this wide ranging analytical review for its key role in providing for ethnic minority children in respect of access and achievements and also for all children to acquire informed and tolerant attitudes This book makes an important contribution to a small but growing literature concentrating on initial rather than in service teacher education and it brings together papers from experienced specialists from eleven countries worldwide Australia Britain Canada Israel Malaysia Northern Ireland South Africa Spain Sweden The Netherlands and the USA The papers are concerned with the needs both of diverse classrooms and diverse societies and also consider general principles and comparative perspectives Of interest to the specialist and non specialist alike Teacher Education in Plural Societies An International Review deals with an important and timely issue how best to prepare teachers to meet the needs of both minority and majority culture pupils who are growing up in plural societies

Multicultural Education Patricia G. Ramsey, Edwina Battle Vold, Leslie R. Williams, 1989 The second edition of this source book contains essays and annotations on a number of issues related to multicultural education The authors define multicultural education as a process oriented creation of learning experiences that foster an awareness of respect for and enjoyment of the diversity of our society and world Inherent in this definition of multicultural education is a commitment to create a more just and equitable society for all people This book then offers suggestions relevant to the teaching of all children all teaching and curricular decisions and every aspect of educational policy
