Oucho, 2002-01-01 This book provides graphic and scholarly perspectives of ethnic conflict in Kenya where ethnocentrism has grown with time and where both ethnic and administrative units are coterminous As the country s Rift Valley attracted in migration since independence in 1963 it became the seedbed of a simmering ethnic strife that exploded in 1991-93 causing a flood of internally displaced people IDP and grinding agricultural activity and economic enterprise to a halt      Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1986-04 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world

Revolution and Rebellion in the Early Modern World Jack A. Goldstone, 1991-04-02 What can the great crises of the past teach us about contemporary revolutions Arguing from an exciting and original perspective Goldstone suggests that great revolutions were the product of ecological crises that occurred when inflexible political economic and social institutions were overwhelmed by the cumulative pressure of population growth on limited available resources Moreover he contends that the causes of the great revolutions of Europe the English and French revolutions were similar to those of the great rebellions of Asia which shattered dynasties in Ottoman Turkey China and Japan The author observes that revolutions and rebellions have more often produced a crushing state orthodoxy than liberal institutions leading to the conclusion that perhaps it is vain to expect revolution to bring democracy and economic progress Instead contends Goldstone the path to these goals must begin with respect for individual liberty rather than authoritarian movements of national liberation Arguing that the threat of revolution is still with us Goldstone urges us to heed the lessons of the past He sees in the United States a repetition of the behavior patterns that have led to internal decay and international decline in the past a situation calling for new leadership and careful attention to the balance between our consumption and our resources Meticulously researched forcefully argued and strikingly original Revolutions and Rebellions in the Early Modern World is a tour de force by a brilliant young scholar It is a book that will surely engender much discussion and debate

Alexseev,2006 Immigration phobia is a paradoxical global phenomenon neither theories that link conflict to symbolic and realistic threats nor the contact hypothesis can systematically explain intense anti migrant alarmism and exclusionism toward marginally small migrant minorities Through a careful comparative study of immigration attitudes in the Russian Far East the EU and the United States this book is the first to demonstrate that concerns about national identity and economic interests associated with migration are themselves ignited by a unique perceptual logic of the security dilemma Regression analysis and case studies trace support for expulsion of migrants to human yearning for pre emptive self defense under uncertainty Alarmism and hostility arise from ambiguities about immigration consequences and migrants motivations Framing migration as a national security problem is therefore logical but counterproductive The book instead recommends managing migration through economic incentives and new institutions at the global national and local level Innovations in Peace and Security in Africa Joseph Adero Ngala,Rachel Julian,Jonathan Henriques,2023-08-28 This edited volume harnesses African expertise to examine the local and global dimensions of peace It is an outcome of a workshop in Nairobi Kenya that convened African academics and practitioners with diverse specialisations The authors contributions foreground local voices across a broad scope of inquiry including rural community structures health trauma sexual violence peacekeeping and cybersecurity African knowledge is essential to understanding peace on the continent the complexities of conflict and insecurity the lived experiences of individuals and communities and their responses to such phenomena This analytical approach underpins the book creating fertile ground to identify and develop innovations that hold the promise for sustainable African solutions
