Multilingual Anthology Of American Literature:

The Multilingual Anthology of American Literature Marc Shell, Werner Sollors, 2000-11 American literature appears here as more than an offshoot of a single mother country or of many mother countries but rather as the interaction among diverse linguistic and cultural trajectories

Multilingual America Werner Sollors, 1998-08 Aside from the occasional controversy over Official English campaigns language remains the blind spot in the debate over multiculturalism Considering its status as a nation of non English speaking aborigines and of immigrants with many languages America exhibits a curious tunnel vision about cultural and literary forms that are not in English How then have non English speaking Americans written about their experiences in this country And what can we learn about America immigration and ethnicity from them Arguing that multilingualism is perhaps the most important form of diversity Multilingual America calls attention to and seeks to correct the linguistic parochialism that has defined American literary study By bringing together essays on important works by among others Yiddish Chinese American German American Italian American Norwegian American and Spanish American writers Werner Sollors here presents a fuller view of multilingualism as a historical phenomenon and as an ongoing way of life At a time when we are just beginning to understand the profound effects of language acquisition on the development of the brain Multilingual America forces us to broaden what in fact constitutes American literature

The Cambridge Companion to Jewish American Literature Hana Wirth-Nesher, Michael P. Vernacular Eloquence Peter Elbow, 2012-01-13 Since the publication of his groundbreaking books Writing Without Teachers and Writing with Power Peter Elbow has revolutionized how people think about writing Now in Vernacular Eloquence he makes a vital new contribution to both practice and theory The core idea is simple we can enlist virtues from the language activity most people find easiest speaking for the language activity most people find hardest writing Speech with its spontaneity naturalness of expression and fluidity of thought has many overlooked linguistic and rhetorical merits Through several easy to employ techniques writers can marshal this wisdom of the tongue to produce stronger clearer more natural writing This simple idea it turns out has deep repercussions Our culture of literacy Elbow argues functions as though it were a plot against the spoken voice the human body vernacular language and those without privilege making it harder than necessary to write with comfort or power Giving speech a central role in writing overturns many empty preconceptions It causes readers to think critically about the relationship between speech writing and our notion of literacy Developing the political implications behind Elbow's previous books Vernacular Eloquence makes a compelling case that strengthening writing and democratizing it go hand in hand Cross-Cultural Perspectives in Literature and Language Iwona Filipczak, Anna Gaidash, Joanna Stolarek, Michaela Weiss, Anna Wortman, Judit Baranyiné Kóczy, Oleksandr Kapranov, Jarosław Wiliński, Agnieszka Wróbel, 2017-12-28 Provides an international forum for the exchange of ideas related to multiculturalism multi ethnicity cross cultural perspectives in literature the arts and politics integration versus cultural shock as well as racial ethnic and religious problems of the world in the 21st century The editors hope that the articles selected for the volume will prove stimulating and inspiring to their readers be they blooming researchers or specialists in Anglophone literature culture linguistics and didactics PART I LITERATURE AND CULTURE PART II LINGUISTICS AND METHODOLOGY LCCN 2017962609 EVOLVING ORIGINS, TRANSPLANTING CULTURES Antonia Domínguez Miguela, Laura Paloma Alonso Gallo, 2021-10-02 Colección de ensayos críticos de obras literarias norteamericanas firmadas por escritores exiliados y emigrantes o por sus descendientes ya nacidos en EE UU de origen cubano mexicano puertorriqueño o dominicano así como afrocaribeño y europeo Las obras literarias que se analizan fueron publicadas después de la Segunda Guerra Mundial si bien se han incluido otras anteriores por ser antecedentes de esta literatura de diversas diásporas The volume is a collection of critical essays on North American literary works produced by immigrant and exiled writers or American born descendants of Cuban Mexican Puerto Rican Dominican Asian European and Afro Caribbean origin These literary works were published after the Second World War even though some earlier works have been included as antecedents of these literatures of diasporas They create an amalgam of what being an American means in contemporary society Multilingual Currents in Literature, Translation and Culture Rachael Gilmour, Tamar Steinitz, 2017-08-23 At a time increasingly dominated by globalization migration and the clash between supranational and ultranational ideologies the relationship between language and borders has become more complicated and in many ways more consequential than ever This book shows how concepts of language and multilingualism look different when viewed from Belize Lagos or London and asks how ideas about literature and literary form must be remade in a contemporary cultural marketplace that is both linguistically diverse and interconnected even as it remains profoundly unequal Bringing together scholars from the fields of literary studies applied linguistics publishing and translation studies the volume investigates how multilingual realities shape not only the practice of writing but also modes of literary and cultural production Chapters explore examples of literary multilingualism and their relationship to the institutions of publishing translation and canon formation They consider how literature can be read in relation to other multilingual and translational forms of contemporary cultural circulation and what new interpretative strategies such developments demand In tracing the multilingual currents running across a globalized world this book will appeal to the growing international readership at the intersections of comparative literature world literature postcolonial studies literary theory and criticism and translation studies A Concise Companion to Postwar

American Literature and Culture Josephine Hendin, 2008-04-15 This Concise Companion is a guide to the creative output of the United States in the postwar period in its diverse energies shapes and forms Embraces diversity covering Vietnam literature gay and lesbian literature American Jewish fiction Italian American literature Irish American writing emergent ethnic literatures African American writing jazz film drama and more Shows how different genres and approaches opened up creative possibilities and interacted in the postwar period Portrays the postwar United States split by differences of wealth and position by ethnicity and race and by agendas of left and right but united in the intensity of its creative drive The Turn Around Religion in America Professor Michael P Kramer, Professor Nan Goodman, 2013-05-28 Playing on the frequently used metaphors of the turn toward or turn back in scholarship on religion The Turn Around Religion in America offers a model of religion that moves in a reciprocal relationship between these two poles In particular this volume dedicates itself to a reading of religion and of religious meaning that cannot be reduced to history or ideology on the one hand or to truth or spirit on the other but is rather the product of the constant play between the historical particulars that manifest beliefs and the beliefs that take shape through them Taking as their point of departure the foundational scholarship of Sacvan Bercovitch the contributors locate the universal in the ongoing and particularized attempts of American authors from the seventeenth century forward to get it whatever that it might be right Examining authors as diverse as Pietro di Donato Herman Melville Miguel Algarin Edward Taylor Mark Twain Robert Keayne Nathaniel Hawthorne Paule Marshall Stephen Crane Ralph Waldo Emerson and Joseph B Soloveitchik among many others and a host of genres from novels and poetry to sermons philosophy history journalism photography theater and cinema the essays call for a discussion of religion s powers that does not seek to explain them as much as put them into conversation with each other Central to this project is Bercovitch s emphasis on the rhetoric ritual typology and symbology of religion and his recognition that with each aesthetic enactment of religion s power we learn something new The Turn Around Religion in America Michael P.
