Multinational Restructuring Internationalization And Small Economies The Case Of Sweden:

Multinational Restructuring, Internationalization and Small Economies Thomas Andersson,Torbjorn Fredriksson,Roger Svensson,2005-08-31 Much of the existing literature on multinational companies has been concerned with firms originating in the world s largest economies This book redresses the situation by presenting important information on the internationalization of a small country s industry Multinational Restructuring Internationalization and Small Economies goes beyond traditional studies of foreign direct investment By using detailed data covering practically all Swedish multinationals and more than two decades of expansion in international markets the authors describe interpret and analyse issues which are normally difficult to investigate Multinational Restructuring, Internationalization and Small Economies Thomas Andersson,Torbjorn Fredriksson,Roger Svensson,2005-08-31 First published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Globalisation and Advertising in Emerging Economies Lynne Ciochetto,2013-10-11 Brazil Russia India and China are four of the largest and most dynamic contemporary emerging economies in the world Strong economic growth in each of these economies has been accompanied by the expansion of the advertising and consumer goods sectors Using a series of country studies this book explores the dynamics of global capitalism from the perspective of global advertising The book highlights the on going expansion of advertising and consumerism against the wider socio economic political and cultural contexts It provides fresh insights about contemporary global priorities and argues that advertising plays a key role linking culture and the economy By presenting individual case studies of advertising campaigns it offers examples of the globalisation of specific brands Environmental implications of the expansion of advertising and its role in stimulating consumerism are explored in the context of the four emerging economies The book compares and contrasts the individual country profiles and makes an assessment of the validity of the argument regarding their projected importance and the likelihood of their future dominance of the global economy The Global Restructuring of the Steel Industry Anthony D'Costa,1999-01-28 Using case studies from USA Japan South Korea Brazil and India this work explains how and why the steel industry has shifted from the advanced capitalist countries to the late industrializing countries The Politics of European Union Enlargement Frank Schimmelfennig,Ulrich Sedelmeier,2005-11-16 This is a key reference text presenting the latest first rate approaches to the study of European enlargement Developed and significantly expanded from a special issue of the leading Journal of European Public Policy this new volume draws on the insights from the recently emerging theoretically informed literature on the EU s eastern enlargement and complements these studies with original articles that combine a theoretical approach with comparative analyses These expert contributors focus on the broader theoretical debates and their implications for the enlargement of the EU as well as placing the enlargement of the EU within the broader context of the expansion of international organisations and the study of institutions in international relations

Governing Interests Wolfgang Streeck,Jurgen Grote,Volker Schneider,Jelle Visser,2006-06-07 In the current period of globalization Governing Interests presents new research on the impact of internationalization on the organization and representation of business interests through trade and employer associations By exploring ongoing gradual but nevertheless profound changes in the structures and functions of business interest associations the book develops a precise understanding of the relationship between the national and the international Both conceptual and empirical some papers included in this significant volume adopt a bird s eye view of the topic whilst others concentrate on individual industries or countries and several through examination and analysis consider the effects on interest representation and the repercussions on effective governance Contributed to and edited by leading academics the diversity of research questions and methods used in this volume provide the reader with an excellent understanding of the subject and importantly caution against rash simplifications Comprehensive and scholarly this text will be of particular relevance to political scientists and sociologists

New Multinational Enterprises from Korea and Taiwan Roger van Hoesel,2013-01-11 This volume represents the first substantive study of emerging multinationals MNEs from Asian economies drawing on the unique experiences of South Korea and Taiwan Combining an econometric investigation with detailed case studies of leading Korean and Taiwanese electronics companies it aims to demystify the nature and theoretical implications of these dynamic economic regions The author argues that many of these new multinationals do not possess the characteristics typically ascribed to MNEs such as technological leadership strong marketing positions or advanced managerial capabilities This is highlighted by documentation of recent developments in outward investment from Korea and Taiwan at both micro and macro level The implications of the recent Asian crisis for the internationalization of Korean and Taiwanese firms are also explored Born

Globals, Networks, and the Large Multinational Enterprise Shameen Prashantham,2015-05-22 Focusing on international entrepreneurship this research book explores the accelerated internationalization of young firms Known variously as international new ventures INVs or born globals such firms have come to be viewed as legitimate actors on the global stage alongside large multinational enterprises MNEs However the current approach taken by scholars studying large MNEs and born globals separately is questionable This book explores the crucial MNE INV interface a fascinating yet under researched relationship in international entrepreneurship Drawing upon a decade of case based research the author argues that the MNE influence on born globals must be considered more carefully and suggests how new ventures can leverage MNE networks in the pursuit of their rapid internationalization Furthermore it demonstrates that as firms enhance their levels of innovation new pathways emerge via multinational corporation networks a phenomenon vividly demonstrated in the emerging economy context of the Bangalore software industry This innovative research text will be of interest to academics researchers and advanced students with an interest in international entrepreneurship and business strategy innovation and new ventures Globalization, Employment and the Workplace Yaw A. Debrah,Ian G. Smith,2003-12-08 This book provides evidence of the nature and degree of significance that globalization holds for nation states cultures trade unions employees and business management Transnational Corporations Grazia Ietto-Gillies, 2002-09-26 This volume examines the role of transnational corporations TNCs in the geography of international production covering both theoretical and empirical aspects Consultancy and Innovation Peter Wood, 2003-09-02 Consultancy and Innovation links two important aspects of European economic development in the past thirty years the pace of technical and management innovation and the growing significance of technical and business consultancy This book includes detailed studies of consultancy activities or knowledge intensive services KIS in eight EU countries written by national experts in the field Knowledge Economies Philip Cooke, 2002-09-10 This book traces the theoretical explanation for clusters back to the work of classical economists and their more modern disciples who saw economic development as a process involving serious imbalances in the exploitation of resources Initially natural resource endowments explained the formation of nineteenth and early twentieth century industrial districts Today geographical concentrations of scientific and creative knowledge are the key resource But these require a support system ranging from major injections of basic research funding to varieties of financial investment and management to the provision of specialist incubators for economic value to be realised These are also specialised forms of knowledge that contribute to a serious imbalance in the distribution of economic opportunity International Trade Theory Murray C. Kemp, 2008 Pt 1 The classical theory of international trade pt 2 The neo classical theory of international trade pt 3 Normative trade theory pt 4 Methodology Global Capitalism at Bay Professor John H Dunning, 2000-12-14 Renowned authority in international business John H Dunning here elaborates his theories on the current situation of foreign direct investment and multinational enterprises A unique study of contemporary capitalism and its possible future Big Business and Economic Development Barbara Hogenboom, Alex E. Fernández Jilberto, 2006-12-21 Bringing together an international and multidisciplinary group of experts this is the first comprehensive volume to analyze conglomerates and economic groups in developing countries and transition economies Using sixteen in depth case studies it provides a comparative framework for the study of contemporary process of privatization economic and financial liberalization and neoliberal globalization Exploring the various causes and economic social and political effects of the rise of big business in Asia Latin America Africa and Eastern Europe the main issues that are examined include the nature of contemporary economic concentration the relations between local and external investors the impact on development and on economic and political control over its direction the new role of the state towards conglomerates and economics groups the effects of economic and political changes on the legitimacy of the state and large companies This volume is perfect as either a textbook or supplementary reading for students at all levels as well as researchers and governmental and non governmental professionals working and studying in the fields of international business and economic development The Political Economy of Oil and Gas in Africa Soala Ariweriokuma, 2008-10-22 The evolution of the Nigerian oil and gas industry spanned about a century during which several challenges were encountered and surmounted by major International Oil Companies IOCs This book provides a thoroughly researched guide to the Nigerian oil and gas industry The author examines the increasing role of Africa in the contribution

Multinational Corporations Paz Estrella Tolentino, 2003-09-02 This work presents case studies of the emergence and evolution of Multinational Corporations MNCs based in eleven developed and developing countries of widely divergent patterns of national development From this analysis Tolentino develops a comprehensive theory of the emergence and evolution of MNCs from a macroeconomic perspective
