Murder At 16:

Scenes Of Murder Winston Ramsey, 2012-02-28 In this book After the Battle have explored entirely new ground to investigate 150 years of murder and present it through our then and now theme of comparison photographs Scene of crime plans and photographs from police files focus on a wide variety of murders committed between 1812 when a Prime Minister was shot in the House of Commons to killings on the streets of London in the 1960s Far too often it is the perpetrator who is remembered while their victims many lying in unmarked graves remain lost to history So this book sets out to redress the balance by tracking down the last resting places even going as far as to mark two wartime graves of taxi drivers killed by American servicemen Homicide is not a subject for the faint hearted and many of the photographs are distressing which is why the book is made available with that warning Report Michigan. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures,1970 Exploring the Mandatory Life Sentence for Murder Barry Mitchell,Julian V Roberts,2012-10-19 Murder is often regarded as both the ultimate and a unique crime and whereas courts are normally given discretion in sentencing offenders for murder the sentence is mandatory indeterminate imprisonment Since the crime and the punishment come as a package deal this book looks at both the legal nature of the offence and at the current operation of the mandatory life sentence Not only does the book adopt a critical approach by assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the status quo it also draws upon comparative material from both common and civil law jurisdictions in an attempt to provide a comprehensive exploration of these issues The need for public confidence in the criminal justice system is particularly acute in the way it deals with the most serious homicides In this book the authors report findings from the first systematic exploration of public attitudes to sentencing murder in this or any other common law jurisdiction The picture of public opinion emerging from this recent large scale nationwide qualitative and quantitative survey funded by the Nuffield Foundation is likely to surprise many and will be of interest to all jurisdictions where the mandatory life sentence for murder has been questioned Criminal and Judicial Statistics Ireland.
