Palmer's Index to the Times Newspaper ... ,1907 Manufacturing Morals Michel Anteby,2024-05-31 Corporate accountability is never far from the front page and as one of the world s most elite business schools Harvard Business School trains many of the future leaders of Fortune 500 companies But how does HBS formally and informally ensure faculty and students embrace proper business standards Relying on his first hand experience as a Harvard Business School faculty member Michel Anteby takes readers inside HBS in order to draw vivid parallels between the socialization of faculty and of students In an era when many organizations are focused on principles of responsibility Harvard Business School has long tried to promote better business standards Anteby s rich account reveals the surprising role of silence and ambiguity in HBS s process of codifying morals and business values As Anteby describes at HBS specifics are often left unspoken for example teaching notes given to faculty provide much guidance on how to teach but are largely silent on what to teach Manufacturing Morals demonstrates how faculty and students are exposed to a system that operates on open ended directives that require significant decision making on the part of those involved with little overt guidance from the hierarchy Anteby suggests that this model which tolerates moral complexity is perhaps one of the few that can adapt and endure over time Manufacturing Morals is a perceptive must read for anyone looking for insight into the moral decision making of today s business leaders and those influenced by and working for them

Pretext for Mass Murder John Roosa,2006-09-05 In the early morning hours of October 1 1965 a group calling itself the September 30th Movement kidnapped and executed six generals of the Indonesian army including its highest commander The group claimed that it was attempting to preempt a coup but it was quickly defeated as the senior surviving general Haji Mohammad Suharto drove the movement s partisans out of Jakarta Riding the crest of mass violence Suharto blamed the Communist Party of Indonesia for masterminding the movement and used the emergency as a pretext for gradually eroding President Sukarno s powers and installing himself as a ruler

Imprisoning and killing hundreds of thousands of alleged communists over the next year Suharto remade the events of October 1 1965 into the central event of modern Indonesian history and the cornerstone of his thirty two year dictatorship Despite its importance as a trigger for one of the twentieth century s worst cases of mass violence the September 30th Movement has remained shrouded in uncertainty Who actually masterminded it What did they hope to achieve Why did they fail so miserably And what was the movement s connection to international Cold War politics In Pretext for Mass Murder John Roosa draws on a wealth of new primary source material to suggest a solution to the mystery behind the movement and the enabling myth of Suharto s repressive regime His book is a remarkable feat of historical investigation Finalist Social Sciences Book Award the International Convention of Asian Scholars Palmer's Index to "The Times" Newspaper ,1929
