Radio Speakers Jim Cox, 2024-10-17 In the days before television radio was the constant voice in American life When radio spoke America listened especially to the men and women who spoke directly to their unseen audience Sometimes formal sometimes as familiar as the friend next door their presence filled the airwaves announcers newscasters sportscasters showbiz reporters advice consultants emcees and breakfast chatterboxes These radio personalities became as popular and familiar as the most public faces of the time Here among profiles of more than 1100 radio speakers are famous names like George Ansbro Red Barber H V Kaltenborn Dorothy Kilgallen Edward R Murrow Louella Parsons Walter Winchell and more Also amply represented are hundreds of lesser known individuals who left indelible auditory impressions Whether their fame was forever or fleeting all were a part of the American voice during the grand epoch of network radio

Radio by the Book Tim DeForest, 2017-02-10 During the first half of the 20th century radio s hunger for captivating characters and stories could not be sated Three national networks and dozens of independent stations had to fill a vast expanse of air time with comedy adventure mystery drama and music night after night. It's no surprise that producers and writers looked to outside sources drawing some of old time radio's most beloved characters Sherlock Holmes Tarzan Hopalong Cassidy Buck Rogers directly from books. This work examines individual characters that jumped from prose to radio and a number of programs that specialized in dramatizing literature. It covers mystery and detective shows adventure stories westerns and science fiction and anthology shows that adapted novels by such greats as Twain Steinbeck and Dickens. The text explores how the writers and producers approached the source material what they changed what they kept and what they left out.
