British Churches Enslaved and Murdered Black Atlantic Slaves: Contextualization and De-Contextualization of British Slave Trade: 17th-19th Century: a Critical Socio-Theological Study DR. R. A. Milwood PhD D.Min., 2014-03-05

British Churches Enslaved and Murdered Black Atlantic Slaves Contextualization De contextualization Marginalization of the Transatlantic Chattel Slave Trade

DR Milwood has written this thesis on Contextualization as a companion to his other two books on African Humanity Shaking Foundations: A Sociological Theological Psychological Study and Western European and British Barbarity: Savagery and Brutality in the Transatlantic Chattel Slave Trade Homologated By The Churches and Intellectuals in the Seventeenth Nineteenth Century. These should be read, says DR Milwood synoptically, in order to fully understand the tremendous impact and significance of the heinous and nefarious slave trade in African bodies. The transatlantic chattel slave trade has shaped the world. The transatlantic chattel slave trade is the singular system/institution that has literally shaped the world economically, industrially, politically, technologically, and theologically. On this foundation, contextualization is supremely significant to the study of the transatlantic chattel slave trade, social history, systematic theology, philosophy of religion, historical history, and theology. The slave trade was not a congenial institution executed by the Royals, Churches, i.e., the ministers of religion, bishops, Archbishops, Intellectuals, theologians, philosophers of religion, Quakers, Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, intellectuals, historians, and scientists. It was rather the most egregious holocaust/genocide in man's chronological history. The slave trade was motivated by profound cultural racism expressed in psychic distance, psychologically, by Britain. It was a nefarious and nefarious brutal system that defied imagination and rationality. DR Milwood has unearthed the historical facts of historical distortions, intellectual suppression, and historical falsification of facts practiced by Britain, who was the pre-eminent protagonist in the brutal and profligate enslaved and murdered Black Atlantic slave trade. Using the study and tools of social history, systematic theology, and historical history, DR Milwood now recognizes how Britain consciously used de-contextualization and marginalization techniques to make recondite the profligate-ness of the horrendous transatlantic chattel slave trade in African bodies. What DR Milwood finds most sardonic is that Britain used semantic cultural Christianity and messed up the biblical and theological concepts of Africans and African descendants. On top of this moral crime, Britain refused consistently to make Reparations to Africa and the Caribbean for crimes against humanity according to International Laws and Moral Christianity DR Milwood therefore has laid the foundation with historical veritable that the crimes committed by Britain demands an un equivocal apology to black people and full Reparations for the nefarious racial avaricious and brutal crimes committed in the name of a white God and the apparition of a Caucasian Jesus Christ as Redeemer of the World without any historical evidence invented by Britain For DR Milwood contextualization is the hermeneutic cadence force and challenge to Britains de contextualization and marginalization of the greatest holocaust genocide crimes committed against Almighty God and humanity according to International Laws Full Reparation from Britain is the only redemption and means for reconciliation and justice Biennial Report of the Commissioner of Agriculture, State of Florida ... Florida. Department of Agriculture,1909 The Highwayman's Ride to York; Or, The Death of Black Bess ,1863 Machinery of Death David R. Dow,Mark Dow,2014-04-08 Thurgood Marshall said that the more people learned about the death penalty the more they d be against it It s racist unfair to poor people and the mentally retarded and far too often ends horribly in the state sanctioned murder of innocents And no one no matter how much they re paid likes to be involved with death itself In Machinery of Death death penalty lawyer David R Dow and writer Mark Dow bring together diverse views from lawyers wardens victims families executioners and inmates to show how America s death penalty system actually works and what it does to those who come in contact with it Arguing that the more we know about the system the more we ll oppose it the book offers harrowing story after story of racist juries and unjust rulings of backward judges and public defenders and of families facing the ultimate decision Together these intimate and shocking writings show that in practice the death penalty is impossible to administer in a fair workable manner This is the first death penalty book to look beyond innocence and morality arguing against executing even the guilty people Machinery of Death is a crucial link in the fiery public debate over the meaning and usefulness of this deeply flawed system The Death Penalty Roger Hood,Carolyn Hoyle,2015-01-08 The fifth edition of this highly praised study charts and explains the progress that continues to be made towards the goal of worldwide abolition of the death penalty The majority of nations have now abolished the death penalty and the number of executions has dropped in almost all countries where abolition has not yet taken place Emphasising the impact of international human rights principles and evidence of abuse the authors examine how this has fuelled challenges to the death penalty and they analyse and appraise the likely obstacles political and cultural to further abolition They discuss the cruel realities of the death penalty and the failure of international standards always to ensure fair trials and to avoid arbitrariness discrimination and conviction of the innocent all violations of the right to life They provide further evidence of the lack of a general deterrent effect shed new light on the influence and limits of public opinion and argue that substituting for the death penalty life imprisonment without parole raises many similar human rights concerns This edition provides a strong intellectual and evidential basis for regarding capital punishment as undeniably cruel inhuman and degrading Widely relied upon and fully updated to reflect the current state of affairs worldwide this is an invaluable resource for all those who study the death penalty and work towards its removal as an international goal New York Magazine ,1989-11-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Homicide Bal K.
