Murder In Memoriam Didier Daeninckx, 2012-10-16 On the evening of October 17 1961 twenty thousand Algerians marched in Paris in defiance of and in protest against a curfew imposed by Maurice Papon chief of the Paris Metropolitan Police The protesters were met with ferocious and uninhibited violence Eleven thousand were arrested more than one thousand injured as many as three hundred were killed many of them thrown into the Seine from which their bodies were later recovered In recreating the scene of the atrocities in Murder in Memoriam his controversial alarum first published in 1984 Didier Daeninckx introduces a fictional observer of the riot Roger Thiraud a middle aged history teacher in a public school only steps from his home and his waiting pregnant wife In the first few minutes of the demonstration he will be assassinated in cold blood by a member of the anti terrorist secret police For nearly forty years after October 1961 France would deny the killings Upon the independence of Algeria in 1962 an amnesty put its perpetrators safely beyond prosecution The records were buried In 1981 Bernard Thiraud Roger s son is researching the archives in Toulouse intent on completing his father s history of his birthplace Drancy now notorious as the site of a detention and transit camp from which Jews were deported to Auschwitz One afternoon after leaving the town hall he too is murdered the victim of what appears to investigating officers to be a professional killing When inspector Cadin of the Toulouse prefecture learns of the unsolved murder of the young man s father he suspects a connection But why would anybody want to kill two bourgeois politically unconnected history teachers Didier Daeninckx has located the link between the two murders in the history that France had yet to confront in its colonial racism and its complicity in genocide Daeninckx made this connection in fiction deliberately provoking its acknowledgment in fact Murder in Memoriam anticipated by more than a decade the shocking revelations provided by the exposure trial and conviction of Maurice Papon the Parisian chief of police in 1961 and the never named villain whose real crimes unrevealed at the time of its first publication haunt this account for crimes against humanity for his part in the administration of the deportation of the Jews from Bordeaux to Auschwitz

Drugging France Sara E. Black,2022-09-15 In the nineteenth century drug consumption permeated French society to produce a new norm the chemical enhancement of modern life French citizens empowered themselves by seeking pharmaceutical relief for their suffering and engaging in self medication Doctors and pharmacists meanwhile fashioned themselves as gatekeepers to these potent drugs claiming that their expertise could shield the public from accidental harm Despite these efforts the unanticipated phenomenon of addiction laid bare both the embodied nature of the modern self and the inherent instability of the notions of individual free will and responsibility Drugging France explores the history of mind altering drugs in medical practice between 1840 and 1920 highlighting the intricate medical histories of opium morphine ether chloroform cocaine and hashish While most drug histories focus on how drugs became regulated and criminalized as dangerous addictive substances Sara Black instead traces the spread of these drugs through French society demonstrating how new therapeutic norms and practices of drug consumption transformed the lives of French citizens as they came to expect and even demand pharmaceutical solutions to their pain Through self experimentation doctors developed new knowledge about these drugs transforming exotic botanical substances and unpredictable chemicals into reliable pharmaceutical commodities that would act on the mind and body to modify pain sensation and consciousness From the pharmacy counter to the boudoir from the courtroom to the operating theatre from the battlefield to the birthing chamber Drugging France explores how everyday encounters with drugs reconfigured how people experienced their own minds and bodies Thoughts on the Death of the King of France William Fox,1793 Alleged Executions Without Trial in France United States.
