Murder, New England M. William Phelps,2012-08-07 Bestselling true crime author M William Phelps star of the new investigative television series Dark Minds takes readers to his own backyard in these eight bloodcurdling murder cases Think New England is all bucolic landscapes and Robert Frost poems Think again In Murder New England Phelps explores different motives themes and community reactions to horrific crimes Murder by Blood The Strange Death of Rebecca Cornwell 1673 Narragansset Bay RI A 73 year old widow burned to death in front of her bedroom fireplace William Beadle Husband Father Murderer 1782 Wethersfield CT A man murders his wife and kids before taking his own life The Angry Man Murder in Manchester 1821 Manchester NH A poor widow killed in her home by a ruffian looking for food and drink Better Off in Heaven John Kemmler Kills His Three Children 1879 Holyoke MA After losing his mill job a man kills his daughters because he fears they will become prostitutes Birth of the Big Seven Gaspere Messina s Mafioso 1917 Boston An ol fashioned Mafia murder tale Electronic Kill Machine Forensic Files Murder 2001 Somerville MA Teenage slackers the show Forensic Files and the murder of a grandmother blamed on TV youth drugs sex money and rock n roll Sings of Life 2006 Lanesborough MA A woman employs the help of her cocaine snorting daughter and Goth son to help her get rid of their step father Sesame Street Murder Death on Big Bird s Estate 2008 Woodstock CT A young woman out for a jog murdered by the groundskeeper of an estate owned by the puppeteer who played Big Bird and Oscar the Grouch Page Two of spread A chilling scene unfolds on the Woodstock Connecticut estate of the Sesame Street puppeteer who played Big Bird and Oscar the Grouch Near the end of the access road was a picnic area with a large pagoda like structure topped by an A framed roof Two paddle boats were stored under the ceiling of the open air building The pagoda had that sacred spiritual look one would expect of a place to relax and meditate Here was a haven separated from the main living space where one could retreat and disconnect from the world What upset the serenity of the scene was the trail of blood It lead from the roadway directly to the pagoda and yet stopped in the center of the ground under the ceiling The paddle boats investigators noticed had blood spatter and smudge marks on them But what did it mean that the trail of blood just stopped As they continued to search troopers looked above them and spied a set of pull down stairs There was a storage area or attic within the pagoda s A frame The blood trail had stopped directly beneath the pull down stairs New England's Hidden Past Dan Landrigan, Leslie Landrigan, 2020-06-15 New England is so compact that even casual visitors can sample its diverse history in just a short time But travelers and residents alike can also pass right by historic buildings landscapes and iconic objects without noticing them New England's Hidden Past presents the region's history in an engaging new way through 58 lists of historic places and things usually hidden in plain sight in all six New England states Pay attention and you'll find stone structures built by Indians soaring churches financed by Franco American millworkers and public high schools started by colonists when New England was still a howling wilderness You may have seen them but you probably don't know the story behind them New England's Hidden Past takes readers to the grave sites of revolutionary heroines Loyalist house museums as well as Revolutionary taverns and colonial inns It takes them to Indian trails the oldest houses historic department stores ghost towns and Little Italys Each unique interesting location or object has a counterpart in the other five New England states A perfect guide to keep in the car and refer to when traveling New England or planning a trip American Homicide Randolph Roth, 2010-02-15 Roth charts changes in the character and incidence of homicide in the U S from colonial times to the present He examines the four factors that explain why homicide rates have gone up and down in the U S and in other Western nations over the past four centuries and why the U S is today the most homicidal affluent nation Murder on Trial Robert Asher, Lawrence B. Goodheart, Alan Rogers, 2005-03-29 A historical romp through the fascinating subject of murder jurisprudence in the United States from the colonial period to the present showing how changing social mores have influenced the application of murder law Domestic Tyranny Elizabeth Hafkin Pleck, 2004 Elizabeth Pleck's Domestic Tyranny chronicles the rise and demise of legal political and medical campaigns against domestic violence from colonial times to the present Based on in depth research into court records newspaper accounts and autobiographies this book argues that the single most consistent barrier to reform against domestic violence has been the Family Ideal that is ideas about family privacy conjugal and parental rights and family stability This edition features a new introduction surveying the multinational and cultural themes now present in recent historical writing about family violence Life and Death Decisions Sheldon Ekland-Olson, 2013 This book discusses the American euthanasia movement debates over the boundaries between abortion and infanticide hastened death and euthanasia tolerable and intolerable suffering suicide and refusal of medical treatment and lynching and capital punishment Homicide, North and South Horace V. Redfield, 2000 While H V Redfield was not the first person to note the elevated amount of interpersonal violence in Southern and border states Homicide North and South was the first book to investigate regional differences in murder systematically by discussing counts and rates from different states and the two major regions side by side It appears to be the first book to draw on newspaper clippings to document homicide rates quantitatively and it certainly was the first work to do so in a systematic comparative fashion Redfield was the first person to use multiple data sources both news clippings and from those states that collected and published them mortality or criminal statistics Where possible he compared such records with one another to establish their joint reliability

Death, Dying and the Ending of Life, Volumes I and II Leslie P. Francis, 2019-01-15 The two volumes of Death Dying and the Ending of Life present the core of recent philosophical work on end of life issues Volume I examines issues in death and consent the nature of death brain death and the uses of the dead and decision making at the end of life including the use of advance directives and decision making about the continuation discontinuation or futility of treatment for competent and incompetent patients and children Volume II on justice and hastening death examines whether there is a difference between killing and letting die issues about physician assisted suicide and euthanasia and questions about distributive justice and decisions about life and death

Murder Most Foul Karen HALTTUNEN, 2009-06-30 Karen Halttunen explores the changing view of murder from early New England sermons read at the public execution of murderers through the nineteenth century when secular and sensational accounts replaced the sacred treatment of the crime to today's true crime literature and tabloid reports

Sexual Homicide John E. Douglas, Ann W. Burgess, Robert K. Ressler, 2008-06-30 Who are the men committing the rising number of serial homicides in the U S and why do they kill The increase in these violent crimes over the past decade has created an urgent need for more and better information about these men their crime scene patterns violent acts and above all their motivations for committing these shocking and repetitive murders This authoritative book represents the data findings and implications of a long term F B I sponsored study of serial sex killers Specially trained F B I agents examined thirty six convicted incarcerated sexual murderers to build a valuable new bank of information which reveals the world of the serial sexual killer in both quantitative and qualitative detail Data was obtained from official psychiatric and criminal records court transcripts and prison reports as well as from extensive interviews with the offenders themselves Featured in this book is detailed information on the F B I's recently developed Violent Criminal Apprehension Program VICAP and a sample of an actual VICAP Crime Analysis Report Form

Assisted Suicide Lois Snyder, Arthur L. Caplan, 2002 There is no constitutional right to physician assisted suicide says the U S Supreme Court Most states have laws against it but states can also allow it as Oregon has done others are considering legalization Still very little guidance has been offered about its practice Assisted Suicide Finding Common Ground fills that void A diverse group of experts some for some against provide a framework for thinking about what assisted suicide particularly physician assisted suicide is and how its legalized practice might be guided The book does not take a position on the continuing debate about the morality or wisdom of legalizing assisted suicide But physician assisted suicide is now taking place and the more pressing concerns are those pertaining to its implementation Editors Lois Snyder and Art Caplan attempt to find common ground on those real world concerns Among the questions asked and answered are What is assisted suicide Is physician assisted suicide different from refusal of treatment Are there alternatives to assisted suicide How useful are currently available guidelines for physician assisted suicide Who should have access to what Does assisted suicide necessarily mean physician assisted suicide Can the practice be effectively and meaningfully regulated How should physicians respond to requests for assisted suicide Assisted suicide is one of the most ethically challenging issues in medicine and bioethics defining who we are and want to be as individuals and as a society This book takes a hard look at alternatives to the practice the implications for the patient physician relationship who should write guidelines and how to regulate physician assisted suicide and establish safeguards so that it is voluntary and an option of last resort

Women and Capital Punishment in the United States David V. Baker, 2015-12-07 The history of the execution of women in the United States has largely been ignored and scholars have given scant attention to gender issues in capital punishment This historical analysis examines the social political and economic contexts in which the justice system has put women to death revealing a pattern of patriarchal domination and female subordination The book includes a discussion of condemned women granted executive clemency and judicial commutations an inquiry into women falsely convicted in potentially capital cases and a profile of the current female death row population Women, Murder and Femininity L.

Seal, 2010-10-20 Women who kill rupture our assumptions about what a woman is This book explores different socio cultural understandings of women who commit or are accused of murder A wide range of cases are discussed in order to highlight the ways in which such women have been perceived and how such cases reflect important social and cultural shifts A Centre
