Murder In Port Afrique:

Murder in Port Afrique Bernard Victor Dryer, 1949      The Christopher Lee Filmography Tom Johnson, Mark A. Miller, 2016-05-01 The career of Christopher Lee has stretched over half a century in every sort of film from comedy to horror and in such diverse roles as the Man With the Golden Gun, Frankenstein's monster, Fu Manchu and Sherlock Holmes. From Corridor of Mirrors in 1948 to Star Wars Episode II: Attack of the Clones in 2002, this reference book covers 166 theatrical feature films, all production information, full cast and crew credits, a synopsis and a critical analysis with a detailed account of its making and commentary drawn from some thirty hours of interviews with Lee himself. Two appendices list Lee's television feature films and miniseries and his short films. The work concludes with an afterword by Christopher Lee himself. Photographs from the actor's private collection are included.      Cumulative Paperback Index, 1939-1959 R. Reginald, 2009-12-01 This was the first bibliography and guide to the American mass market paperback book, and it remains one of the most definitive. The major index is by author and lists author, title, publisher, book number, year of publication, and cover price. The title index lists titles and authors only. The publisher index provides a history of that imprint with addresses, number ranges, and general physical description of the books issued. This is the place that all study of the American paperback must begin.      Crime Fiction, 1749-1980 Allen J. Hubin, 1984      Pier Angeli Jane Allen, 2015-09-16 In Pier Angeli, a nineteen-year-old Italian girl, Hollywood has found an actress who eludes the town's traditional classifications and whose unvarnished beauty and instinctive talent have already caused her to be called Little Garbo. Theodore Strauss in Collier's (April 1952) This work is the first full-length biography of actress Anna Maria Pierangeli from her early life in Italy to her death at the age of 39. She was discovered by Vittorio De Sica and soon after starred in her first film, Domani e troppo tardi (Tomorrow Is Too Late), which began her meteoric rise to fame in Italy. She arrived in Hollywood in 1950 at the age of 18, and the first thing MGM did was change her name to Pier Angeli and predict great things for its newest actress. The book covers her seven-year career with MGM, her two unhappy marriages to Vic Damone and Armando Trovajoli, her love for her children Perry and Andrew, her brief and stormy relationship with James Dean, her dependent relationships with her mother and such stars as Kirk Douglas, Richard Attenborough, and Debbie Reynolds, and the mystery surrounding her death.      The Christopher Lee Film Encyclopedia Robert W. Pohle Jr., Douglas C. Hart, Rita Pohle Baldwin, 2017-05-09 In a career that spanned eight decades, Christopher Lee (1922-2015) appeared in more than 200 roles for film and television. Though he is best known for his portrayal of Dracula in films of the 1950s, 60s, and 70s, as well as his appearances in the Lord of the Rings trilogy, Lee also appeared in many other films, including The Three Musketeers, The Man with the Golden Gun, and Star Wars. The Christopher Lee Film Encyclopedia encompasses all of the films in the distinguished actor's prolific career, from his early roles in the 1940s to his work in some of the most successful film franchises of all time. This reference highlights Lee's iconic roles in horror cinema, as well as his non-horror films over the years, including The Lord of the Rings and The Hobbit trilogies.

represent the fluid and variable nature of conflict systems today and are at the heart of some of Africa's most enduring conflicts. Moreover, the inability of African states to contain the threat of extremism or of heavy handed security responses has led to the loss of thousands of lives, displaced millions and deeply impacted the continent's democratisation and development goals. This is the second anthology published by Good Governance Africa (GGA) on the topic of extremism and political violence in Africa. Extremisms in Africa, one of the first anthologies of its kind on this topic to be authored and published on the African continent, provided an account of how extremist groups arose in Africa and the various ways in which they have harnessed their global agendas to local conflict dynamics and structural challenges, enabling them to exploit the grievances of individuals and communities for their cause. This anthology, Extremisms in Africa Volume 2, looks forward, giving special attention to the ways in which emergent trends in global geopolitics and conflict dynamics merge to impact upon the African continent. To this end, we have sought to engage diverse topics ranging from ecological concerns surrounding climate change and migration, the implications of such human movement for modern day trafficking and slavery, and the roles of women and youth. State responses to extremism on the African continent are not uniform; the capacity of individual states to detect, identify, police, investigate and prosecute is highly variable. At the most fundamental level, extremism is ripe to arise in contexts where governments are failing, especially when democracy is on the wane. This anthology identifies some of the most pressing challenges in addressing extremism today and provides chapters that could offer actionable policy insights to governments and civil society. Given the nature of Africa's geopolitical landscape, state and security services alone cannot prevent extremism. It will take a whole of society approach where government, civil society, academia, communities, families and individuals collaborate to better understand the local dynamics of recruitment and radicalisation and develop context specific strategies in response. This anthology will hopefully provide practitioners with improved insight into some of the key challenges and potential solutions in preventing extremism, while also being of interest to the general reader.
