The Fifteen William Geroux, 2025-03-18 The revelatory true story of the long forgotten POW camps for German soldiers erected in hundreds of small U S towns during World War II and the secret Nazi killings that ensnared fifteen brave American POWs in a high stakes showdown In the pantheon of American history it's very hard to find compelling original stories and even harder to find authors worthy of them In The Fifteen William Geroux delivers the goods John U Bacon New York Times bestselling author of The Great Halifax Explosion The American government was faced with an unprecedented challenge where to house the nearly 400 000 German prisoners of war plucked from the battlefield and shipped across the Atlantic On orders from President Franklin D Roosevelt the Department of War hastily built hundreds of POW camps in the United States Today traces of those camps which once dotted the landscape from Maine to California have all but vanished Forgotten too is the grisly series of killings that took place within them Nazi power games playing out in the heart of the United States Protected by the Geneva Convention German POWs were well fed and housed Many worked on American farms and a few would even go on to marry farmers daughters Ardent Nazis in the camps however took a dim view of fellow Germans who befriended their captors Soon the killings began In camp after camp Nazis attacked fellow Germans they deemed disloyal Fifteen were sentenced to death by secret U S military tribunals for acts of murder In response German authorities condemned fifteen American POWs to the same fate and in the waning days of the war Germany proposed an audacious trade fifteen German lives for fifteen American lives Drawing on extensive research journalist and author William Geroux shines a spotlight on this story of murder and high stakes diplomacy and on the fifteen American lives that hung in the balance from a fearless P 51 Mustang fighter pilot to a hot tempered lieutenant colonel nicknamed King Kong Propulsive and vividly rendered The Fifteen reminds us that what happens to soldiers after they exit the battlefield can be just as harrowing as what they experience on it

Murder in Notting Hill Mark Olden, 2011-11-16 The truth about one of Britain's most infamous race murders has never been revealed At around midnight on May 17 1959 a white gang ambushed 32 year old Antiguan carpenter Kelso Cochrane on a Notting Hill slum street After a brief scuffle one of them plunged a knife into his heart The impact was as profound as the aftershock of Stephen Lawrence's murder more than forty years later The previous summer Notting Hill had been convulsed by race riots The fascists Sir Oswald Mosley and Colin Jordan were agitating in the area So the news of an innocent black man stabbed in west London reverberated from Whitehall to the Caribbean And when the police failed to catch the killer many black people believed it would have been different if the victim had been white Murder in Notting Hill is a tale of crumbling tenements transformed into a millionaires playground of the district's fading white working class and of a veil finally being lifted on the past Part whodunnit part social history it reveals startling new evidence about the murder

Volume 2 does what it says on the can it continues from where the first volume left off It looks at the bloody years of 1978 and 1979 It covers eyewitness accounts from soldiers on the ground and there is the occasional comment from civilians who were living in the troubled province at the time There are accounts from the IRA atrocity at the la Mon Restaurant when the terrorists used a napalm like device to incinerate 12 innocent civilians it includes the murder of Lord Mountbatten hero of Burma and some of his family and staff on his yacht in Co Sligo It also covers the worst tragedy for the Army in Ulster the murder of 18 soldiers at Warrenpoint Every single troubles related death and every major incident is covered and includes those soldiers who died in non battle incidents the ones who are not included in the official figures The book pulls no punches and the author is outspoken in his criticism of the Irish American community and their incredibly naive support of the Republican terrorists who almost destroyed an entire country The author condemns in equal measure the paramilitaries of both sides and considers the evil activities of Lenny Murphy and the Shankill Butchers as bad as anything which the Provisional IRA or INLA did The book looks at individual incidents and tries to examine the terrorist mindset and their motives for the atrocities which they carried out in the name of their communities

It supports the security forces unequivocally but renders criticism where appropriate The book examines the role of the young soldiers from Leeds Liverpool Manchester indeed from every part of the UK from which these young men came It looks at foot patrols riot control and the daily fear and threat under which they operated for their four month or two year tours Read carefully the words of an Irish American who clearly is contemptuous of the way her fellow Americans almost sleepwalked into supporting the IRA from afar with the dollars which they placed so willingly into the NORAD collection jars The level of detail and research the author goes into is phenomenal and demonstrates his commitment to continue telling the story of one of Britain's forgotten wars

Murder in the Name of Honour Rana Husseini, 2009-05-01 Murder in the Name of Honour is Rana Husseini's hard hitting and controversial examination of honour crimes Common in many traditional societies around the world as well as in migrant communities in Europe and the USA they involve a punishment often death or disfigurement carried out by a relative to restore the family's honour Breaking through the conspiracy of silence surrounding this crime one writer above all others has been instrumental in bringing it to the world's attention Rana Husseini

Spitfire Pilot Air Commodore Geoffrey Stephenson John Shields, 2024-11-30 Under cloudless blue skies the Oakwood Cemetery Annex in Montgomery Alabama hosts the largest Commonwealth War Graves Commission cemetery in the United States Most of the graves contain young RAF trainee pilots killed during their flying training at nearby Maxwell and Gunter airfields during the Second World War However there is another grave located at the edge of the plot not from the early 1940s but from 1954 The grave marks the final resting place of a 44 year old senior RAF officer Air Commodore Geoffrey Stephenson CBE It begs the questions who was he and why is he buried there This book sets out to answer both these questions As a result this is the remarkable story of not only Stephenson's life but the people planes and places that would leave an indelible mark on a seasoned fighter pilot After growing up in Lincolnshire and Ireland 18 year old Stephenson joined the RAF in 1928 alongside Douglas Bader who would become a life long friend After leaving Cranwell the pair both joined 23 Squadron In the 1930s Stephenson rose through the ranks to command 19 Squadron a Duxford based Spitfire unit that would see his baptism of fire over Dunkirk in late May 1940 Following the downing of a Junkers Ju 87 Stuka Stephenson was himself shot down and crash landed on the beach at Sangatte After a brief period on the run in France and Belgium Stephenson was taken into captivity spending the next five years as a prisoner of war ending up at the iconic Colditz Castle where ironically he was reunited with his old friend Bader Upon his release in April 1945 Stephenson quickly resumed his RAF career commanding instructing and flying the latest jet fighters both at home and overseas He was aide de camp to two monarchs including escorting a young Queen Elizabeth II during her 1953 Coronation Review However his already eventful career would take a tragic turn In 1954 Stephenson flew to the United States to review their latest acquisitions which included a flight in the supersonic F 100 Super Sabre It would be his last flight Nevertheless Stephenson's legacy lives on at his former base at Duxford in the guise of the Imperial War Museum's immaculately restored Spitfire Mk I N3200 This was the very aircraft in which he force landed on 26

May 1940 Recovered from the French beach N3200 was painstakingly rebuilt and returned to flying condition Today N3200 is often referred to as a National Treasure This is the biography of a remarkable pilot husband and father revealing the planes he flew the places he visited and the incredible people he met along the way Germany and the Second World War Volume IX/II Jörg Echternkamp,2014-03 Volume IX II of this series draws on a range of historical sources to explore the effect that the Second World War had on the people of Germany whether they were practically involved in the war effort or struggling to maintain a normal existence The Chronicle of Arnold of Lübeck Graham Loud,2019-03-04 The chronicle of Arnold Abbot of the monastery of St John of Lübeck is one of the most important sources for the history of Germany in the central Middle Ages and is also probably the major source for German involvement in the Crusades The work was intended as a continuation of the earlier chronicle of Helmold of Bosau and covers the years 1172 1209 in seven books It was completed soon after the latter date and the author died not long afterwards and no later than 1214 It is thus a strictly contemporary work which greatly enhances its value Abbot Arnold's very readable chronicle provides a fascinating glimpse into German society in the time of the Emperor Frederick Barbarossa and his immediate successors into a crucial period of the Crusading movement and also into the religious mentality of the Middle Ages Behind Barbed Wire Alexander Mikaberidze,2018-11-26 An indispensable reference on concentration camps death camps prisoner of war camps and military prisons offering broad historical coverage as well as detailed analysis of the nature of captivity in modern conflict This comprehensive reference work examines internment forced labor and extermination during times of war and genocide with a focus on the 20th and 21st centuries and particular attention paid to World War II and recent conflicts in the Middle East It explores internment as it has been used as a weapon and led to crimes against humanity and is ideal for students of global studies history and political science as well as politically and socially aware general readers In addition to entries on such notorious camps as Abu Ghraib Andersonville Auschwitz and the Hanoi Hilton the encyclopedia includes profiles of key perpetrators of camp and prison atrocities and more than a dozen curated and contextualized primary source documents that further illuminate the subject Primary sources include United Nations documents outlining the treatment of prisoners of war government reports of infamous camp and prison atrocities and oral histories from survivors of these notorious facilities
