and warm The fast pace of LA had already taken its toll Their trip to Universal Studios was exhilarating yet exhausting Oh those gunfights they are so real These Americans are so clever thought the Pflegers But Klaus and Gisela needed to get away from the assault of LA if only just for a day Birte had classes to attend She pondered skipping to be with her parents but was so close to graduation Birte recalled a peaceful and tranquil place she had visited it would be perfect for them Birte had provided detailed directions so that her parents would not get lost Though only an hour drive to the east of LA the tiny spot near Idyllwild seemed like an escape to another world Her parents would feel much at home in the forest There they could relax Klaus and Gisela admired the many plants and flowers in bloom They had never seen plants like this back in Germany or in any other place they had traveled for that matter As they explored the Indian Vista Viewpoint and soaked in the sights both Gisela and Klaus were oblivious to the danger closing in on them They were not from here and had not been schooled in Street Survival 101 Without warning suddenly everything changed forever Gisela lay dead in a pool of blood while Klaus staggered about mortally wounded He had to get Gisela help How could they have gotten so lost So begins the harrowing account of how an unimposing elderly couple from Germany would become the victims of a horrific crime a crime that with the arrival of the mornings papers and the evening news would shock a nation and the world Maneuvering in and out of consciousness Klaus desperately sought help for his wife Nestled in the valley below Detective Sergeant Ross Koepp was winding down preparing to take a much needed vacation Sergeant Koepp and his crew of detectives had been for as long as one could remember working in overdrive with no off ramp in sight The anticipated break was as much deserved as it was needed With the events unfolding in the nearby forest their plans would yet again be put on hold Though in full swing
