Murder by Magic (Sonoma Witches #5) (Witch Cozy Mystery, Urban Fantasy) Gretchen Galway, 2021-09-16 I should've known the birthday party for a 113 year old witch wasn't going to be all cake and games Especially with so many other witches around and that scary magic wand I'd been desperate for a vacation from the rain on the California coast But instead of snow and cocoa in a cozy mountain cabin I got a dead body And the murder weapon wasn't a candlestick in the billiard room Looks like it's up to me again My one friend is a Bright witch but not much of a fighter I used to think I too was harmless but the enchanted marks on my skin tell a different story

 My moral code prevents me from killing anyone but somehow my enemies tend to end up dead Trapped in the spellbound

 the mental structures of that time While some papers examine the specific appearance of magicians in literary texts others

A Motif-Index of Traditional Polynesian Narratives Bacil F. Kirtley, 2019-09-30 This reference work analyzes and classifies the story themes of Polynesian myths tales and legends according to an internationally employed system developed by Stith Thompson in his Motif Index of Folk Literature 1955 1958 Thousands of tales including those from almost all of the major original collections from the Polynesian area have been examined and their thematic contents cataloged in this work In his introduction the author explains the concept of the motif as a basis for cataloging He quotes from Professor Thompson s definition of a motif the smallest element in a tale having the power to persist in tradition for example gods marvelous creatures magic objects and certain kinds of incidents The author believes the function of an index of motifs is to cite bibliographical sources of narratives containing these viable often irreducible story elements and thus to provide the investigator of specific story ideas with comparative Information The present work is an attempt to survey thoroughly the totality of Polynesian oral tradition and to indicate the distribution and relationships of narrative materials Not since the publication of Roland B Dixon s work on Oceanic mythology in 1916 has this been attempted This index will be an invaluable reference tool for anyone doing research in Oceanic ethnology and folklore Folktales of the Jews, Volume 1 Dov Noy, Dan

Ben-Amos, Ellen Frankel, 2006-09-03 Tales from the Sephardic Dispersion begins the most important collection of Jewish folktales ever published. It is the first volume in the five volume series to be released over the next several years in the tradition of Louis Ginzberg's classic Legends of the Jews. The 71 tales here and the others in this series have been selected from the Israel Folktale Archives Named in Honor of Dov Noy. The University of Haifa IFA, a treasure house of Jewish lore that has remained largely unavailable to the entire world until now. Since the creation of the State of Israel, the IFA has collected more than 20,000 tales from newly arrived immigrants, long lost stories shared by their families from around the world. The tales come from the major ethno-linguistic communities of the Jewish world and are representative of a wide variety of subjects and motifs, especially rich in Jewish content and context. Each of the tales is accompanied by in-depth commentary that explains the tale's cultural, historical, and literary background and its similarity to other tales in the IFA collection and extensive scholarly notes. There is also an introduction that describes the Sephardic culture and its folk narrative tradition, a world map of the areas covered, illustrations, biographies of the collectors and narrators, tale type and motif indexes, a subject index, and a comprehensive bibliography. Until the establishment of the IFA, we had had only limited access to the wide range of Jewish folk narratives. Even in Israel, the gathering place of the most wide-ranging cross-section of world Jewry, these folktales have remained largely unknown. Many of the communities no longer exist as cohesive societies in their representative lands; the Holocaust, migration, and changes in living styles have made the continuation of these tales impossible. This volume and the others to come will be monuments to a rich but vanishing oral tradition.

Witchcraft and Magic in Europe Valerie Irene Jane Flint, 1999 Witchcraft and Magic in Europe, Volume 2 Bengt Ankarloo, Stuart Clark, 1999-10-14 Topics include binding spells, curse tablets, and the demonization of magic and sorcery by Christianity.

Radio Drama Martin Grams, Jr., 2024-10-16 The free-standing radios of the middle decades of the 20th century were invitingly rotund and proudly displayed, nothing like today's skinny televisions hidden inside entertainment centers. Radios were the hub of the family's after-dinner activities, and children and adults gorged themselves on western adventure series like The Lone Ranger, police dramas such as Calling All Cars, and the varied offerings of The Cavalcade of America. Shows often aired two or three times a week, and many programs were broadcast for more than a decade, comprising hundreds of episodes. This book includes more than 300 program logs, many appearing in print for the first time, drawn from newspapers, script files, in broadcast museums, records from NBC, ABC, and CBS, and the personal records of series directors. Each entry contains a short broadcast history that includes directors, writers, and actors, and the broadcast dates and airtimes. A comprehensive index rounds out the work.
