Particularities Collected Essays On Ethnography And Education:

Particularities George W. Noblit, 1999 Countering the trend in qualitative educational research to fixate on theory and method Noblit social foundations of education U of North Carolina Chapel Hill presents reflections on ethnography per se and five applied studies on education and race No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Unsettling Beliefs Josh Diem, Robert J. Helfenbein, 2008-03-01 This volume explores issues involved with teaching social theory to preservice teachers pursuing degrees through teacher education programs and experienced teachers and administrators pursuing graduate degrees The contributors detail their experiences teaching theoretical perspectives regarding race gender ethnicity sexuality power and the construction of schools as an institution of the state The editors and contributors hope to offer the beginning of a collegial dialogue within the field of education both inside and outside the academy about the relevance and pedagogical issues associated with such material Additionally the contributors offer advice on missteps to avoid and provide success stories that give hope to those who also wish to engage in the practice of teaching theory to teachers

Autoethnography Sherick A. Hughes, Julie L. Pennington, 2016-10-21 Autoethnography Process Product and Possibility for Critical Social Research by Sherick A Hughes and Julie L Pennington provides a short introduction to the methodological tools and concepts of autoethnography combining theoretical approaches with practical how to information Written for social science students teachers teacher educators and educational researchers the text shows readers how autoethnographers collect analyze and report data With its grounding in critical social theory and inclusion of innovative methods this practical resource will move the field of autoethnography forward

We Can Speak for Ourselves Billye Sankofa Waters, 2015-12-17 This work is an intervention of self representation that explores experiences of five Black mothers of the same Chicago elementary school with respect to their relationship with the author a qualitative researcher over a period of two years Black feminist epistemology is the framework that directed this project fieldwork and interpretation of the findings Additionally this work employs tools of poetry counternarratives and critical ethnography Billye Sankofa Waters reiterates the plaintive lament of the mothers of 1970s Boston when they said When we fight about education we re fighting for our lives This story of parents in Chicago is powerful poignant and oh so familiar This is a must read Gloria Ladson Billings Kellner Family Distinguished Chair in Urban Education University of Wisconsin Madison the ways that Black mothers come to know and participate in their children s education We Can Speak for Ourselves plumbs Black feminist epistemology and critical theory to create a new model that reimagines the critical terrain of both public and private African American female motherwork It is intersectionally deft in how it attends to both structural issues of inequality and intragroup negotiation of identity This book is bold well researched and an important contribution to the fields of Education Sociology Women s and Gender Studies and Public Policy Michele T Berger University of North Carolina Chapel Hill author of Workable Sisterhood The Political Journey of Stigmatized Women with HIV AIDS and co author of Transforming

Scholarship Why Women s and Gender Studies Students Are Changing Themselves and the World We Can Speak for Ourselves is a necessary read for everyone especially Black mothers who are on the front lines of the Black Lives Matter Movement After all the movement at its core is about resisting the anti Black society in which Black mothers are forced to raise their children Sankofa Waters beautifully blends personal writings counternarratives and the voices of five Black mothers to create a book that gives us new language to address the issues impacting Black families and Black survival Through this work Sankofa Waters expertly depicts the struggles of Black mothers as organic intellectuals deconstructing critiquing and navigating the power structures that oppress their sons daughters and Black communities at large Bettina L Love University of Georgia Board Chair of The Kindezi School in Atlanta Georgia 2016 Nasir Jones Fellow at the W E B Du Bois Research Institute at Harvard University and author of Hip Hop s Li l Sistas Speak Negotiating Hip Hop Identities and Politics in the New South The Social, Cultural, and Political Discourses of Autism Jessica Nina Lester,Michelle O'Reilly,2021-11-13 Taking up a social constructionist position this book illustrates the social and cultural construction of autism as made visible in everyday educational institutional and historical discourses alongside a careful consideration of the bodily and material realities of embodied differences The authors highlight the economic consequences of a disabling culture and explore how autism fits within broader arguments related to normality abnormality and stigma To do this they provide a theoretically and historically grounded discussion of autism one designed to layer and complicate the discussions that surround autism and disability in schools health clinics and society writ large In addition they locate this discussion across two contexts the US and the UK and draw upon empirical examples to illustrate the key points Located at the intersection of critical disability studies and discourse studies the book offers a critical reframing of autism and childhood mental health disorders more generally The Palgrave Handbook of Child Mental Health Jessica Nina Lester,Michelle O'Reilly,2015-12-17 A landmark publication in the field this state of the art reference work includes contributions from leading thinkers across a range of disciplines on topics including ADHD autism depression eating disorders and trauma It is an essential resource for all those involved or interested in child mental health Oh, Do I Remember! Anna Victoria Wilson,William E. Segall,2001-07-19 The story of one city s experience with school desegregation as seen through the eyes of the teachers who lived it School Desegregation George W. Noblit,2015-03-17 This book is written for the Millennial Generation to educate them about what school desegregation was actually about the struggle over white domination in the United States The textbooks they read as high school students describe the heroic efforts of African Americans to achieve civil rights but do not describe who was denying them these rights white Americans The oral histories in this book reveal how individuals navigated efforts to achieve educational equity amidst efforts to reassert white domination These accounts counter the textbook history the Millennial Generation read which omits the massive white resistance to school desegregation the various ways whites used subterfuge to slow down and redirect school desegregation in what would more benefit whites and the concerted white political backlash that has been ensconced in educational policy and reform beginning with A Nation at Risk and continuing in No Child Left Behind That is educational policy as we know it is all about asserting white domination and not about educating children and thus the Millennial Generation is faced with undoing what their parents and grandparents have done

Handbook of Interview Research Jaber F. Gubrium, James A. Holstein, 2002 The Handbook of Interview Research is the most ambitious attempt yet at examining the place of the interview in contemporary society Interviewing is the predominant mode of research in the social sciences It s also the stock in trade of information seekers in organizations and institutions of all kinds as well as in the mass media Across the board interviews provide today s leading window on the world of experience The Handbook offers a comprehensive examination of the interview at the cutting edge of information technology Drawing upon leading experts from a wide range of professional disciplines this book addresses conceptual and technical challenges that confront both academic researchers and interviewers with more applied goals From interview theory to the nuts and bolts of the interview process the coverage is impressively broad and authoritative The Handbook of Interview Research is both encyclopedic and thematic As an encyclopedia it provides extensive discussions of the methodological issues now surrounding interview practice offering a multi faceted assessment of what has become the method of choice for obtaining personal information in today s society But the Handbook also is a story which spins a particular tale of interviewing one that moves from the commonly recognized individual interview to what is called the interview society The gist of the presentation is that we can no longer regard the interview as simply an instrument for gathering data but must now also view it an integral part of society

Evolutions in Critical and Postcritical Ethnography Allison Daniel Anders, George W. Noblit, 2024-07-11 Moving beyond traditional critical ethnography postcritical ethnographies accept as a key premise that studies which are critical of the social world must also turn critique back on the ethnographer the study and its process The book includes an introduction to the evolutions of critical ethnography and postcritical ethnography and exemplar chapters from contributors who engaged in long term ethnographic studies Accompanying each chapter is an introductory preface and margin notes created by the editors to underscore the methodological moves made by each author Addressing the distinct orientations critical and postcritical ethnographies take the book illuminates how different authors think enact and represent their critical and postcritical post critical work In this way the book is pedagogical within and across each chapter Each contributor has produced a chapter that includes a brief summary of their respective long term inquiry project with emphases on relation in the being doing and theorizing of qualitative research Contributors discuss their navigation of commitments across the arc of their research and engage critical social theory interrogating issues of power and ideology Each chapter includes retrospective analytical reflections on the long term ethnographic work contributors completed The chapters address interpretivist commitments to emic analyses metaphor and representation and each contributor s personal and professional commitments to equity and justice The chapters engage critical social theories crip horizons critical race theory and queer theory as well as critical and queer pedagogies de colonialism and post humanism A summary chapter addresses key issues in contemporary postcritical post critical qualitative research The book is designed to prepare novice qualitative researchers to craft conduct and represent postcritical post critical qualitative research The book provides guidance for researchers who are interested in social critique equity and justice and who seek to avoid the failures in the last quarter of the 20th Century of critical ethnography
