The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo

Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom

Jewish Theology and Process Thought Sandra B. Lubarsky, David Ray Griffin, 2012-02-01 This collection constitutes the first extended discussion of the relationship between Judaism and process thought In the last half century the philosophies of Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne have become important sources for contemporary theological reflection Recently a number of Jewish thinkers have examined process thought as a potentially valuable resource for postmodern Jewish theology This book brings together many Jewish thinkers who have pioneered this discussion Jewish thinkers who have found process thought to be a useful framework for contemporary Jewish thought discuss issues that are primarily theological such as God's transcendence and immanence the problem of evil the idea of revelation Also included is a dialogue between Jewish and Christian thinkers on the appropriateness of process thought for their religious traditions Critical reflection on the continuities and discontinuities between Judaism and the process model is also covered

Modern Christian Thought: The twentieth century James C. Livingston, Francis Schüssler Fiorenza, This widely acclaimed introduction to modern Christian thought formerly published by Prentice Hall provides full scholarly accounts of the major movements and thinkers theologians and philosophers in the Christian tradition since the eighteenth century Enlightenment together with solid historical background and critical assessments This second edition deals with the entire modern period in both Europe and America and is the first to include extensive treatment of modern Catholic thinkers Evangelical thought and Black and Womanist theology

Panentheism--The Other God of the Philosophers John W. Cooper, 2006-11-01 Panentheism has gained popularity among contemporary thinkers This belief system explains that all is in God as a soul is related to a body so God is related to the world In Panentheism The Other God of the Philosophers philosopher and theologian John Cooper traces the growth and evolution of this intricate theology from Plotinus to Alfred North Whitehead to the present This landmark book the first complete history of panentheism written in English explores the subject through the lens of various thinkers such as Plato Jürgen Moltmann Paul Tillich Wolfhart Pannenberg and Charles Hartshorne and discusses how panentheism has influenced liberation feminist and ecological theologies Cooper not only sketches the evolution of panentheism but also critiques it ultimately he offers a defense of classical theism This book is for readers who care deeply about theology and think seriously about their faith

Mormonism in Dialogue with Contemporary Christian Theologies David Lamont Paulsen, Donald W. Musser, 2007 This volume brings together for the first time a broad range of scholars from Mormon and other Christian traditions Replacing polemics and apologetics with dialogue these exchanges show how the full spectrum of contemporary theologies can be informed by uniquely Mormon ideas and correlatively how Mormon thought can be illuminated through the study of key ideas of the foremost theologians of the twentieth and twenty first centuries

The Love of God John C. Peckham, 2015-07-28 Theology has constantly wrestled with the nature of God's love and what it means for how God relates to the world In this comprehensive canonical theology of divine love John C Peckham argues for an account that avoids the errors of both voluntarist and experientialist theologies and faithfully represents the full biblical witness

The Passion of God Warren McWilliams, 1985-06

The Beauty of Balance Young Woon Ko, 2009-12-22 These essays examine the significance of balance between the opposites in order to understand God and the world The author argues that opposites the subject and object mind and nature good and evil truth and falsehood are not separated from each other but interdependent in the relational paradigm Each cannot exist without the other Creative advancement is achieved by their dynamic tensions The paradoxical relationship between the opposites is not posited in the mechanistic model in which opposites are recognized as separate entities and thereby antagonists rather they are dialectical and creative in the organic model Based on this organic model the relationship between God and the world is not hierarchical but interdependent In the organic model God is not described simply as a transcendent reality in a dualistic structure of God and the world God reveals God self in harmonious order and pattern as the ultimate principle formed in the world In other words God reveals God self in the relative contexts of the opposites good and evil true and false Unlike Aristotle's Law of Contrast God is both A transcendent and A immanent which is the basic logic of the organic model In this context God is different from eternal reality such as Plato's Idea or the transcendent God developed in the Western tradition In this text the author explores how the complex of divine reality entails the dialogue of differences in a constructive way using inter religious dialogue and religion nature dialogue as examples The author also brings the theme of paradox into his discussion to connect the West with the East and explore how it can be a positive method of understanding God and the world in the organic model which can in turn be a key to the understanding of
