Deschambeault,2017-08-04 In 1961 a small town WASP girl strives to protect her unborn baby and her honor in a conflict between her abusive sea captain father and her ambitious young lover who is determined to become a writer When Ann becomes pregnant nothing is clearer than that she cannot turn to her family She hides with Joseph in his university town and then in Puerto Rico they pretend to be married Tasting the sweetness of young life together they struggle with visions of a future as parents that would accommodate Joseph's aspiration to succeed. The task is too great; questions of character, capacity for love and tolerance, and readiness for parenthood remain unanswered. Unable to reconcile family attitudes and their own differences and to take what they know to be the honorable course, they see changes come about in themselves caused by guilt and resentment. Joseph must make his way alone. Ann releases their baby for adoption. Haunted by the echoes of their decision, Joseph and Ann part, each heading toward an unexpected future. The past is always with us. Will Ann find redemption, or will she be forever trapped in regret for what might have been? This honest, poignant memoir will take you on a vivid, achingly real journey to the painful tipping point of a world before the advent of feminism and social change. The Smelly Man Sandra Crum Akers, 2011-09-15 Zip Collins is a thief, but when he breaks into Faith Robert's house, he comes out with a different point of view. Determined to change direction, he obtains a job in a Salvage Yard where his duties include hauling trash to the local landfill. He's happy when his boss's new partner, Burton Miller, loads the dump truck for him on two occasions, leaving him with only the duty of taking the rubbish to the landfill and dumping it. However, when a body is found in the landfill a day later, Zip starts to suspect that maybe he was set up to dump that body. Anxious to keep his job, concerned that he'll take the fall if he reports his suspicions, Zip panics. He tells his new friend about his suspicions, entangling her in the web of conspiracy he suspects his employers of. Are his suspicions real, or has he let his imagination get the better of him? One thing is for sure: two men are missing, and one was found dead in the landfill where he had just dumped a load of trash.
