The Devil's Doctor Philip Ball, 2006-04-18 A vibrant original portrait of a man of contradictions the Renaissance era Swiss father of modern medicine Publishers Weekly starred review Philippus Aureolus Theophrastus Bombast von Hohenheim who called himself Paracelsus stands at the cusp of medieval and modern times A contemporary of Luther an enemy of the medical establishment a scourge of the universities an alchemist an army surgeon and a radical theologian he attracted myths even before he died His fantastic journeys across Europe and beyond were said to be made on a magical white horse and he was rumored to carry the elixir of life in the pommel of his great broadsword His name was linked with Faust who bargained with the devil Who was the man behind these stories Some have accused him of being a charlatan a windbag who filled his books with wild speculations and invented words Others claim him to be the father of modern medicine Philip Ball exposes a more complex truth in The Devil's Doctor one that emerges only by entering Paracelsus s time He explores the intellectual political and religious undercurrents of the sixteenth century and looks at how doctors really practiced at how people traveled and at how wars were fought For Paracelsus was a product of an age of change and strife of renaissance and reformation And yet by uniting the diverse disciplines of medicine biology and alchemy he assisted almost despite himself in the birth of science and the emergence of the age of rationalism Praise for The Devil's Doctor An enlivening portrait that will spark interest in Paracelsus s role in the rise of science Booklist A true iconoclast Paraclesus inhabited an ideological landscape somewhere between the medieval and the modern Ball effectively places Paracelsus in the larger context of Renaissance magic and philosophy and of a turbulent period Worth the effort Kirkus

Reviews Islam in its International Context Chris Flood, Stephen Hutchings, Galina Miazhevich, 2011-05-25 Changing attitudes to Islam profoundly influence political cultures and national identities as well as policies regarding immigration security and multiculturalism. Given that the majority of relevant scholarly works have either adopted monocultural perspectives or approached Islam in its general non-nation-specific dimension, the need for in-depth multi-nation studies is urgent. Islam itself and responses to its rise are becoming increasingly internationalised. It is therefore important that analyses of Islam-related phenomena are sensitive to the particular cultures in which they are encountered. This volume does precisely that. Contributions: some explicitly comparative, others implicitly so, cover perspectives from across Europe, the USA and the Middle East, along with new treatments of the rich diversity to be found in Islamic art and discussions of inter-faith exchanges. They also represent a range of disciplinary approaches. Among the many issues addressed are the challenges posed by the rise of Muslim radicalism to multicultural societies; various media treatments of the War on Terror; the national specificities of Islamophobic xenophobia; contemporary visual arts in Islamic societies; differing attitudes to the translation of religious texts. The authors include authoritative international experts balanced by promising younger scholars. History of the Christian Church: The Reformation, 1517-1648 George Herbert Dryer, 1903
