Lyotard And The End Of Grand Narratives:

Lyotard and the End of Grand Narratives Gary K. Browning, 2000 Lyotard's work challenges the presumption and orientation of modern political philosophy. In particular, he repudiates attempts to justify knowledge and society in terms of grand narratives, for example, the liberation of mankind or the immanence of science. He argues that the totalising perspective of these meta-narratives is superseded by a post-modern acceptance of difference and variety and a scepticism towards unifying meta-theories. The Predicament of Postmodern Theology Gavin Hyman, 2001-01-01 Gavin Hyman explores in depth two antithetical schools of postmodern theology: the radical orthodoxy of John Milbank and the nihilist textualism of Don Cupitt. Hyman critiques Milbank's influential project from a postmodern perspective and then points out the major difficulties with Cupitt's approach. Finally, he explores the work of Mark C. Taylor and Michael de Certeau to articulate a third way that leads beyond the responses of both Cupitt and Milbank. The Art of Reading Scripture Ellen F. Davis, Richard B. Hays, 2003-10-02 The difficulty of interpreting the Bible is felt all over today. Is the Bible still authoritative for the faith and practice of the church? If so, in what way? What practices of reading offer the most appropriate approach to understanding Scripture? The church's lack of clarity about these issues has hindered its witness and mission, causing it to speak with an uncertain voice to the challenges of our time. This important book is for a twenty-first century church that seems to have lost the art of reading the Bible attentively and imaginatively. The Art of Reading Scripture is written by a group of eminent scholars and teachers seeking to recover the church's rich heritage of biblical interpretation in a dramatically changed cultural environment. Asking how best to read the Bible in a postmodern context, the contributors together affirm up front Nine Theses that provide substantial guidance for the church. The essays and sermons that follow both amplify and model the approach to Scripture outlined in the Nine Theses. Lucidly conceived, carefully written, and shimmering with fresh insights, The Art of Reading Scripture proposes a far-reaching revolution in how the Bible is taught in theological seminaries and calls pastors and teachers in the church to rethink their practices of using the Bible. Contributors: Gary A. Anderson, Richard Bauckham, Brian E. Daley, Ellen F. Davis, Richard B. Hays, James C. Howell, Robert W. Jenson, William Stacy Johnson, L. Gregory Jones, Christine McSpadden, R. W. L. Moberly, David C. Steinmetz, Marianne Meye Thompson.

Literary Theory and Criticism Patricia Waugh, 2006 This volume offers a comprehensive account of modern literary criticism, presenting the field as part of an ongoing historical and intellectual tradition. Featuring thirty-nine specially commissioned chapters from an international team of esteemed contributors, it fills a large gap in the market by combining the accessibility of single-authored selections with a wide range of critical perspectives. The volume is divided into four parts. Part One covers the key philosophical and aesthetic origins of literary theory, while Part Two discusses the foundational movements and thinkers in the first half of the twentieth century. Part Three offers introductory overviews of the most important movements and thinkers in modern literary theory, and Part Four looks at emergent trends and future directions.

Beyond Evangelicalism Steven Knowles, 2010 A prolific author and thinker Stanley J Grenz was a respected and influential figure not only within evangelicalism but in the wider theological world Amongst the many issues tackled by him it is perhaps his revisioning of evangelical theology in the light of the postmodern challenge that has caused the biggest stir in the theological world Advocating a nonfoundationalist methodology Grenz attempts to re position evangelical theology in line with postmodern concerns This will be the first book length treatment on Grenz's work on theological methodology and therefore will break new ground in this important area of study

Revolution from the viewpoints of the four most diverse worldviews or paradigms It concludes by recommending paradigm diversity as an understanding of different paradigms leads to a more comprehensive and a more balanced understanding of the multi faceted nature of the subject matter Hermeneutics, Citizenship, and the Public Sphere Roberto Alejandro,1993-07-01 This book sheds new light on the question of democratic politics by proposing a hermeneutic conception of citizenship and the public sphere At the same time it presents a critique of the postmodern arguments advanced by Richard Rorty Jean Francois Lyotard and Jean Baudrillard Questioning a dominant interpretation that sees Gadamer s hermeneutics as the expression of a conservative project Alejandro argues that it includes an important element of critique that could challenge dominant structures and practices On Paul Ricoeur David Wood,2002-11 A collection of essays including three pieces by Ricoeur himself examining this subject Ricoeur s study of the intertwining of time and narrative proposes and examines the possibility that narrative could remedy a fatal deficiency in any purely phenomenological approach Beyond the Great Story Robert F. Berkhofer,1995 What legitimate form can history take when faced by the severe challenges issued in recent years by literary rhetorical multiculturalist and feminist theories That is the question considered in this pathbreaking book Robert Berkhofer addresses the essential practical concern of contemporary historians Negotiating the Fabric of the African University ,2025-04-24 This book is the first volume of two edited collections that critically assess the historical and contemporary processes that have shaped the formation and transformation of the African university It provides general perspectives reflections and a selection of case studies from different regions and higher education systems highlighting the vibrant debates on the social and institutional life of universities in Africa The chapters assembled here capture the rich experiences strategies and analyses of students lecturers researchers and administrators showcasing the university as a dynamic lived experience Contributors are Kasturi Behari Leak Eli Bitzer Destin Feutseu Dassi David Kaldewey Patr cio V Langa Laetus O K Lategan Elisio Macamo Teboho Moja Mariah Mosomi Bakheit Mohammed Nur Lerato Posholi Leonie Schoelen and Cecil Swart Challenges and Controversies in Management Research Bill Lee,Catherine Cassell,2011-01-25 Management research has expanded considerably over recent decades The impetus for such growth comes from a wide range of forces both inside and outside of the academic community stimulate and regulate its development while the audience for which management research might be considered to be useful and the extent of that usefulness are highly contested This book seeks to explore the forces that drive the development of management research shape its current state and influence its future potential The Mass and Modernity Jonathan Robinson,2010-11-12 Many in the Church have accepted modernity in their effort to speak to the modern world and not nearly enough attention has been given to trying to disentangle the complex of ideas and half formulated convictions that constitute this mind set which is in fact contrary to Christianity The first aim of this book is to examine the origins and present day influence of modernity and then to argue that there is nothing in the Christian s concern for the modern world that requires accepting this damaging mind set in connection with the highest form of worship the Mass The second aim of the book is to show that the sources of a genuine liturgical renewal are to be found in a heightened sense of the centrality of the Mass and a return to a theology compatible with the Catechism of the Catholic Church Fr Robinson's book is a philosopher's gift to the Catholic liturgy He provides a thoroughly lucid account of the climate of ideas which handicaps the celebration of Catholic worship in the modern world This is a diagnosis which shows just how far reaching must be the cure Fr Aidan Nichols Author Looking at the Liturgy

Thinking in Education Research Nick Peim, 2018-03-08 Thinking in Education Research examines the resources available from philosophy and theory that can be practically applied to any educational research project Nick Peim argues that the current well established divide between theory and the empirical in research methods is unhelpful to students Instead Thinking in Education Research looks at major lines of thinking in modern European philosophy from Kant to Freud and Derrida to Malabou and how they provide a rich resource for every stage of conducting research By getting students engaged in how to think and how to do Peim illustrates that thinking is in fact a vital part of how you do research and is not an aside Essential aspects of the research endeavour are re examined in the light of key philosophical positions to offer constructive potential including defining the object giving an account of the field the relation to truth the process of writing and constructing a case and the value attributed to formal knowledge Thinking in Education Research does not try to resolve the unresolved issues of research thinking but rather encourages readers to productively engage with them so that we can enhance the possibilities of research practice and find opportunities for its expansion and refinement Throughout the chapters clear and concise summaries of key philosophical positions and ideas are complemented with boxed accounts of how the philosophical debates discussed can be applied to real research projects These features encourage the reader to consider how they can develop thinking and apply theory at every stage of their own research This is essential reading for any educational research methods student or practicing researcher for important ways of thinking afresh about research methodology
