

Simple Lyric

When I think of her sparkling face
And of her body that rocked this way and that,
When I think of her laughter,
Her jubilance that filled me,
It's a wonder I'm not gone mad.

She is away and I cannot do what I want.
Other faces pale when I get close.
She is away and I cannot breathe her in.

The space her leaving has created
I have attempted to fill
With bodies that numbed upon touching,
Among them I expected her opposite,
And found only forgeries.

Her wholeness I know to be a fiction of my making,
Still I cannot dismiss the longing for her;
It is a craving for sensation new flesh
Cannot wholly calm or cancel,
It is perhaps for more than her.

At night above the parks the stars are swarming.
The streets are thick with nostalgia;
I move through senseless routine and insensitive chatter
As if her going did not matter.
She is away and I cannot breathe her in.
I am ill simply through wanting her.

Lyric Poems:

Petrarch's Lyric Poems Francesco Petrarca, 1976 Durling's edition of Petrarch's poems has become the standard. Readers have praised the translation of the authoritative text as graceful and accurate, conveying a real understanding of what this difficult poet is saying. The literalness of the prose translation makes this book especially useful to students who lack a full command of Italian.

The Short Lyric Poems of Jean Froissart Kristen Mossler Figg, 2019-06-26 Originally published in 1994. The Short Lyric Poems of Jean Froissart is a meticulous reading of the important but generally neglected short lyric poems of Jean Froissart. The book situates Froissart within the cultural and literary context of fourteenth-century Europe and examines a representative number of his lyric forms: pastourelles, chansons royales, ballades, virelais, and rondeaux, demonstrating their richness of theme and poetic virtuosity. The book provides a readable and reliable English translation, making it possible for English scholars unfamiliar with the original Middle French forms to understand and appreciate the influence Froissart had on Chaucer and other authors of the age. The book focuses on themes, techniques, meters, and rhythms that Froissart employed in his poetry, on how his poetry fits poetic tradition, and on the place of Froissart in literary history.

Lyric Poem and Aestheticism Marion Thain, 2016-08-16 This study explores lyric poetry's response to a crisis of relevance in Victorian Modernity, offering an analysis of literature usually elided by studies of the modern formation of the genre. By uncovering previously unrecognized discourses within it, setting the focal aestheticist poetry c. 1860 to 1914 within much broader historical, theoretical, and aesthetic frames, it speaks to those interested in Victorian and modernist literature and culture but also to a burgeoning audience of the new lyric studies. The six case studies introduce fresh poetic voices as well as giving innovative analyses of canonical writers such as D. G. Rossetti, Ezra Pound, A. C. Swinburne.

The Lyric Poem Marion Thain, 2013-11-07 As a study of lyric poetry in English from the early modern period to the present, this book explores one of the most ancient and significant art forms in Western culture as it emerges in its various modern incarnations. Combining a much-needed historicisation of the concept of lyric with an aesthetic and formal focus, this collaboration of period specialists offers a new cross-historical approach. Through eleven chapters spanning more than four centuries, the book provides readers with both a genealogical framework for the understanding of lyric poetry within any particular period and a necessary context for more general discussion of the nature of genre.
