

Song Lyric Analysis Paper

Objective: Analyze the relationship between a singer and his/her subject in a song's lyrics, paying special attention to poetic devices and literary elements used by the songwriter.

Task:

1. Annotate your song lyrics for overall tone, poetic elements, and literary devices.

2. Formulate your prompt. Use the prompt creator as your guide.

3. Determine the type of relationship between the singer and subject using one adjective or noun. Think of this adjective or noun as the singer's overall tone.

4. Determine which literary elements and poetic devices the songwriter uses to create the specific relationship described in number 3. Combine the elements used and the relationship between singer and subject to create your thesis.

5. Write body paragraph topic sentences that introduce the literary elements or poetic devices the songwriter uses to create the specific relationship described in number 3. You should have anywhere from 2-5 body paragraphs using one element per paragraph.

6. Create paragraphs underneath each topic sentence that provide specific textual evidence (direct quotes or paraphrases) to support the use of the literary element. After each specific piece of evidence, explain and analyze how that piece of textual evidence helps create the overall tone. You should have at least two pieces of evidence per paragraph and at least two sentences of analysis per paragraph.

7. Write a concluding statement that restates your thesis and summarizes your analysis argument.

Additional Information:

- a. Your song lyrics must be school appropriate.
- a. Your song lyrics must show a relationship between a singer and an identifiable subject.
- a. Your song must contain poetic and literary elements.
- a. Sample elements: alliteration, assonance, consonance, rhyme scheme, repetition, anaphora, apostrophe, symbolism, personification, hyperbole, onomatopoeia, irony.
