story of courage achievement and fame about people in Australia's past Identity and Justice Debbie Rodan, 2004 Debbie Rodan adds breadth and depth to the field of literary cultural and gender studies through a meticulous investigation of notions such as representation justice and legitimation She examines their historical and philosophical trajectories as well as their politico-judicial underpinnings through an ambitious and timely recuperation of the Enlightenment projects of rationality and emancipation The point of departure is a critical engagement with the theoretical work of John Rawls Jürgen Habermas and Jean-François Lyotard Rodan claims each can be read as foregrounding diverse ways of constituting identity within the social world Recognition of other people's identity at the social cultural and national level is crucial to the possibility of justice Rodan tests the concepts of justice legitimation and identity through detailed critical readings analyses of a range of texts The range includes the film East is East a number of autobiographical narratives as well as the Australian government report Bringing Them Home which is concerned with the removal of Aboriginal children from their families She avoids polarising Aboriginal non-Aboriginal notions of justice identity etc by including texts which raise and problematise questions of ethnicity and gender Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema Karina

Aveyard, Albert Moran, Errol Vieth, 2017-12-26 Filmmakers have honed their skills and many have achieved critical and popular success at home and abroad as have actors and other crew American filmmakers and companies have found it cheaper to make films in Australia because wages and salaries are lower tax rebates have been attractive and the expertise in most areas of filmmaking is comparable to that of anywhere in the world At the same time Australian audiences still enjoy watching Australian films making some of them profitable even if this is a small profit when considered in Hollywood terms New Zealand filmmakers cast and crew have shown that they are equal to the world's best in making films with international themes while other films have shown that the world is interested in New Zealand narratives and settings Increased support for Maori filmmakers and stories has had a significant impact on production levels and on the diversity of stories that now reach the screen It has also helped create more viable career paths for those who continue to be based in their home country This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross-referenced entries on leading films as well as many directors writers actors and producers It also covers early pioneers film companies genres and government bodies

Documentary Screens Keith Beattie, 2017-04-29 Documentary productions encompass remarkable representations of surprising realities How do documentaries achieve their ends What types of documentaries are there What factors are implicated in their production Such questions animate this engaging study Documentary Screens is a comprehensive and critical study of the formal features and histories of central categories of documentary film and television Among the categories examined are autobiographical indigenous and ethnographic documentary compilation films direct cinema and cinema verité and television documentary journalism The book also considers recent so-called popular factual entertainment and the future of documentary film television and new media This provocative and accessible analysis situates wide ranging examples from each category within the larger material forces which impact on documentary form and content The important connection between form content and context explored in the book constitutes a new and lively documentary studies approach to documentary representation
