Larson, 1967 Sinn Féin and the Politics of Left Republicanism Eoin Ó Broin, 2009-02-20 Sinn Féin is a growing force in Irish politics Now the country's third largest party Sinn Féin have been one of the central architects of the peace process and are increasingly setting the terms of political debate in Ireland north and south Despite this the party remains much misunderstood and often misrepresented Sinn Féin and The Politics of Left Republicanism explores the ideological and organisational origins of the party charts their history and recent political development and assesses their possible futures Eoin O Broin argues that Sinn Féin is part of a distinct left republican tradition in Irish society whose future lies in the globally resurgent radical democratic left Housing and Housing Politics in European Metropolises Rainer Wehrhahn, Jörg Pohlen, Christine Hannemann, Frank Othengrafen, Brigitta Schmidt-Lauber, 2019-03-04 Neoliberal paradigms and the privatisation of housing have recently been confronted with social movements in many large European metropolises The political and social need for more participation in housing for new forms of urban land politics and for specific and powerful rental regulation is obvious The special book section analyses these dimensions of housing and housing politics in a comparative European perspective and discusses new policy approaches for urban housing Furthermore the Jahrbuch StadtRegion offers scientific articles and reports as well as a monitoring section and book reviews related to interdisciplinary urban research and planning issues The Political Ecology of the Metropolis Jefferey M. Lehnen, 2013-04-10 Considering how literary texts address the transformations that Brazil has undergone since its 1985 transition to democracy this study proposes that Brazilian contemporary literature is informed by the struggle for social civil and cultural rights and that literary production has created spaces for historically disenfranchised communities Toward New Democratic Imaginaries - İstanbul Seminars on Islam, Culture and Politics Seyla Benhabib, Volker Kaul, 2016-09-23 This volume combines rigorous empirical and theoretical analyses with political engagement to look beyond reductive short hands that ignore the historical evolution and varieties of Islamic doctrine and that deny the complexities of Muslim societies encounters with modernity itself Are Islam and democracy compatible Can we shed the language of Islam vs

the West for new political imaginaries The authors analyze struggles over political legitimacy since the Arab Spring and the rise of Al Qaeda and ISIS in their historical and political complexity across the MENA Middle East and North Africa region Distinguishing multiculturalism from interculturalism and understanding multiple modernities philosophers in the volume tease out the complexities of civilizational encounters The volume also shows how the Paris massacres or the Danish caricature controversy do not remain confined to Europe but influence struggles and confrontations within Muslim societies Gender and Islam are addressed from a comparative perspective bringing into conversation not only the experience of different Muslim countries with Islamic law but also by analysing Jewish family law
