The Complete Works of Charles Spurgeon, Volume 38 Charles Spurgeon, 2015-06-01 Volume 38 Sermons 2237 2288

Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834 31 January 1892 is one of the church's most famous preachers and Christianity's foremost prolific writers. Called the Prince of Preachers, he was one of England's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today. His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades. In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people, often up to ten times each week. He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel, later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London, for 38 years. He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works, including sermons, commentaries, an autobiography, as well as books on prayer, devotionals, magazines, poetry, hymns, and more. Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration, and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound. Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature. Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London Volume 6, 1878, quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon's meetings at Surrey Fancy: a congregation consisting of 10,000 souls streaming into the hall, mounting the galleries, humming, buzzing, and swarming, a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all. After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat, you must be there at least that space of time in advance. Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune. To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low, concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present, and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours. It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse. It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly; of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely; of his style that it is at times familiar, at times declamatory, but always happy and often eloquent; of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion, cant, hypocrisy, pride, and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life; and to sum up all in a word, it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity. More than a hundred years after his death, Charles Spurgeon's legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world. For this reason, Delmarva Publications has chosen to publish the complete works of Volume 38, Sermons 2237-2288. The Doctrines of Grace from the Lips of Our Lord J. D. Watson, 2012-07-18 The doctrine of salvation is the watershed doctrine of Scripture Flowing from that doctrine will be not only all other doctrine but also personal practice and Christian ministry The major controversy concerning salvation is whether it is a result of the sovereign grace of God alone or a mixture of God's part and man's part Addressing that issue is absolutely critical to the very foundations of Christianity itself Whichever one of those premises is correct we should expect to find it everywhere we look in Scripture and that is precisely what we find There is no truth that permeates the Bible more than the doctrines of God's sovereign grace From Genesis to Revelation in literally hundreds of verses these doctrines call capture and command our attention Of the many books of the Bible we could choose the Gospel of John is among the most compelling because of its foundational nature It is there we find some of the most profound teaching on the Doctrines of Grace in all Scripture Examining more than one hundred verses in John this small volume presents these great biblical and historical doctrines directly from the lips of our Lord

Hedge About Satan Lincoln Smith, 2019-02-19 Satan's infiltration into the modern day church through worldliness and doctrinal errors should deeply concern all true believers as to the compromised standing of the church in becoming so entangled with the world and not bearing true salt and light The true church represents a called out body of believers and if the church has been called from something it has also been called to something that through holy living God may be glorified through her actions God's decree is infallible and represents His sovereign will and purpose in salvation It was foreordained before the foundation of the world 1 Peter 1:20 where God the Father made a covenant of redemption with the Son and in fulfilling this agreement at Calvary Christ has purchased the Grace that is applied to all believers by the Spirit who now stand eternally justified and sealed in the Spirit While a believer has everlasting joy and assurance in Christ the pull of the flesh against the Spirit is something that will follow all the days of his life This dilemma that sin like a foreign intruder will always try to lure itself back into a believer's soul Believers are thereby at peace with God but they are never at peace with sin for which the Apostle states that obedience to the law boils down to one command to love one another for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law Romans 13:8 Denying exactly who God's covenant people are is also considered as Satan has attempted to doctrinally divide believers from both the Old and New Testament Election according to Grace is the great link from the remnant that was saved throughout the Jewish age of the church to Gentile believers of today It is all of Grace
