Publications Industrial Relations Research Association,1960 Potential History Ariella Aïsha Azoulay,2019-11-19 In this theoretical tour de force renowned scholar Ariella Asha Azoulay calls on us to recognize the imperial foundations of knowledge and to refuse its strictures and its many violences Azoulay argues that the institutions that make our world from archives and museums to ideas of sovereignty and human rights to history itself are all dependent on imperial modes of thinking Imperialism has segmented populations into differentially governed groups continually emphasised the possibility of progress while trying to destroy what came before and voraciously sought out the new by sealing the past away in dusty archival boxes and the glass vitrines of museums By practising what she calls potential history Azoulay argues that we can still refuse the imperial violence that shattered communities lives and worlds from native peoples in the Americas to the Congo ruled by Belgium s brutal King Lopold II from dispossessed Palestinians in 1948 to displaced refugees in our own day In Potential History Azoulay travels alongside historical companions an old Palestinian man who refused to leave his village in 1948 an anonymous woman in war ravaged Berlin looted objects and documents torn from their worlds and now housed in archives and museums to chart the ways imperialism has sought to order time space and politics Rather than looking for a new future Azoulay calls upon us to rewind history and unlearn our imperial rights to continue to refuse imperial violence by making present what was invented as past and making the repair of torn worlds the substance of politics Cumulated Index Medicus ,1975 Wheat Requirements in Europe Carl S.
