

The image features a silhouette of a family of five (two adults and three children) standing against a dramatic sky with soft, colorful clouds in shades of blue, purple, and orange. A dark grey rectangular box is centered over the family, containing the text 'Mi Familia' in a large, white, sans-serif font. The box is framed by thin yellow lines on the top, bottom, and right sides, and a thin white line on the left side. The Roots of Our People: From One World to Another, Juntos! Juntos NC Garner Magnet School, 2018-05-09

In this bilingual book The Roots of Our People: From One World to Another, Juntos high school students of Juntos NC illustrate the roots of where they're from to demonstrate the strength of the Latino community. In a collection of poems, memoirs, essays, vignettes and letters to the community, these authors define and embrace the power, challenges and pride of living in two worlds: one within their Latino families and communities and the other in their academic world. These worlds are not separate but integrated and it is their intersections that weave their values together. In resounding individual and collective voices, the authors describe how they embrace the roots of their people while they pursue higher education, advance new opportunities and advocate for the immigrant community in America. It is the dualities of their identities that move them to write and to boldly proclaim the strengths, assets, power and perseverance of their people. Buena Idea Nicolette Hannam, 2010-12-13 Buena Idea is an invaluable time saving resource.
