Patricia Bovey, 2023-02-03 The story of artists in Western Canada and how they changed the face of Canadian art Listen to the visual voices of artists They tell us so poignantly who we are what we must cherish and what we must address as a society Patricia Bovey Throughout her remarkable career as a gallery director curator and author Patricia Bovey has tirelessly championed the work of Western Canadian artists Western Voices in Canadian Art brings this lifelong passion to a crescendo delivering the most ambitious survey of Western Canadian art to date Beginning with the earliest European trained artists in Western Canada and moving up to present day Bovey amplifies the depth scope and importance of the diverse artists both settler and Indigenous whose distinct voices have contributed to the Western Canadian artistic tradition Bovey then adopts a thematic approach richly informed by her knowledge and experience connecting art and artists through time and across provincial boundaries Insights from Bovey's studio visits and conversations with artists enhance our understandings of the history and trajectory of and impetus for Canadian artistic creation Lavishly illustrated with over 250 works reproduced in full colour Western Voices in Canadian Art is a book that needs to be seen and its artists and art celebrated Art Now Gallery Guide, 2003-05 Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 2001 Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 1980 The Resisting Muse Ian Peddie, 2006 This volume examines the various ways popular music has been deployed as anti establishment and how such opposition both influences and responds to the music produced The book's contemporary focus largely post 1975 allows for comprehensive coverage of extremely diverse forms of popular music in relation to the creation of communities of protest The Resisting Muse examines how the forms and aims of social protest music are contingent upon the audience's ability to invest the music with the appropriate political meaning The Resisting Muse: Popular Music and Social Protest Ian Peddie, 2017-09-29 Popular music has traditionally served as a rallying point for voices of opposition across a huge variety of genres This volume examines the various ways popular music has been deployed as anti establishment and how such opposition both influences and responds to the music produced Implicit in the notion of resistance is a broad adversarial hegemony against which opposition is measured But it would be wrong to regard the music of popular protest as a kind of dialogue in league against the establishment Convenient though they are such as them arguments bespeak a rather shop worn stance redolent of youthful rebellion It is much more fruitful to perceive the relationship as a complex dialectic where musical protest is as fluid as the audiences to which it appeals and the hegemonic structures it opposes The book's contemporary focus largely post 1975 allows for comprehensive coverage of extremely diverse forms of popular music in relation to the creation of communities of protest Because such communities are fragmented and diverse the shared experience and identity popular music purports is dependent upon an audience collectivity that is now difficult to presume In this respect The Resisting Muse examines how the forms and aims of social protest music are contingent upon the audience's ability to invest the music with the appropriate political meaning Amongst a plethora of artists genres and themes highlights include discussions of Aboriginal rights and music Bauhaus Black Sabbath Billy Bragg Bono Cassette culture The Capitol Steps Class The Cure DJ Spooky Drum and Bass Eminem Farm Aid Foxy Brown Folk Goldie Gothicism Woody Guthrie Heavy Metal Hip hop Independent home publishing Iron Maiden Joy Division Jungle Led Zeppelin Lil Kim Live Aid Marilyn Manson Bob Marley MC Eiht Minor Threat Motown Queen Latifah Race Rap Rastafarianism Reggae The Roots Diana Ross Rush Salt n Pepa 7 Seconds Roxanne Shant Siouxsie and the Banshees The Sisters of Mercy Michelle Shocked Bessie Smith Straight edge Sunrize Band Bunny Wailer Wilco Bart Willoughby Worrinyga Band Zines
