Tomie dePaola's career takes a fascinating look at the many worlds dePaola has brought to life through his work from autobiographical memories to folktales religious stories nursery rhymes and more including of course the inventive world of his most famous character Strega Nona Originally published in 1999 and filled with evocative artwork captivating photographs and heartwarming anecdotes this comprehensive book has been updated to cover two new decades of dePaola's creativity Elleman's thoughtful narrative brings a fresh appreciation to the work of a unique author/illustrator one who is a true legend of children's literature and a source of lasting joy for generations of readers young and old The Poetical Works of Mrs. Horace Dobell Elizabeth Mary Fordham Dobell, 1910 Teachers Magazine, 1913 The Elementary School Library Collection, Phases 1-2-3, 1998 The Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia: Dictionary William Dwight Whitney, 1904 Sold on Language Julie Sedivy, Greg Carlson, 2011-05-03 As citizens of capitalist free market societies we tend to celebrate choice and competition However in the 21st century as we have gained more and more choices we have also become greater targets for persuasive messages from advertisers who want to make those choices for us In Sold on Language noted language scientists Julie Sedivy and Greg Carlson examine how rampant competition shapes the ways in which commercial and political advertisers speak to us In an environment saturated with information advertising messages attempt to compress as much persuasive power into as small a linguistic space as possible These messages the authors reveal might take the form of a brand name whose sound evokes a certain impression a turn of phrase that gently applies peer pressure or a subtle accent that zeroes in on a target audience As more and more techniques of persuasion are aimed squarely at the corner of our mind which automatically takes in information without conscious thought or deliberation does endless choice actually mean the end of true choice Sold on Language offers thought provoking insights into the choices we make as consumers and citizens and the choices that are increasingly being made for us Click here for more discussion and debate on the authors blog <http://www.psychologytoday.com/blog/sold-language> Wiley disclaims all responsibility and liability for the content of any third party websites that can be linked to from this website Users assume sole responsibility for accessing third party websites and the use of any content appearing on such websites Any views expressed in such websites are the views of the authors of the content appearing on those websites and not the views of Wiley or its affiliates nor do they in any way represent an endorsement by Wiley or its affiliates
