Modern Age Historicism And Functionalism:

The modern Age Hans Gerhard Evers,1970 Vom Historismus zum Funktionalismus The modern age, historicism and functionalism ... Translated by J. R. Foster Hans Gerhard EVERS,Joseph Reginald FOSTER,1970 Subaltern Morality: a Postmodern Vision Ramesh Chandra Sinha,2017-03-21 The expression Subaltern had been used by Italian Marxist Antonio Gramsci in his celebrated notes on PRISON DIARY but it is interpreted in a different way in this book The concept includes caste color gender and class It is not economic category but a cultural one It is different from Marxist interpretation of the term Proletariat Marxist Morality is class bound Subaltern morality is not class bound An attempt to deconstruct the age old Egalitarian Morality the author proposes morality of those who are besides the circle and suggests a postmodern vision to understand subaltern morality Offering challenging insights into conception of Global justice the author subscribes to Aristotelian contention of distributive justice where equals are treated equally and unequal are treated unequally

The Science of Sacrifice Susan L. Mizruchi,1998-05-24 From ritual killings to subtle acts of self denial the practice and rhetoric of sacrifice has a special centrality in modern American literature In a compelling interdisciplinary investigation Susan Mizruchi portrays an episode in American cultural history when the literary movement of realism and the fledgling field of sociology both converged in the belief that sacrifice is basic to sociality This is a book about the fascination that sacrifice held for writers principally Herman Melville Henry James and W E B Du Bois and also for those who articulated the main tenets of modern social theory an inquiry that eventually spans historical events such as public lynchings and the political scapegoating of immigrants a century ago The execution in Billy Budd Sailor the death of Du Bois's first born son in The Souls of Black Folk Henry James's preoccupation with renunciation and scapegoating and the self-denying working classes of Norris and Stein all illustrate repeated stagings of sacrificial rituals from a Biblical past For Mizruhi the peculiar persistence of this aesthetic construct becomes a guide to a rich theological and social scientific tradition distinctive to the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and including such influential works as Smith's Lectures on the Religion of the Semites Frazer's Golden Bough and Ross's Sin and Society The major features of sacrifice its original association with spiritual doubt its function as a form of spiritual economics that sustained divisions between the fortunate and the bereft and its role in fixing boundaries between aliens and kin held strong symbolic value for writers struggling to reconcile faith with rationalism and communal coherence with capitalist expansion Mizruhi eloquently demonstrates how the conceptual power of sacrifice made it a key mediator of cultural change from the decline of sympathy and the significance of race in an emerging multicultural society to the revival of maternal self-sacrifice
