Boullata, 1976 Arabic poems translated into English some also in Arabic The Literary Heritage of the Arabs Suheil Bushrui, James Malarkey, 2014-06-05 The Literary Heritage of the Arabs samples some of the finest literature produced by Arab writers in the last 1 500 years The selection of poetry and prose spans many genres and styles conveying the full range of Arab experiences and perspectives from the tragic to the comic the wistful to the mystical the courtly to the lowly and the Arab East to Andalusia The reader of this anthology will become aware of the extent to which this vibrant and distinctive literary heritage has always been both receptive to the currents from neighbouring cultures and influential in the evolution of other literary traditions in South Asia Western Europe and beyond Thus the reader will discover behind local colours and different literary conventions our common humanity Modern

Arabic Poetry Salma Khadra Jayyusi, 1987 After centuries of oppressive Ottoman rule the Arab world began to find new vitality and freedom in the twentieth century The accompanying resurgence of creative expression is splendidly reflected in this definitive anthology of contemporary Arabic poetry which spans the modern Arab world from the turn of the century to the present from the Arab Gulf to Morocco The editor Salma Khadra Jayyusi a renowned expert on modern Arabic literature presents a thorough introduction to the works of more than ninety Arab poets To create the best possible English translation each selection has been translated first by a bilingual expert and then by an English language poet who creatively renders it into idiomatic English The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Roland Greene, Stephen Cushman, Clare Cavanagh, Jahan Ramazani, Paul Rouzer, Harris Feinsod, David Marno, Alexandra Slessarev, 2012-08-26 Rev ed of The Princeton encyclopedia of poetry and poetics Alex Preminger and T V F Brogan co editors Frank J Warnke O B Hardison Jr and Earl Miner associate editors 1993 The Cambridge Companion to Modern Arab Culture Dwight F. Reynolds, 2015-04-02

An accessible and wide ranging survey of modern Arab culture covering political intellectual and social aspects

Literature Of Modern Arabia Salma Khadra Jayyusi, 2016-02-17 First published in 1988 This large and authoritative volume offers for the first time a representative selection of the works of ninety five of Arabia s best creative authors It presents poetry drama and short stories from Saudi Arabia Yemen and the rest of the Gulf states Tradition, Modernity, and Postmodernity in Arabic Literature Kamal Abdel-Malek, Wael Hallaq, 2000-07-18 The collection of essays contained in this volume is written by a group of prominent scholars of Arabic literature They explore various manifestations of traditional as well as modern and postmodern themes and techniques in Arabic literature This is the first time the tripartite concepts of tradition modernity and postmodernity in Arabic literary works are explored and analyzed in one volume It illustrates very clearly the fact that Arabic literature has kept abreast not only of the primarily modern literary movements in the West that is amply illustrated by many studies to date but also of the postmodern condition Scholars in the fields of Arabic literature Islamic Studies Comparative Literature postmodern studies among others will find this collection of essays of great interest

The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available

Desert Songs of the Night Suheil Bushrui, 2015-07-13 A unique and extraordinary collection Desert Songs of the Night presents some of the finest poetry and prose by Arab writers from the Arab East to Andalusia over the last 1 500 years From the mystical imagery of the Qur'an and the colourful stories of The Thousand and One Nights to the powerful verses of longing of Mahmoud Darwish and Nazik al-Mala'ika this captivating collection includes translated excerpts of works by the major authors of the period as well as by lesser known writers of equal significance Desert Songs of the Night showcases the vibrant and distinctive literary heritage of the Arabs Beautifully produced this is the ideal book for lovers of world literature and for those who seek an acquaintance with gems of Arab thought and expression The Arab Christian Kenneth Cragg, 1991-01-01 Centuries before the existence of the Islamic faith there were Arabs who could be described as Christian And there has been a Christian Arabism an Arab Christianity since Muhammad's day Arab Christianity has survived Muslim dominance and this enlightening book takes an in depth look at its survival The Undergraduate's Companion to Arab Writers and Their Web Sites Dona S. Straley, 2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma'arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void

Giving Voice to Stones Barbara McKean Parmenter, 2010-07-05 A struggle between two memories is how Palestinian poet Mahmud Darwish describes the conflict between Palestinians and Israelis Within this struggle the meanings of land and home have been challenged and questioned so that even heaps of stones become points of contention Are they proof of ancient Hebrew settlement or rubble from a bulldozed Palestinian village The memory of these stones and of the land itself is nurtured and maintained in Palestinian writing and other modes of expression which are used to confront and counter Israeli images and rhetoric This struggle provides a rich vein of thought about the nature of human experience of place and the political uses to which these experiences are put In this book Barbara McKean Parmenter explores the roots of Western and Zionist images of Palestine then draws upon the work of Darwish Ghassan Kanafani and other writers to trace how Palestinians have represented their experience of home and exile since the First World War This unique blending of cultural geography and literary analysis opens an unusual window on the struggle between these two peoples over a land that both divides them and brings them together

A Map of Absence Atef Alshaer, 2019-05-13 A Map of Absence presents the finest poetry and prose by Palestinian writers over the last seventy years Featuring writers in the diaspora and those living under occupation these striking entries pay testament to one of the most pivotal events in modern history the 1948 Nakba This unique landmark anthology includes translated excerpts of works by major authors such as Mahmoud Darwish Ghassan Kanafani and Fadwa Tuqan alongside those of emerging writers published here in English for the first time Depicting the varied aspects of Palestinian life both before and after 1948 their writings highlight the ongoing resonances of the Nakba An intimate companion for all lovers of world literature A Map of Absence reveals the depth and breadth of Palestinian writing

International Anthologies of Literature in Translation Harald Kittel, 1995-01-01 Heroic Poets, Poetic Heroes Dwight F. Reynolds, 2018-03-15 An astonishingly rich oral epic that chronicles the early history of a Bedouin tribe the Sirat Bani Hilal has been performed for almost a thousand years In this ethnography of a contemporary community of professional poet singers Dwight F Reynolds reveals how the epic tradition continues to provide a context for social interaction and commentary Reynolds's account is based on performances in the northern Egyptian village in which he studied as an apprentice to a master epic singer Reynolds explains in detail the narrative structure of the Sirat Bani Hilal as well as the tradition of epic singing He sees both living epic poets and fictional epic heroes as figures engaged in an ongoing dialogue with audiences concerning such vital issues as ethnicity religious orientation codes of behavior gender roles and social hierarchies Language and Identity in the Israel-Palestine Conflict Camelia Suleiman, 2011-09-30 The conflict between Israel and Palestine is and remains to be one of the most widely and passionately debated issues in the Middle East and in the field of international politics An important part of this conflict is the dimension of self perception of both Israelis and Palestinians caught up in its midst Here Camelia Suleiman using her background in linguistic analysis examines the interplay of language and identity feminism and nationalism and how the concepts of spatial and temporal boundaries affect self perception She does this through interviews with peace activists from a variety of backgrounds Palestinians with Israeli citizenship Jewish Israelis as well as Palestinians from Ramallah officially holders of Jordanian passports By emphasizing the importance of these levels of official identity Suleiman explores how self perception is influenced negotiated and manifested and how place of birth and residence play a major role in this conflict This book therefore holds vital first hand analysis of the conflict and its impact upon both Israelis and Palestinians making it crucial for anyone involved in Middle East Studies
