Modern Art & the Remaking of Human Disposition Emmelyn Butterfield-Rosen, 2021-11-09 How artists at the turn of the twentieth century broke with traditional ways of posing the bodies of human figures to reflect modern understandings of human consciousness With this book Emmelyn Butterfield Rosen brings a new formal and conceptual rubric to the study of turn of the century modernism transforming our understanding of the era's canonical works Butterfield Rosen analyzes a hitherto unexamined formal phenomenon in European art how artists departed from conventions for posing the human figure that had long been standard In the decades around 1900 artists working in different countries and across different media began to present human figures in strictly frontal lateral and dorsal postures The effect both archaic and modern broke with the centuries old tradition of rendering bodies in torsion with poses designed to simulate the human being's physical volume and capacity for autonomous thought and movement This formal departure destabilized prevailing visual codes for signifying the existence of the inner life of the human subject Exploring major works by Georges Seurat Gustav Klimt and the dancer and choreographer Vaslav Nijinsky replete with new archival discoveries Modern Art and the Remaking of Human Disposition combines intensive formal analysis with inquiries into the history of psychology and evolutionary biology In doing so it shows how modern understandings of human consciousness and the relation of mind to body were materialized in art through a new vocabulary of postures and poses marvels in engineering If painting wanted to keep the public s attention instead of merely reproducing what the eye saw it had to generate its own reality on the surface of the canvas a reality more vivid than and bearing only the most cursory resemblance to anything found in nature Matisse was also a catalyst in that he was the one who introduced Picasso to African sculptures Max Jacob recalls Matisse took a black wooden statuette from a table and showed it to Picasso It was the first piece of Negro wooden art Picasso held onto it all evening The next morning when I arrived at the studio the floor was strewn with sheets of paper and on each sheet was drawn the head of a woman all of them were more or less the same one eye an oversized nose attached to the mouth and a lock of hair on the shoulders Cubism was thus born cited in Janine Warnod Washboat Days New York Grossman Publishers Warnod 1972 p 128 Modern Art Meyer Schapiro,1978
