Modern Art And Modernism A Critical Anthology:

Modern Art and Modernism Francis Francina, Charles Harrison, Deirdre Paul, 1982-12-28 Modern Art and Modernism offers first hand material for the study of issues central to the development of modern art its theory and criticism The history of modern art is not simply a history of works of art it is also a history of ideas and interpretations The works of critics and theorists have not merely been influential in deciding how modern art is to be seen and understood they have also influenced the course it has taken The nature of modern art cannot be understood without some analysis of the concept of Modernism itself Modern Art and Modernism presents a selection of texts by the major contributors to debate on this subject from Baudelaire to Zola in the 19th century to Greenburg and T J Clark on our own times It offers a balanced selection of essays by contributors to the mainstream of Modernist criticism representative examples of writing on the themes of abstraction and expressionism in modern art and a number of important contributions to the discussion of aesthetics and the social role of the artist Modern Art and Modernism FRANCIS. FRASCINA, Taylor & Francis Group, 2019-07-10 Modern Art and Modernism Francis Francina, 1982 Modern Art and Modernism Francis Francina, Charles Harrison, Deirdre Paul, 1982

Critical Perspectives on Contemporary Painting Jonathan P. Harris, 2003-01-01 Comprising examples of artwork and a series of essays this collection examines and assesses the current status of painting within global contemporary art It sheds light on fine art as it is understood as a facet of a global culture and society dominated by Northern European and US power and history Conversation Pieces Grant H. Kester, 2004-08-12 Grant Kester discusses the disparate network of artists collectives united by a desire to create new forms of understanding through creative dialogue that crosses boundaries of race religion culture The Matter of High Words Robert Chodat, 2017-08-18 In a world of matter how can we express what matters When the explanations of the natural sciences become powerfully precise and authoritative what is the status of our highest words the languages that articulate our norms and orient our lives The Matter of High Words examines a constellation of American writers who in the decades since World War II have posed these questions in distinctive ways Walker Percy Marilynne Robinson Ralph Ellison Stanley Cavell and David Foster Wallace are all self consciously post WWII authors attuned to the fragmentation and skepticism that have defined so much of the literary and critical culture of the last century and more Yet they also attempt to reach back to older forms of thought and writing that are often thought to have dried up the traditions of prophecy of wisdom literature of the sage Working within this dual inheritance these authors are drawn equally to both art and argument showing and telling shifting continually between narrative and discursive genres In their essays they act as moralists promoting the broad abstract concepts that might inspire action in the face of naturalistic reduction community family courage fraternity marriage friendship temperance judgment In their narratives they offer particular lives in particular settings thick descriptions that give flesh to such high words Rarely do these movements between genres generate a tidy equilibrium where their essays speak of cooperation and redemption their narratives display alienation loss and failure But in pursuing such risky unorthodox strategies these postwar sages are not only able to challenge some of the dominant naturalistic theories of the last several decades cognitive science neo Darwinian theory social science the fact value divide in analytic philosophy Through five chapters of detailed analysis and close reading Chodat explores the question of whether vocabularies of ought and ought not can still emerge today and how these concepts might be embodied and whether such ideas might be found in things Modernism's Second Act: A Cultural Narrative I.

Nadel,2012-12-17 European modernism underwent a massive change from 1930 to 1960 as war altered the cultural landscape This account of artists and writers in France and England explores how modernism survived under authoritarianism whether Fascism National Socialism or Stalinism and how these artists endured by balancing complicity and resistance Monochrome Craig Staff,2015-09-17 The monochrome a single colour of paint applied over the entirety of a canvas remains one of the more contentious modernist artistic inventions But whilst the manufacture of these pictures of nothing was ostensibly straightforward their subsequent theorisation has been anything but More than a history Monochrome Darkness and Light in Contemporary Art is the first account of the monochrome s lively role in contemporary art Liberated from the burden of representation the monochrome first stood for emancipation an ideological and artistic impulse that characterised the avant garde of the early twentieth century Historically the monochrome embodied the most extreme form of abstraction and pure materiality Yet more recently adaptations of the art form have focused on a broader range of cultural and interpretive contexts Provocative innovative and timely this book argues that the latest artistic strategies go beyond stylistic concerns and instead seek to re engage with ideas around authorship process and the conditions of the visible as they are given and understood through both light and darkness Discussing works by artists such as Katie Paterson Hiroshi Sugimoto Tom Friedman Bruno Jakob Sherrie Levine and Ceal Floyer the book shows that the debates around an artwork s form and its possibility for meaning that the monochrome first engendered remain very much alive in contemporary visual culture ASIA&EUROPE IN SOCIAL SCIENCES: CONNECTIONS, REPRESENTATIONS, INTERPRETATIONS

Varma,2011-08-05 This book considers twentieth and twenty first century literary and cultural formations of the postcolonial city and the constitution of new subjects within it Varma offers a reading of both historical and contemporary debates on urbanism through the filter of postcolonial fictions and the cultural fields surrounding and containing them In particular she presents a representational history of London Nairobi and Bombay in the twentieth and twenty first centuries and engages three key theoretical frameworks the city within postcolonial theory and culture its troubled salience in the construction of postcolonial public spheres and identities from local rural ethnic tribal and regional to national cosmopolitan and transnational subjects and spaces postcolonial fictions as constituting a new world literary space and as a site of the articulation of contending narratives of urban space global culture and postcolonial development and postcolonial feminist citizenship as a universal political project challenging current neo liberal and post neo liberal contractions and eviscerations of public spaces and rights

The Public Image Robert Hariman,John Louis Lucaites,2016-11-07 Even as the media environment has changed dramatically in recent years one thing at least remains true photographs are everywhere From professional news photos to smartphone selfies images have become part of the fabric of modern life And that may be the problem Even as photography bears witness it provokes anxieties about fraudulent representation even as it evokes compassion it prompts anxieties about excessive exposure Parents and pundits alike worry about the unprecedented media saturation that transforms society into an image world And yet a great news photo can still stop us in our tracks and the ever expanding photographic archive documents an era of continuous change By confronting these conflicted reactions to photography Robert Hariman and John Louis Lucaites make the case for a fundamental shift in understanding photography and public culture In place of suspicions about the medium s capacity for distraction deception and manipulation they suggest how it can provide resources for democratic communication and thoughtful reflection about contemporary social problems The key to living well in the image world is to unlock photography from viewing habits that inhibit robust civic spectatorship Through insightful interpretations of dozens of news images The Public Image reveals how the artistry of the still image can inform challenge and guide reflection regarding endemic violence environmental degradation income inequity and other chronic problems that will define the twenty first century By shifting from conventional suspicions to a renewed encounter with the image we are challenged to see more deeply on behalf of a richer life for all and to acknowledge our obligations as spectators who are crucially also citizens

Writing for Hire Catherine L. Fisk,2016-10-17 Professional writers may earn a tidy living for their work but they seldom own their writing Catherine Fisk traces the history of labor relations that defined authorship in film TV and advertising in the mid twentieth century showing why strikingly different norms of attribution emerged in these overlapping industries

The Material Ghost Gilberto Perez,2000-12-26 Gilberto Perez draws on his lifelong love of the movies as well as his work as a film scholar to write a lively wide ranging penetrating study of films and filmmakers and the nature of the art form

Antimodernism and Artistic Experience Lynda

Jessup,2001-01-01 Scholars in art history anthropology history and feminist media studies explore Western antimodernism of the turn of the 20th century as an artistic response to a perceived loss of authentic experience     Wittgenstein, Ethics and Aesthetics B.R. Tilghman,2016-07-27 The author s purpose in this volume is to present the relevance of the ideas of Wittgenstein to those interested in aesthetics and the philosophy of art He focuses on both the earlier work centred around the Tractatus and the later work of the Philosophical Investigations     Writing Back to Modern Art Jonathan Harris,2005-10-09 Here for the first time is a full length study of the critical modernisms of the three leading art writers of the second half of the twentieth century which helps us build a better understanding of the development of modern art writing and its relation to the post modern in art and society since the 1970s Focusing on canonical modern artists such as Manet Cezanne Picasso and Pollock this book provides an important understanding of writing and criticism in modern art for all students and scholars of art theory and art history Mainstay issues discussed include aesthetic evaluation subjectivity and meaning in art and art writing Jonathan Harris examines key discourses and identifies points of significant overlap as well as sharp disjunction between the critics Developing the notions of good and bad complexity in modernist criticism Writing Back to Modern Art creates ways for us to think outside of these discourses of value and meaning and helps us to look at the place that art writing holds in the latter twentieth century and beyond     Encyclopedia of Identity Ronald L. Jackson II,2010-06-29 The two volumes of this encyclopedia seek to explore myriad ways in which we define ourselves in our daily lives Comprising 300 entries the Encyclopedia of Identity offers readers an opportunity to understand identity as a socially constructed phenomenon a dynamic process both public and private shaped by past experiences and present circumstances and evolving over time Offering a broad comprehensive overview of the definitions politics manifestations concepts and ideas related to identity the entries include short biographies of major thinkers and leaders as well as discussions of events personalities and concepts The Encyclopedia of Identity is designed for readers to grasp the nature and breadth of identity as a psychological social anthropological and popular idea Key ThemesArtClassDeveloping IdentitiesGender Sex and SexualityIdentities in ConflictLanguage and DiscourseLiving EthicallyMedia and Popular CultureNationality Protecting IdentityRace Culture and EthnicityRelating Across CulturesReligionRepresentations of IdentityTheories of Identity     From Greenwich Village to Taos Flannery Burke,2016-01-22 They all came to Taos Georgia O Keefe D H Lawrence Carl Van Vechten and other expatriates of New York City Fleeing urban ugliness they moved west between 1917 and 1929 to join the community that art patron Mabel Dodge created in her Taos salon and to draw inspiration from New Mexico s mountain desert and primitive peoples As they settled their quest for the primitive forged a link between authentic places and those who called them home In this first book to consider Dodge and her visitors from a New Mexican perspective Flannery Burke shows how these cultural mavens drew on modernist concepts of primitivism to construct their personal visions and cultural agendas In each chapter she presents a place as it took shape for a different individual within Dodge s orbit From this kaleidoscope of places emerges a vision of what place meant to modernist artists as well as a narrative of what happened in the real place of New Mexico when visitors decided it was where they belonged Expanding the picture of early American modernism beyond New York's dominance she shows that these newcomers believed Taos was the place they had set out to find and that when Taos failed to meet their expectations they changed Taos Throughout Burke examines the ways notions of primitivism unfolded as Dodge's salon attracted artists of varying ethnicities and the ways that patronage was perceived by African American writers seeking publication Anglos seeking authentic material Native American artists seeking patronage or Nuevomexicanos simply seeking respect She considers the notion of competitive primitivism especially regarding Carl Van Vechten and offers nuanced analyses of divisions within northern New Mexico's arts communities over land issues and of the ways in which Pueblo Indians spoke on their own behalf Burke's book offers a portrait of a place as it took shape both aesthetically in the imaginations of Dodge's visitors and materially in the lives of everyday New Mexicans It clearly shows that no people or places stand outside the modern world and that when we pretend otherwise those people and places inevitably suffer     Art Criticism Since 1900 Malcolm Gee,1993
