Desai, 2007 This text explores the field of Asian art and its historiography tensions and possible future directions It features essays by 14 leading authors specializing in Chinese East Asian Indian and Japanese art history and considers what is meant by Asian art and how it should be understood in relation to geopolitics      Modern and Contemporary Southeast Asian Art Nora A. Taylor, 2012 This anthology explores artistic practices and works from a diverse and vibrant region Scholars critics and curators offer their perspectives on Southeast Asian art and artists aiming not to define the field but to illuminate its changing nature and its interactions with creative endeavors and histories originating elsewhere These essays examine a range of new and modern work from sculptures that invoke post conflict trauma in Cambodia to Thai art installations that invite audience participation and thereby challenge traditional definitions of the art object In this way the authors not only provide a lively study of regional art but challenge and expand broad debates about international and transnational art

Between State and Market Jane Debevoise, 2025-06-19 Between State and Market Chinese Contemporary Art in the Post Mao Era examines the shift in the system of support for contemporary art in China between 1979 and 1993 from state patronage to the introduction of the market and the hybrid space that developed in between Today soaring prices for contemporary art have triggered a debate about the deleterious effect of the market on art Yet Jane DeBevoise argues that in the post Mao period the imaginary of the marketplace was liberating offering artists an alternative framework of legitimacy and support Based on primary research DeBevoise explores the entangled role of the state and the market and how experimental artists and their champions in China negotiated to find a creative space between the two systems to produce and promote their work      Why Asia? Alice Yang, Jonathan Hay, Mimi Young, 1998-03-01 Why Asia Contemporary Asian and

Asian American Art is a ground breaking investigation into two overlapping and rapidly emerging areas in contemporary art The book consists of lucid discussions on individual artists exhibitions and theoretical issues With over sixty illustrations it serves to introduce the current landscape of Asian and Asian American Art with essays on art in China Taiwan and North America as well as individual essays on leading artists such as Rirkrit Tiravanija Xu Bing and Michael Joo Above all Yang explores the challenges that contemporary Asian and Asian American art poses to artists critics curators and viewers alike In particular she reflects on the complexities of exhibition practice the role of identity politics in arts the unspoken assumptions of Western critics faced with Asian art and the difficulties faced by artists working between cultures      Modernities of

Chinese Art John Clark, 2010 This publication presents John Clark's collected writings on modern and contemporary Chinese art Almost thirty years of pioneering empirical in depth research dedicated to modernities of Chinese art is now for the first time conveniently brought together in one volume Taking up issues not handled much at the time by academic or curatorial writing John Clark wrote articles on a wide range of separate topics some of which anticipated future discussions These articles fall into a coherent series of closely related examinations on the problems of modernity in Chinese art Most of the essays published previously elsewhere have therefore been adapted for this publication while others e.g. the first hand observations of Beijing and Hong Kong in 1981 appear in print now for the first time Chapters often include unique interview material and much other information not found elsewhere Including illustrations of over 200 art works in color with biographical appendices of Taiwan and Hong Kong artists extensive chronological materials in thematic categories on Chinese art and an extensive bibliography this is an essential reference work for anyone interested in modern Chinese art

Inside/out Asia Society. Galleries, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 1998-01-01 The late twentieth century has been marked by momentous political economic and social change throughout the Chinese world Deeply rooted cultural assumptions and ancient visual traditions have been challenged by rapid modernization and conflicting global ethnic and local identities Inside Out New Chinese Art was the first major international exhibition to explore the impact of these challenges on artists in the People's Republic of China Hong Kong Taiwan and those of the 1980s Diaspora The multifaceted exhibition and accompanying catalog encompass an extensive range of artistic forms including installation video and performance art as well as more traditional media such as oils and ink The art is grouped according to themes some specific to regions and others that reflect widespread and overlapping trends With the inclusion of ambiguous territories like Hong Kong and Taiwan the exhibition opens up a perspective of modern Chinese art from the outside as well as a looking out from the inside The catalog features essays by eminent Chinese art scholars and curators along with leading curators and historians of Western art Together they promote Chinese art's rightful place in the contemporary global cultural arena and at the same time acknowledge the influence of its rich heritage The diversity and freshness of the exhibition reflects the explosion of creativity among Chinese artists during the past decade The ironic social commentary of Li Shan's The Rouge Series no 24 the apartment art of artists reacting against the traditional patronage of large museums and corporations and Wang Jin's sly humor in portraying consumer fetishes in today's China are a few examples of the spirited artistry awaiting the viewers of Inside Out

The Modern in Southeast Asian Art T.K. Sabapathy, Patrick Flores, 2023-05-12 Who spoke of the modern in Southeast Asia When and where was the modern written How was it written How was it received This collection brings together nearly 300 texts that were originally published between the late 19th to late 20th centuries selected by a group of scholars as responses to questions such as these The texts were produced chiefly in various locations in the region by artists critics historians and curators in 11 languages many of which had never before been translated into the English language Years in the making this publication is the first to present such breadth and depth of art writing in the region of Southeast Asia and will be a valuable resource to students teachers scholars and those interested in Southeast Asian studies and art history Looking from inside the region the rich fecundity of art discourses becomes clear if for example we compare the 1843 text by Raden Saleh from what is now Indonesia with the 1946 text of S Sudjojono allowing a historical grasp of modernity from two of its original texts or across the region to the 1971 text on Malaysia by Piyadasa The tyranny of physical cultural and temporal separation are thus overcome It is to the great credit of the editors that they have enabled this for us and this work will be a basic art historical reference both inside and beyond the region for some time to come John Clark Emeritus Professor of Art History University of Sydney Needed now more than ever this collection opens up new worlds in the guise of a region called Southeast Asia Each carefully selected text offers a new point of access to thinking through across beyond and with the elusive idea of the modern A signal achievement this volume is both a rich introduction to the region as well as a vital resource for anyone genuinely committed to art histories that generate new spaces rather than settle for existing realms Joan Kee Professor History of Art University of Michigan      Chinese Art Maxwell K. Hearn, Judith G. Smith, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2001 China's entry into the modern era was shaped by unprecedented internal turmoil and external pressures which brought a forceful end to two millennia of imperial rule and cultural insularity The essays in this volume offer a variety of perspectives on the impact of the West on indigenous literature architecture painting and calligraphy during this period ca 1860 1980 This book is published in conjunction with the exhibition Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Chinese Paintings from the Robert H Ellsworth Collection in The Metropolitan Museum of Art held at the museum from 30th January 19th August 2001      Modern Asian Art Sotheby's Hong Kong, Ltd, 2015      Art & Trousers David Elliott, 2021
